Preface

The editors of Church Hymns and Tunes desire briefly to state the guiding intentions in the compiling of this work.

They have been:

1. That it shall be a book of reasonable size, — not a thesaurus of religious poems, but a moderate number of hymns for singing, carefully selected for their worth and beauty as expressions of Christian praise, and truth, and experience.

2. That the hymns selected shall have such lyric quality as to justify to modern judgment their being set to music and sung in the services of public worship.

3. That the tunes shall have dignity, worth, and appropriateness as music, and that their rhythmical accents shall always, as far as possible, coincide with the natural reading accents of the hymn.

4. That the best of the old and well-known hymns and tunes shall be retained.

5. That some of the best of the later and less known productions shall be included, to the end that our available possessions of worthy hymns and music may be enlarged and enriched.

These are high aims, and earnest efforts have been made towards reaching them. Careful thought and study have been given to a wide examination of ancient and modern hymnody in order to bring out of this treasure the best things, new and old. The selection includes hymns by authors belonging to almost every branch of the Christian Church.

The same care and thought have been given to seeking from all available sources of ancient melody and modern tune the best musical settings, being guided by our aims already stated and by the thought that the book is intended for the use of the congregation. There are many new tunes, mainly from the latest and best work of acknowledged leaders in English ecclesiastical music.

Much of the labor bestowed upon this work has been in directions where its success can only be recognized by thorough inspection and trial; but it is hoped and believed that appreciation will come with examination and will grow with use.

The editors desire to gratefully acknowledge their indebtedness to the friends, whose names cannot be separately mentioned, but who have rendered cordial and valuable help, and also to the many authors and composers whose hymns and tunes will be found in this collection.

Special thanks are due to those who have kindly given free permission for the use of copyright hymns—to the Rt. Rev. William C. Doane, D.D. for hymn 85; Rev. Washington Gladden, D.D. for hymn 362; Mrs. John Hay for the late Hon. John Hay's hymn, 423; Miss Alice M. Longfellow for nine hymns of the late Rev. Samuel W. Longfellow; Rositer W. Raymond, Ph.D. for hymns 535 and 616; E. P. Dutton & Co., for the late Bishop Brooks' hymn, 132; Houghton, Mifflin and Company for the hymns of Mr. John G. Whittier, 291 and 420, and of Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, 107 and 626; Oliver Ditson & Co. for hymn 367.

The editors would also express their deep sense of obligation to the composers and owners of copyrights who have generously permitted the free use of their copyright tunes—the Bigelow and Main Co. for "He Leadeth Me;" Mr. Walter Caldicott for "Civitas Dei;" Mrs. Arthur Cottman for "Caterham," "Dalehurst," "Eversley," "Mirfield," "St. Jude;" the Rt. Rev. William C. Doane, D.D. for "Ancient of Days;" Mrs. A. E.

Dyer for "Weston;" Mr. J. W. Elliott for "Kemsing;" Harvard University for "Bethlehem" (Barnby); Mr. H. M. Higgs for "Cara Patria;" Mr. G. Everett Hill for "Rex Triumphans;" the Rev. J. S. B. Hodges, D.D. for "Watts" and "Eucharistic Hymn;" the Rev. Charles L. Hutchins, D.D. for "Materna," "Penitence," "Pro Patria;" Mrs. F. G. Ilsley for "Ilsley;" Mr. C. S. Jekyll for "Stoneleigh;" Mr. J. C. Knox for "Knox;" the Rev. Lindsay B. Longacre for "New America;" Mr. L. H. Redner for "St. Louis;" Mr. F. L. Sealy for "Cantus Gloriosus;" the Rev. T. Herbert Spinney for "St. Denys;" Mr. C. G. Verrinder for "Verrinder;" Mr. Samuel Weeks for "Burleigh," "Lustleigh;" Oliver Ditson & Co. for "Diligence;" Thomas Nelson and Sons for "Marion;" Presbyterian Board of Publication for "Glad Day," "Pilgrim Host;" Psalms and Hymns Trust (London) for "Ravenglas," "Evening Shadows;" Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge for "Lundy;" Weeks & Co. for "Camden Road," "Perivale."

Acknowledgment and thanks are also due to those who have allowed the purchase of permission to use the following copyright tunes — to Mrs. Mary Blow for "Agnus Dei;" Mr. J. H. Gower, Mus. Doc. for "Meditation;" Mr. W. Crofton Hemmons for "Aurora;" the Rev. W. Garrett Horder for "Fides Patrum;" Mr. Robert Jackson for "Bekesbourne," "Niagara," "Trentham;" Mrs. Robert Lowry for "Need;" Mr. A. H. Mann, Mus. Doc. for "Cantone," "Lampadarius;" Mr. Horatio W. Parker, Mus. Doc. for "Foundation," "Garden City," "Jubilate," "King of Glory," "Stella;" Mr. H. J. Storer for "Brothers' Voices;" Mr. Charles Vincent, Mus. Doc. for "Consecration," "Hatfield Hall," "St. Ishmael," "Solatium Caritatis;" Hymns Ancient and Modern for "Misericordia," "Rangoon;" Novello, Ewer & Co. for "Day's Ending," "Lætitia," "Minster," "Ransomed Church;" Trustees of the Church Hymnary (Edinburg) for "Gratias Agimus," "Highgate;" Universalist Publishing House for "Eaton;" Wesleyan Methodist Conference (London) for "College Chapel," "Downfield," "Gersau," "Harrogate," "Lynton," "Noricum."

A sincere effort has been made to ascertain the authorship and ownership of copyright tunes and hymns in order to secure permission for their use previous to insertion. If any copyright has been infringed, or acknowledgment omitted, the editors would tender their apologies for unintentional failure and omission, and give the assurance that these, when known, will be remedied in future editions.

The book is now sent forth with the earnest hope that, through the divine blessing, its use may help to promote a richer and more devout worship of God in the sanctuary and in the home.

The Ten Commandments

EXODUS XX : 1-17.

God spake all these words, saying:

I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them.

For I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and shewing mercy upon thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.

For the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

IV. Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates.

For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not kill.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

MATT. XXII : 37-40.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Opening Sentences

The Lord is in His holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before Him.

I will come into Thy house in the multitude of Thy mercy; and in Thy fear will I worship toward Thy holy temple.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto Thy name, O Most High: to show forth Thy loving-kindness in the morning, and Thy faithfulness every night.

Offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay thy vows unto the Most High.

God is a Spirit: and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth.

O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise.

Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His name: bring an offering and come before Him. Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before Him all the earth.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father Who art in heaven:

Hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen.

Rev. J. B. DYKES, 1861

1 Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Lord God Al-might - y! Ear - ly in the morn - ing our song shall rise to Thee; Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly!

Mer - ci - ful and Might - y! God in Three Per - sons, blessed Trin - i - ty! A - men.

- 2 Holy, Holy, Holy! All the saints adore Thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,
Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.
- 3 Holy, Holy, Holy! Though the darkness hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee
Perfect in power, in love, and purity.
- 4 Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty!
All Thy works shall praise Thy Name, in earth and sky and sea;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty!
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Bishop REGINALD HEBER, 1827

KELSO Six 7s.

E. J. HOPKINS, 1872

Ev - 'ry morn - ing mer - cies new Fall as fresh as morn - ing dew;

Ev - 'ry morn - ing let us pay Trib - ute with the ear - ly day:

For Thy mer - cies, Lord, are sure; Thy com - pas - sion doth en - dure. A - men.

2 Still the greatness of Thy love
Daily doth our sins remove;
Daily, far as east from west,
Lifts the burden from the breast;
Gives unbought to those who pray
Strength to stand in evil day.

3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
Ev'ry morning, for the strife,
Feed us with the Bread of Life.

4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendor burns,
Teach us still to turn to Thee,
Ever-blessèd Trinity,
With our hands our hearts to raise,
In unfailing prayer and praise.

REV. GREVILLE PHILLIMORE, 1863

CHARTERHOUSE Six 7s.

A. S. COOPER

Christ, whose glo - ry fills the skies, Christ, the true, the on - ly Light,

Sun of right-eous-ness a - rise, Tri-umph o'er the shades of night:

Day-spring from on high, be near; Day-star, in my heart ap-pear. A-men.

2 Dark and cheerless is the morn,
Unaccompanied by Thee;
Joyless is the day's return,
Till Thy mercy's beams I see:
Till Thou inward light impart,
Glad my eyes, and warm my heart.

3 Visit then this soul of mine,
Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
Fill me, Radiancy divine,
Scatter all my unbelief:
More and more Thyself display,
Shining to the perfect day.

INNOCENTS 7.7.7.7.

Old French Melody

As the sun doth dai - ly rise, Bright-'ning all the morn-ing skies,

So to Thee with one ac - cord Lift we up our hearts, O Lord! A-men.

2 Day by day provide us food,
For from Thee come all things good:
Strength unto our souls afford
From Thy living Bread, O Lord!

4 Quickened by the Spirit's grace
All Thy holy will to trace,
While we daily search Thy word,
Wisdom true impart, O Lord!

3 Be our Guard in sin and strife;
Be the Leader of our life;
Lest like sheep we stray abroad,
Stay our wayward feet, O Lord!

5 When the sun withdraws his light,
When we seek our beds at night,
Thou, by sleepless hosts adored,
Hear the prayer of faith, O Lord!

Come, my soul, thou must be wak - ing; Now is break - ing

O'er the earth an - oth - er day: Come to Him who made this splen - dor;

See thou ren - der All thy fee - ble powers can pay. A - men.

2 Gladly hail the sun returning:
Ready burning
Be the incense of thy powers:
For the night is safely ended;
God hath tended
With His care thy helpless hours.

3 Think that He thy ways beholdeth.
He unfoldeth
Every fault that lurks within;

He the hidden shame glossed over
Can discover,
And discern each deed of sin.

4 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
Light refuse not,
But His Spirit's voice obey;
Thou with Him shalt dwell, beholding
Light enfolding
All things in unclouded day.

PATER OMNIUM Six 8s.

H. J. E. HOLMES, 1875

When, streaming from the east - ern skies, The morning light sa - lutes mine eyes,

O Sun of right-eous-ness di - vine, On me with beams of mer - cy shine:

Chase the dark clouds of guilt a-way, And turn my dark-ness in - to day. A-men.

2 As ev'ry day Thy mercy spares
Will bring its trials and its cares,
O Saviour, till my life shall end,
Be Thou my counselor and friend!
Teach me Thy precepts all divine,
And be Thy great example mine.

3 And when to heaven's all-glorious King
My morning sacrifice I bring,
And, grieving o'er my guilt and shame,

Ask mercy in my Saviour's name,
Then, Jesus, cleanse me with Thy blood,
And be my Advocate with God.

4 When each day's scenes and labors close
And wearied nature seeks repose,
With pardoning mercy richly blest,
Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest;
And as each morning sun shall rise,
O lead me onward to the skies.

SAMUEL WEBBE, 1792. Arr. by W. H. MONK

New ev - 'ry morn-ing is the love Our wak'ning and up - ris-ing prove;

Thro' sleep and darkness safely brought, Restored to life, and pow'r and thought. Amen.

2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

3 If, on our daily course, our mind
Is set to hallow all we find,

New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

4 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above,
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

My God, how end - less is thy love: Thy gifts are ev - 'ry eve - ning new;

And morning mer - cies from a - bove, Gen - tly dis - til like ear - ly dew. A - men.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
Great guardian of my sleeping hours;
Thy sovereign word restores the light,

Perpetual blessings from Thy hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

MORNING HYMN L. M.

F. H. BARTHOLEMON, 1780

A - wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run;

Shake off dull sloth, and ear - ly rise To pay thy morn - ing sac - ri - fice. A - men.

2 Redeem thy misspent time that's past,
And live this day as if thy last;
Improve thy talent with due care;
For the great day thyself prepare.

4 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my pow'rs, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

3 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
Disperse my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

5 All praise to Thee, Who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake
I may of endless light partake.

Bishop THOMAS KEN, 1695

DALEHURST C. M.

ARTHUR COTTMAN, 1872

2 Up to the hills where Christ is gone,
To plead for all His saints,
Presenting at His Father's throne,
Our songs and our complaints.

4 But to Thy house will I resort
To taste Thy mercies there;
I will frequent Thy holy court,
And worship in Thy fear.

3 Thou art a God before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;
Sinners shall ne'er be Thy delight,
Nor dwell at Thy right hand.

5 O, may Thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness;
Make every path of duty straight
And plain before my face.

REV. ISAAC WATTS, 1719

EVERSLEY C. M.

ARTHUR COTTMAN

2 May this desire my spirit rule,
And as the moments fly
Something of good be born in me,
Something of evil die.

Some sin that strives for mastery
Find overthrow complete.

3 Some grace that seeks my heart to win,
With shining vict'ry meet,

4 That so throughout the coming day
The hours shall carry me
A little farther from the world,
A little nearer Thee.

Mrs. F. A. PERCY

ST. LEONARD C. M. D.

HENRY HILES, 1867

The shad - ows of the eve - ning hours Fall from the dark - ning sky;

Up - on the fra-grance of the flow'rs The dew's of eve - ning lie:

Be - fore Thy throne, O Lord of Heav'n, We kneel at close of day;

Look on Thy children from on high, And hear us while we pray. A-men.

2 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord,
O, do not Thou despise,
But let the incense of our prayers
Before Thy mercy rise.
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls;
With hopes of future glory, chase
The shadows from our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
So fade within the heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy
That one by one depart.
Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine;
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in Heaven,
And trust in things divine.

4 Let peace, O Lord, Thy peace, O God,
Upon our souls descend,
From midnight fears, and perils, Thou
Our trembling hearts defend:
Give us a respite from our toil,
Calm and subdue our woes;
Through the long day we suffer, Lord,
O give us now repose!

TALLIS'S EVENING HYMN L. M.

Alt. from THOMAS TALLIS, 1560

All praise to Thee, my God, this night, For all the blessings of the light;

Keep me, O keep me, King of kings, Be-neath Thine own al-might-y wings. A-men.

- 2 Forgive me, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
- 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;
Teach me to die that so I may Rise glorious at Thy judgment day.
- 4 O may my soul on Thee repose,
And with sweet sleep mine eyelids close;
- 5 Sleep that may me more vig'rous make
To serve my God when I awake.
- 5 When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.
- 6 O when shall I, in endless day
For ever chase dark sleep away,
And hymns with the supernal choir
Incessant sing, and never tire.

Bishop THOMAS KEN, 1693 (text of 1709)

CANONBURY L. M.

A-gain, as eve-ning's shad-ow falls, We gath-er in these hallowed walls;

And eve-ning hymn and evening prayer Rise mingling on the ho-ly air. A-men.

- 2 May struggling hearts, that seek release,
Here find the rest of God's own peace;
And, strengthened here by hymn and prayer,
Lay down the burden and the care.
- 3 O God our Light, to Thee we bow;
Within all shadows standest Thou:
- 4 Give deeper calm than night can bring,
Give sweeter songs than life can sing.
- 4 Life's tumult we must meet again,
We cannot at the shrine remain;
But in the spirit's secret cell,
May hymn and prayer for ever dwell.

Sun of my soul, Thou Sav-iour dear, It is not night if Thou be near;
O may no earth-born cloud a-rise To hide Thee from Thy ser-vant's eyes. A-men.

- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast.
- 3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.
- 4 If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned to-day the voice Divine,
- Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.
- 5 Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
With blessings from Thy boundless store;
Be ev'ry mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infants' slumbers, pure and light.
- 6 Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take,
Till in the ocean of Thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

Ho-ly Fa-ther, cheer our way With Thy love's per-pet-ual ray:
Grant us ev-'ry clos-ing day Light at eve-ning time. A-men.

- 2 Holy Saviour, calm our fears
When earth's brightness disappears:
Grant us in our later years
Light at evening-time.
- 3 Holy Spirit, be Thou nigh
When in mortal pains we lie;
- Grant us, as we come to die,
Light at evening-time.

This night, O Lord, we bless Thee For Thy pro - tect - ing care,

And, ere we rest, ad - dress Thee In low - ly, fer - vent prayer:

From e - vil and temp - ta - tion De - fend us through the night,

And round our hab - i - ta - tion Be Thou a wall of light. A-men.

2 On Thee our whole reliance
 From day to day we cast,
 To Thee, with firm affiance,
 Would cleave from first to last;
 To Thee, through Jesus' merit,
 For needful grace we come,
 And trust that Thy good Spirit
 Will guide us safely home.

3 What may be on the morrow
 Our foresight cannot see;
 But be it joy or sorrow,
 We know it comes from Thee.
 And nothing can take from us,
 Where'er our steps may move,
 The staff of Thy sure promise,
 The shield of Thy true love.

The day is past and o - ver; All thanks, O Lord, to Thee! I pray Thee now that sin - less The hours of dark may be. O Je - sus, keep me in Thy sight, And save me thro' the com - ing night! A-men.

2 The joys of day are over.

I lift my heart to Thee,
And ask Thee, that offenceless
The hours of dark may be.

O Jesus, make their darkness light,
And save me through the coming night!

3 The toils of day are over.

I raise the hymn to Thee,
And ask that free from peril
The hours of fear may be.

O Jesus, keep me in Thy sight,
And guard me through the coming night!

4 Be Thou my soul's preserver,

O God, for Thou dost know

How many are the perils

Through which I have to go.

Lover of men, oh, hear my call,

And guard and save me from them all!

Now God be with us, for the night is clos - ing: The light and here to rest we yield us, For He will shield us. A-men.

- 2 Let evil thoughts and spirits flee before us;
Till morning cometh, watch, O Father, o'er us;
In soul and body Thou from harm defend us;
Thine angels send us.
- 3 We have no refuge; none on earth to aid us;
Save Thee, O Father, who Thine own hast made us;
But Thy dear presence will not leave them lonely,
Who seek Thee only.

Soft - ly now the light of day Fades up - on my sight a - way:

Free from care, from la - bor free, Lord, I would commune with Thee. A-men.

2 Thou, whose all-pervading eye
Naught escapes, without, within,
Pardon each infirmity,
Open fault, and secret sin.

3 Soon, for me, the light of day
Shall forever pass away:

Then, from sin and sorrow free,
Take me, Lord, to dwell with Thee.

4 Thou who, sinless, yet hast known
All of man's infirmity;
Then, from Thine eternal throne,
Jesus, look with pitying eye.

Our day of praise is done, . . The eve - ning shad - ows fall, . .

But pass not from us with the sun, True Light that light'nest all. A - men.

2 Around the throne on high
Where night can never be,
The white-robed harpers of the sky
Bring ceaseless hymns to Thee.

3 Too faint our anthems here;
Too soon of praise we tire;
But O the strains how full and clear
Of that eternal choir.

4 Yet, Lord, to Thy dear will,
If thou attune the heart,

We in Thine angels' music still
May bear our lower part.

5 'Tis Thine each soul to calm,
Each wayward thought reclaim,
And make our daily life a psalm
Of glory to Thy name.

6 A little while, and then
Shall come the glorious end;
And songs of angels and of men
In perfect praise shall blend.

Nor Thy smile be e'er denied us,
The livelong day.

3 Guard us waking, guard us sleeping,
And, when we die,

When the last dread call shall wake us,
To not Thou, our God, forsake us,
But to reign in glory take us
With Thee on high.

ALL FOR JESUS (Wycliffe) 8.7.8.7.

J. STAINER, 1872

Hear our pray'r, O Heav'n-ly Fa-ther, Ere we lay us down to sleep;

Bid Thine an-gels, pure and ho-ly, Round our bed their vig-ils keep. A-men.

2 Heavy though our sins, Thy mercy
Far outweighs them every one;
Down before the cross we cast them,
Trusting in Thy help alone.

3 Keep us through this night of peril
Safe beneath its sheltering shade;
Take us to Thy rest, we pray Thee,
When our pilgrimage is made.

4 None can measure out Thy patience
By the span of human thought;
None can bound the tender mercies
Which Thy holy Son has bought.

5 Pardon all our past transgressions,
Give us strength for days to come;
Guide and guard us with Thy blessing,
Till Thine angels bear us home.

Now, on land and sea de-scend-ing, Brings the night its peace pro-found;

Let our ves-per hymn be blend-ing With the ho-ly calm a-round. A-men.

2 Soon as dies the sunset glory,
Stars of heaven shine out above,
Telling still the ancient story, —
Their Creator's changeless love.

3 Now, our wants and burdens leaving
To His care Who cares for all,

Cease we fearing, cease we grieving:
At His touch our burdens fall.

4 As the darkness deepens o'er us,
Lo! eternal stars arise;
Hope and faith and love rise glorious,
Shining in the spirit's skies.

See! the shades of eve-ning gath-er, And the night is draw-ing nigh. A-men.

2 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
Paler now the glowing west,
Swift the night of death advances;
Shall it be the night of rest?

4 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
Lord, I cast myself on Thee;
Tarry with me through the darkness;
While I sleep, still watch by me.

3 Let me hear Thy voice behind me,
Calming all these wild alarms;
Let me, underneath my weakness,
Feel the everlasting arms.

5 Tarry with me, O my Saviour!
Lay my head upon Thy breast,

Watchest where Thy people be.

J. H. HOPKINS, 1872

The sun is sink - ing fast, The day - light dies;
Let love a - wake, and pay Her eve - ning sac - ri - fice. A-men.

2 As Christ upon the Cross
His head inclined,
And to His Father's hands
His parting soul resigned,

5 Save that His will be done,
Whate'er betide —
Dead to herself, and dead
In Him to all beside.

3 So now herself my soul
Would wholly give Into His sacred charge,
In whom all spirits live;

6 Thus would I live: yet now
Not I, but He,
In all His power and love,
Henceforth alive in me.

4 So now beneath His eye
Would calmly rest,
Without a wish or thought
Abiding in the breast,

7 One sacred Trinity,
One Lord divine,
May I be ever His,
And He for ever mine.

- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.
- 3 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.
- 4 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.
- 5 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes,
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

In vaster worlds, unseen, unknown,
Whose duteous service never slumbers,
In perfect love, and faultless tone.

Which none but Thy redeemed can learn.

(MERRIAL) 6.5.6.5.

2 Jesus, give the weary
Calm and sweet repose;
With Thy tenderest blessing
May our eyelids close.

3 Grant to little children
Visions bright of Thee;
Guard the sailors tossing
On the deep blue sea.

4 Comfort every sufferer
Watching late in pain;

Those who plan some evil
From their sins restrain.

5 Through the long night-watches
May Thine angels spread
Their white wings above me,
Watching round my bed.

6 When the morning wakens
Then may I arise
Pure, and fresh, and sinless
In Thy holy eyes.

S. BARING-GOULD, 1865

O day of rest and glad - ness, O day of joy and light,

O balm of care and sad - ness, Most beau - ti - ful, most bright:

On thee, the high and low - ly, Through a - ges joined in tune,

Sing ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, To the great God Tri - une. A-men.

2 On thee, at the creation,
The light first had its birth;
On thee, for our salvation,
Christ rose from depths of earth;
On thee our Lord, victorious,
The Spirit sent from heaven,
And thus on thee, most glorious,
A triple light was given.

3 To-day on weary nations
The heavenly manna falls;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,
Where gospel light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.

4 New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining
To spirits of the blest;

To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father and to Son;
The Church her voice upraises
To Thee, blest Three in One.

W. JONES, 1789

A - gain our earth - ly cares we leave, And in Thy courts ap - pear;
A - gain, with joy - ful feet, we come To meet our Sav - iour here. A-men.

2 Within these walls let holy peace,
And love and concord dwell;
Here give the troubled conscience ease,
The wounded spirit heal.

And, in the presence of our Lord,
Unbosom all our cares.

3 May we in faith receive Thy word,
In faith present our prayers;

4 Show us some token of Thy love,
Our fainting hope to raise,
And pour Thy blessing from above,
That we may render praise.

Rev. JOHN NEWTON, 1779. Ver. 1, THOMAS COTTERILL, 1819

ST. PETER C. M.

A. R. REINAGLE, 1826

What shall I ren - der to my God For all His kind-ness shown?

My feet shall vis - it Thine a - bode, My songs address Thy throne. A-men.

2 Among the saints that fill Thy house,
My offering shall be paid;
There shall my zeal perform the vows
My soul in anguish made.

How dear Thy servants in Thy sight!
How precious is their blood!

3 How much is mercy Thy delight,
Thou ever-blessèd God!

4 How happy all Thy servants are!
How great Thy grace to me!
My life, which Thou hast made Thy care,
Lord, I devote to Thee.

German Melody. Arr. by S. DYER, 1824

Je - sus, wher-e'er Thy peo - ple meet, There they be - hold Thy mer - cy - seat;

Wher-e'er they seek Thee, Thou art found, And ev-'ry place is hallowed ground. Amen.

2 For Thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;
Such ever bring Thee where they come,
And going, take Thee to their home.

Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of Thy saving name.

3 Dear Shepherd of Thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew;

4 Here may we prove the power of prayer
To strengthen faith, and sweeten care,
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.

WILLIAM COWPER, 1769

Ho - san - na to the liv - ing Lord! Ho - san - na to th' In - car - nate Word:

To Christ, Cre - a - tor, Sav - iour, King, Let earth, let heaven, Ho - san - na sing!

Ho - san - na, Lord! Ho - san - na in the high - est! A - men.

2 Hosanna, Lord! Thine angels cry;
Hosanna, Lord! Thy saints reply;
Above, beneath us, and around,
The dead and living swell the sound.

Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

3 O Saviour! with protecting care,
Return to this Thy house of prayer:
Assembled in Thy sacred name,
Here we Thy parting promise claim!

Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

4 But, chiefest, in our cleansèd breast,
Eternal! bid Thy Spirit rest,
And make our secret soul to be
A temple pure, and worthy Thee!
Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

5 So, in the last and dreadful day,
When earth and heaven shall melt away,
Thy flock, redeemed from sinful stain,
Shall swell the sound of praise again.
Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

DAY OF PRAISE S. M.

CHARLES STEGGALL, 1867

Come, sound His praise a - broad, And hymns of glo - ry sing:

Je - ho - vah is the sov'-reign God, The u - ni - ver - sal King. A-men.

2 He formed the deeps unknown,
He gave the seas their bound;
The watery worlds are all His own,
And all the solid ground.

3 Come, worship at His throne,
Come, bow before the Lord,

We are His work, and not our own;
He formed us by His word.

4 To-day attend His voice,
Nor dare provoke His rod:
Come, like the people of His choice,
And own your gracious God.

REV. ISAAC WATTS, 1719

ST. THOMAS S. M.

A. WILLIAMS, 1762

Come, we that love the Lord, And let our joys be known;

Join in a song of sweet ac-cord, And thus sur-round the throne. A-men.

2 Let those refuse to sing
That never knew our God;
But children of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.

3 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below;
Celestial fruits on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow.

4 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.

5 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

SAMUEL 6.6.6.6.8.8.

A. SULLIVAN, 1874

Fa - ther of all, to Thee With lov - ing hearts we pray,

Through Him, in mer - cy given, The Life, the Truth, the Way;

From heav'n, Thy throne, in mercy shed Thy blessings on each bend - ed head. A-men.

2 Father of all, to Thee
Our contrite hearts we raise,
Unstrung by sin and pain,
Long voiceless in Thy praise;
Breathe Thou the silent chords along,
Until they tremble into song.

That have no voice but tears;
Take Thou our hand, and through the wild
Lead gently on each trembling child.

3 Father of all, to Thee
We breathe unuttered fears,
Deep-hidden in our souls,

4 Father of all, may we
In praise our tongues employ,
When gladness fills the soul
With deep and hallowed joy;
In storm and calm give us to see
The path of peace, which leads to Thee.

HORTON 7.7.7.7.

X. VON WARTENSEE. Arr.

Lord, we come be - fore Thee now, At Thy feet we hum - bly bow;

O do not our suit dis-dain, Shall we seek Thee, Lord, in vain? A-men.

2 Lord, on Thee our souls depend;
In compassion, now descend;
Fill our hearts with Thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing Thy praise.

3 In Thine own appointed way,
Now we seek Thee, here we stay:
Lord, we know not how to go,
Till a blessing Thou bestow.

4 Send some message from Thy word,
That may joy and peace afford;

Let Thy Spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart.

5 Comfort those who weep and mourn,
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down lift up,
Strong in faith, in love, and hope.

6 Grant that those who seek may find
Thee a God sincere and kind;
Heal the sick, the captive free,
Let us all rejoice in Thee.

J. R. AHLE, 1664

To Thy tem - ple I re - pair, Lord, I love to wor - ship there,

When with - in the veil I meet Christ be - fore the mer - cy - seat. A-men.

2 While Thy glorious praise is sung,
Touch my lips, unloose my tongue,
That my joyful soul may bless
Thee, the Lord my Righteousness.

3 While the prayers of saints ascend,
God of love, to mine attend;
Hear me, for Thy Spirit pleads,
Hear, for Jesus intercedes.

4 While I hearken to Thy law,
Fill my soul with humble awe,

Till Thy gospel bring to me
Life and immortality.

5 While Thy ministers proclaim
Peace and pardon in Thy name,
Through their voice, by faith, may I
Hear Thee speaking from the sky.

6 From Thy house when I return,
May my heart within me burn;
And at evening let me say,
I have walked with God to-day.

JAMES MONTGOMERY, 1812

O - pen now Thy gates of beau - ty, Zi - on, let me en - ter there,

Where my soul in joy - ful du - ty Waits for Him who an - swers prayer:

O how bless - ed is this place, Filled with sol - ace, light, and grace. A - men.

2 Yes, my God, I come before Thee,
Come Thou also down to me;
Where we find Thee and adore Thee,
There a heaven on earth must be.
To my heart O enter Thou,
Let it be Thy temple now.

3 Here Thy praise is gladly chanted,
Here Thy seed is duly sown;
Let my soul, where it is planted,
Bring forth precious sheaves alone;
So that all I hear may be Fruitful unto life in me.

4 Speak, O God, and I will hear Thee,
Let Thy will be done indeed;
May I undisturbed draw near Thee
While Thou dost Thy people feed.
Here of life the fountain flows,
Here is balm for all our woes.

Rev. BENJAMIN SCHMOLCK, 1732. Tr. CATHERINE WINKWORTH, 1863

E. J. HOPKINS, 1868

In Thy name, O Lord, as - sem - bling, We, Thy peo - ple, now draw near:

Teach us to re - joice with trem - bling; Speak, and let Thy ser - vants hear, Hear with meek - ness, Hear Thy word with god - ly fear. A-men.

2 While our days on earth are lengthened,
 May we give them, Lord, to Thee;
 Cheered by hope, and daily strengthened,
 May we run, nor weary be,
 Till Thy glory
 Without clouds in heaven we see.

3 There in worship purer, sweeter,
 Thee, Thy people shall adore;
 Tasting of enjoyment greater
 Far than thought conceived before;
 Full enjoyment,
 Full, unmixed, and evermore.

J. ZUNDEL, 1870

Love di - vine, all love ex - cell - ing, Joy of heav'n, to earth come down;

Fix in us Thy hum - ble dwell - ing, All Thy faith - ful mer - cies crown:

Je - sus, Thou art all com - pas - sion, Pure, un - bound - ed love Thou art:

Vis - it us with Thy sal - va - tion, En - ter ev - 'ry trembling heart. A - men.

2 Breathe, O breathe Thy loving Spirit

Into every troubled breast:

Let us all in Thee inherit,

Let us find Thy promised rest:

Take away our love of sinning,

Alpha and Omega be,

End of faith, as its beginning,

Set our hearts at liberty.

3 Come, Almighty to deliver,

Let us all Thy life receive;

Suddenly return, and never,

Never more Thy temples leave.

Thee we would be always blessing,

Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,

Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing,

Glory in Thy perfect love.

4 Finish then Thy new creation,
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see Thy great salvation
Perfectly restored in Thee:

Chang'd from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

2 Heaven is still with glory ringing;
 Earth takes up the angels' cry,
 "Holy, holy, holy," singing,
 "Lord of Hosts, the Lord most high."
 With His seraph train before Him,
 With His holy Church below,
 Thus unite we to adore Him,
 Bid we thus our anthem flow.

3 "Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven,
 Earth is with its fullness stored:
 Unto Thee be glory given,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord!"
 Thus Thy glorious name confessing,
 We adopt the angels' cry,
 "Holy, holy, holy," blessing
 Thee the Lord of Hosts most high.

FELICE DE GIARDINI, 1769

Come, Thou Al-mighty King, Help us Thy name to sing, Help us to praise: Father, all-glo-ri-ous, O'er all vic-to - ri-ous, Come, and reign over us, Ancient of days. A-men.

2 Come, Thou Incarnate Word,
Gird on Thy mighty sword,
Our prayer attend:
Come, and Thy people bless,
And give Thy word success;
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend.

Thou who Almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.

3 Come, Holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear
In this glad hour:

4 To the great One in Three Eternal praises be
Hence evermore.
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see
And to eternity
Love and adore.

2 O we would bless Thee for Thy ceaseless care,
And all Thy work from day to day declare!
Is not our life with hourly mercies crowned?
Does not Thine arm encircle us around?

3 Alas! unworthy of Thy boundless love,
Too oft with careless feet from Thee we rove;
But now, encouraged by Thy voice, we come,
Returning sinners, to a Father's home.

4 O by that name in which all fulness dwells,
O by that love which every love excels,
O by that blood so freely shed for sin,
Open blest Mercy's gate, and take us in!

sing His pow'r and His love; Our Shield and De-fend-er, the

An-cient of Days, Pa-vil-ioned in splen-dor, and gird-ed with praise. A-men.

- 2 O tell of His might, O sing of His grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.
- 3 The earth, with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty, Thy power hath founded of old,
Hath stablished it fast by a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.
- 4 Thy bountiful care, what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.
- 5 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail:
Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!
- 6 O measureless Might, ineffable Love!
While angels delight to hymn Thee above,
The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall lisp to Thy praise.

His king-dom is glo-rious, and rules o-ver all. A-men.

2 God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still He is nigh — His presence we have:
The great congregation His triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus, our King.

3 Salvation to God, Who sits on the throne!
Let all cry aloud, and honor the Son:
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.

4 Then let us adore, and give Him His right,
All glory and power, and wisdom and might,
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love.

Sweet Sav-iour, bless us ere we go; Thy word in - to our minds in - still;

And make our luke-warm hearts to glow With low - ly love and fer - vent will.

Thro' life's long day and death's dark night, O gen-tle Je-sus, be our Light. A-men.

2 The day is gone, its hours have run,
And thou hast taken count of all,
The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.
Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our Light.

4 Do more than pardon; give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And simple hearts without alloy
That only long to be like Thee.
Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our Light.

3 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release;
And bless us, more than in past days,
With purity and inward peace.
Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our Light.

5 For all we love, the poor, the sad,
The sinful, unto Thee we call;
Oh, let Thy mercy make us glad:
Thou art our Jesus, and our all.
Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our Light.

2 Here sinners of a humble frame
May taste His grace, and learn His name;
May read, in characters of blood,
The wisdom, power, and grace of God.

3 The prisoner here may break his chains;
The weary rest from all his pains;
The captive feel his bondage cease;
The mourner find the way of peace.

4 Here faith reveals to mortal eyes
A brighter world beyond the skies;
Here shines the light which guides our way
From earth to realms of endless day.

5 O grant us grace, Almighty Lord,

Lamp of our feet, where-by we trace Our path when wont to stray;
Stream from the fount of heav'n-ly grace, Brook by the trav'ler's way; A-men.

| 2 Bread of our souls, whereon we feed,
True manna from on high;
Our guide and chart, wherein we read
Of realms beyond the sky; | 4 Word of the everlasting God,
Will of His glorious Son;
Without Thee how could earth be trod,
Or heaven itself be won? |
| 3 Pillar of fire, through watches dark,
Or radiant cloud by day,
When waves would whelm our tossing bark,
Our anchor and our stay. | 5 Lord, grant us all aright to learn
The wisdom it imparts;
And to its heavenly teaching turn,
With simple, child-like hearts. |

| 2 Here the Redeemer's welcome voice
Spreads heavenly peace around;
And life and everlasting joys
Attend the blissful sound. | And still new beauties may I see,
And still increasing light. |
| 3 O may these heavenly pages be
My ever dear delight; | 4 Divine Instructor, gracious Lord,
Be Thou forever near;
Teach me to love Thy sacred word,
And view my Saviour there. |

Lord, I have made Thy Word my choice, My last - ing her - it - age:

There shall my no-blest pow'rs re-joice, My warm-est tho'ts en-gage. A-men.

2 I'll read the histories of Thy love,
And keep Thy laws in sight;
While through the promises I rove
With ever fresh delight.

Seeds of immortal bliss are sown,
And hidden glory lies.

3 'Tis a broad land of wealth unknown,
Where springs of life arise,

4 The best relief that mourners have:
It makes our sorrows blest;
Our fairest hope beyond the grave,
And our eternal rest.

How pre-cious is the book di-vine, By in-spi-ra-tion given:

Bright as a lamp its doc-trines shine, To guide our souls to heav'n. A-men.

2 Its light, descending from above,
Our gloomy world to cheer,
• Displays a Saviour's boundless love,
And brings His glories near.

4 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

3 It shows to man his wandering ways,
And where his feet have trod;
And brings to view the matchless grace
Of a forgiving God.

5 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

The Spir - it breathes up - on the word, And brings the truth to sight;

Pre - cepts and prom - is - es af - ford A sanc - ti - fy - ing light. A-men.

- 2 A glory gilds the sacred page,
Majestic, like the sun:
It gives a light to every age;
It gives, but borrows none.
- 3 The hand that gave it still supplies
The gracious light and heat:
His truths upon the nations rise;
They rise, but never set.

- 4 Let everlasting thanks be Thine
For such a bright display
As makes a world of darkness shine
With beams of heavenly day.
- 5 My soul rejoices to pursue
The steps of Him I love,
Till glory breaks upon my view
In brighter worlds above.

Book of grace, and book of glo - ry! Gift of God to age and youth,

Won-drous is thy sa - cred sto - ry, Bright, bright with truth. A-men.

- 2 Book of love! in accents tender
Speaking unto such as we;
May it lead us, Lord, to render
All, all to Thee.
- 3 Book of hope! the spirit, sighing,
Sweetest comfort finds in thee,

- As it hears the Saviour crying,
"Come, come to me!"
- 4 Book of life, when we, reposing,
Bid farewell to friends we love,
Give us, for the life then closing,

THOMAS MACKELLAR, 1843

O Word of God in - car - nate, O Wis - dom from on high,

O Truth un-changed, un-chang - ing, O Light of our dark sky;

We praise Thee for the ra - diance That from the hal - lowed page,

A lan - tern to our foot - steps, Shines on from age to age. A-men.

2 The Church from Thee, her Master,
 Received the gift divine;
 And still that light she lifteth
 O'er all the earth to shine;
 It is the golden casket
 Where gems of truth are stored;
 It is the heaven-drawn picture
 Of Thee, the living Word.

3 It floateth like a banner
 Before God's host unfurled;
 It shineth like a beacon
 Above the darkling world;
 It is the chart and compass,
 That o'er life's surging sea,
 'Mid mists, and rocks, and quicksands,
 Still guides, O Christ, to Thee.

4 O make Thy Church, dear Saviour,
 A lamp of burnished gold,
 To bear before the nations
 Thy true light, as of old.
 O teach Thy wandering pilgrims
 By this their path to trace,
 Till, clouds and darkness ended,
 They see Thee face to face.

2 To God the Son belongs

Immortal glory too,

Who saved us by His blood

From everlasting woe:

And now He lives, and now He reigns,

And sees the fruit of all His pains.

3 To God the Spirit praise

And endless worship give,

Whose new-creating power

Makes the dead sinner live:

His work completes the great design,

And fills the soul with joy divine.

4 Almighty God, to Thee

Be endless honors done;

The sacred Persons Three,

The Godhead only One;

Where reason fails with all her powers,

There faith prevails and love adores.

Mysterious Godhead, Three in One,
Before Thy throne we sinners bend:
Grace, pardon, life, to us extend.

ANCIENT OF DAYS 11.10.11.10. (First Tune)

T. A. JEFFERY, 1886

An-cient of days, Who sittest, thron'd in glo-ry;

To Thee all knees are bent, all voi-ces pray; Thy love has bless'd the wide world's wondrous sto-ry, With light and life since Eden's dawn-ing day. A-men.

The musical score is written for four parts: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. It is in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. The score is divided into three systems. The first system contains the first line of the hymn. The second system contains the second line. The third system contains the third line. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves. The piano accompaniment is written for the right and left hands on grand staves. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, bar lines, and dynamic markings.

2 O Holy Father, Who hast led Thy children
In all the ages, with the fire and cloud,
Through seas dry-shod; through weary wastes bewildering;
To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.

3 O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Saviour,
To Thee we owe the peace that still prevails,
Stilling the rude wills of men's wild behavior,
And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

4 O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Life-Giver,
Thine is the quickening power that gives increase.
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity and peace.

5 O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
Praise we the goodness that has crowned our day;
Pray we, that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favor, kept to us always.

2 Glory be to Him Who loved us,
Washed us from each spot and stain;
Glory be to Him Who bought us,
Made us kings with Him to reign:
Glory, glory,
To the Lamb that once was slain!

3 Glory to the King of angels,
Glory to the Church's King,
Glory to the King of nations,
Heaven and earth, your praises bring:
Glory, glory,
To the King of glory bring!

4 Glory, blessing, praise eternal!
Thus the choir of angels sings;
Honor, riches, power, dominion!
Thus its praise creation brings:
Glory, glory,
Glory to the King of kings.

| 2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men;
And when, like wandering sheep, we strayed,
He brought us to His fold again. | 4 We'll crowd Thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;
And earth with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill Thy courts with sounding praise. |
| 3 We are His people, we His care,
Our souls and all our mortal frame:
What lasting honors shall we rear,
Almighty Maker, to Thy name? | 5 Wide as the world is Thy command,

2 Give to the Lord of lords renown;
The King of kings with glory crown:
His mercies ever shall endure,
When lords and kings are known no more.

4 He fills the sun with morning light;
He bids the moon direct the night:
His mercies ever shall endure,
When suns and moons shall shine no more.

3 He built the earth, He spread the sky,
And fixed the starry lights on high:
Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat His mercies in your song.

5 He sent His Son with power to save
From guilt, and darkness, and the grave:
Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat His mercies in your song.

Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

4 And can man alone be dumb
Till that glorious kingdom come?

No; the church delights to raise
Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.

5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

For Thy children here to do?

4 With the prophets' goodly line
We in mystic bond combine;

For Thou hast to us revealed
Things that to the wise were sealed.

5 Martyrs, in a noble host,
Of the cross are heard to boast;
O that we our cross may bear,
And a crown of glory wear!

6 God eternal, mighty King,

Our help - er He a - mid the flood Of mor-tal ills pre - vail - ing;

For still our an-cient foe Doth seek to work us woe; His craft and pow'r are great, And arm'd with cru-el hate, On earth is not His e - qual. A-men.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing, —
Were not the right man on our side,
The man of God's own choosing:
Dost ask who that may be?
Christ Jesus, it is He!
Lord Sabaoth, His name,
From age to age the same;
And He must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils filled,
Should threaten to undo us,
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us:

The prince of darkness grim —
We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure;
For lo, his doom is sure;
One little word shall fell him.

4 That word above all earthly powers —
No thanks to them — abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours,
Through Him Who with us sideth:
Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also;
The body they may kill,
God's truth abideth still;
His kingdom is for ever.

Thy honored, true, and only Son,
And Holy Ghost, the spring
Of never ceasing joy; O Christ,
Of glory Thou art King.

High in the heav'ns, e - ter - nal God, Thy goodness in full glo - ry shines;

Thy truth shall break thro' ev'ry cloud That veils and dark-ens Thy de-signs. A-men.

- 2 Forever firm Thy justice stands, The sons of Adam in distress
As mountains their foundations keep; Fly to the shadow of Thy wing.
Wise are the wonders of Thy hands;
Thy judgments are a mighty deep.
- 3 My God, how excellent Thy grace, 4 Life, like a fountain rich and free,
Whence all our hope and comfort spring. Springs from the presence of my Lord,
And in Thy light our souls shall see
The glories promised in Thy word.

German Melody. Arr. by S. DYER, 1824

Lord of all be - ing, thron'd a - far, Thy glo - ry flames from sun and star;

Cen-ter and soul of ev - 'ry sphere, Yet to each lov - ing heart how near. A-men.

- 2 Sun of our life, Thy quickening ray 4 Lord of all life, below, above,
Sheds on our path the glow of day; Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Star of our hope, Thy softened light Before Thy ever-blazing throne
Cheers the long watches of the night. We ask no luster of our own.
- 3 Our midnight is Thy smile withdrawn; 5 Grant us Thy truth to make us free,
Our noontide is Thy gracious dawn; And kindling hearts that burn for Thee,
Our rainbow arch Thy mercy's sign; Till all Thy living altars claim
All, save the clouds of sin, are Thine. One holy light, one heavenly flame.

O love of God, how strong and true! E - ter - nal, and yet ev - er new;
Un-com-pre-hended and unbought, Be-yond all knowledge and all thought. A-men.

- 2 O heavenly love, how precious still,
In days of weariness and ill,
In nights of pain and helplessness,
To heal, to comfort, and to bless!
- 3 O wide-embracing, wondrous love!
We read Thee in the sky above,
We read thee in the earth below,
In seas that swell, and streams that flow.
- 4 We read thee best in Him Who came
To bear for us the cross of shame;

- Sent by the Father from on high,
Our life to live, our death to die.
- 5 We read Thy power to bless and save,
E'en in the darkness of the grave;
Still more in resurrection light,
We read the fulness of Thy might.
- 6 O love of God, our shield and stay
Through all the perils of our way!
Eternal love, in thee we rest,
For ever safe, for ever blest.

God is love; His mer - cy brightens All the path in which we rove;
Bliss He wakes, and woe He light-ens: God is wis-dom, God is love. A-men.

- 2 Chance and change are busy ever;
Man decays, and ages move;
But His mercy waneth never:
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 3 E'en the hour that darkest seemeth
Will His changeless goodness prove;

- From the gloom His brightness streameth:
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 4 He with earthly cares entwineth
Hope and comfort from above;
Everywhere His glory shineth:
God is wisdom, God is love.

2 Our years are like the shadows
 On sunny hills that lie,
 Or grasses in the meadows
 That blossom but to die:
 A sleep, a dream, a story
 By strangers quickly told,
 An unremaining glory
 Of things that soon are old.

3 O Thou, Who canst not slumber,
 Whose light grows never pale,
 Teach us aright to number
 Our years before they fail.

On us Thy mercy lighten,
 On us Thy goodness rest,
 And let Thy Spirit brighten
 The hearts Thyself hast blessed.

4 Lord, crown our faith's endeavor
 With beauty and with grace,
 Till, clothed in light for ever,
 We see Thee face to face:
 A joy no language measures;
 A fountain brimming o'er;
 An endless flow of pleasures;
 An ocean without shore.

Lord, with glow-ing heart I'd praise Thee For the bliss Thy love be - stows,

For the par - d'ning grace that saves me, And the peace that from it flows:

Help, O God, my weak en-deav - or; This dull soul to rap-ture raise:

Thou must light the flame, or nev - er Can my love be warmed to praise. A-men.

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
Wretched wanderer, far astray;
Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
From the paths of death away;
Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
Him Who saw thy guilt-born fear,
And, the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained Cross appear.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express:
Low before Thy footstool kneeling,
Deign Thy suppliant's prayer to bless:
Let Thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise;
And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth Thy praise.

CHURCH TRIUMPHANT L. M.

JAMES W. ELLIOTT, 1874

Lord God of hosts, by all a-dored! Thy name we praise with one ac-cord;

The earth and heav'ns are full of Thee, Thy light, Thy love, Thy maj-es-ty. A-men.

2 Loud alleluias to Thy name
Angels and seraphim proclaim;
Eternal praise to Thee is given
By all the powers and thrones in heaven.

3 The apostles join the glorious throng;
The prophets aid to swell the song;
The noble and triumphant host
Of martyrs make of Thee their boast.

4 The holy church in every place
Throughout the world exalts Thy praise;
Both heaven and earth do worship Thee,
Thou Father of eternity!

5 From day to day, O Lord, do we Highly exalt and honor Thee;
Thy name we worship and adore,
World without end, for evermore.

Stand up, and bless the Lord, Ye peo-ple of His choice: Stand up and bless the Lord, your God, With heart, and soul, and voice. A-men.

2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear His holy name,
And laud, and magnify?

3 O for the living flame,
From His own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our minds inspire,
And wing to heaven our thought.

4 God is our strength and song,
And His salvation ours;
Then be His love in Christ proclaimed
With all our ransomed powers.

5 Stand up, and bless the Lord,
The Lord your God adore;
Stand up, and bless His glorious name,
Henceforth for evermore.

Be - gin, my tongue, some heav'n - ly theme, And speak some bound-less thing; The might-y works, or might - ier name Of our e - ter - nal King, Of our e - ter - nal King. Amen.

2 Tell of His wondrous faithfulness,
And sound His power abroad;
Sing the sweet praises of His grace,
The love and truth of God.

The voice that rolls the stars along,
Speaks all the promises.

3 His very word of grace is strong,
As that which built the skies;

4 Oh, might I hear Thy heavenly tongue
But whisper, "Thou art mine!"
Those gentle words should raise my song
To notes almost divine.

Transport - ed with the view, I'm lost In won - der, love, and praise. A-men.

- 2 Unnumbered comforts to my soul
Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom those comforts flowed.
- 3 When worn with sickness, oft hast Thou
With health renewed my face:
And, when in sins and sorrows sunk,
Revived my soul with grace.
- 4 Ten thousand, thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;

- Nor is the least a cheerful heart
That tastes those gifts with joy.
- 5 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue;
And after death, in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew.
- 6 Through all eternity to Thee
A joyful song I'll raise;
But O, eternity's too short
To utter all Thy praise.

3 There dwells the Lord, our King,
The Lord, our Righteousness,
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of Peace;
On Sion's sacred height
His kingdom He maintains,
And, glorious with His saints in light,
Forever reigns.

4 The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high;
Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
They ever cry:

Hail, Abraham's God and mine!
I join the heavenly lays;
All might and majesty are Thine,
And endless praise.

Now to the Lord a no-ble song! A-wake, my soul! a - wake, my tongue!

Ho-san-na to th' e-ter-nal name, And all His boundless love pro-claim. A-men.

2 See where it shines in Jesus' face,—
The brightest image of His grace!
God, in the person of His Son,
Has all His mightiest works outdone.

3 The spacious earth and spreading flood
Proclaim the wise, the powerful God;
And Thy rich glories from afar
Sparkle in every rolling star.

4 Grace,—'tis a sweet, a charming theme;
My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name:
Ye angels! dwell upon the sound;
Ye heavens! reflect it to the ground.

5 Oh! may I live to reach the place,
Where He unveils His lovely face,
Where all His beauties you behold,
And sing His name to harps of gold.

Saviour of all in earth and sea,
How happy they who rest in Thee!

3 Thy hand sets fast the mighty hills,
Thy voice the troubled ocean stills;
Evening and morning hymn Thy praise,
And earth Thy bounty wide displays.

4 The year is with Thy goodness crowned;
The clouds drop wealth the world around;
Through Thee the deserts laugh and sing,
And nature smiles, and owns her King.

God my King, Thy might con-fess-ing, Ev-er will I bless Thy name;

Day by day Thy throne ad-dress-ing, Still will I Thy praise proclaim. A-men.

2 Nor shall fail from memory's treasure,
Works by love and mercy wrought;
Works of love surpassing measure,
Works of mercy passing thought.

God is good to all creation;
All His works His goodness prove.

3 Full of kindness and compassion,
S'ow to anger, vast in love,

4 All Thy works, O Lord, shall bless Thee,
Thee shall all Thy saints adore;
King supreme shall they confess Thee,
And proclaim Thy sovereign power.

Bishop RICHARD MANT, 1824

Praise, my soul, the King of heav-en, To His feet thy trib-ute bring;

Ransom'd, heal'd, re-stor'd, for - giv - en, Who, like me, His praise should sing?

Praise Him, praise Him, praise Him, praise Him, Praise the ev-er-last-ing King. A-men.

2 Praise Him for His grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him, still the same forever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless;
Praise Him, praise Him,
Glorious in His faithfulness.

3 Father-like, He tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame He knows;
In His hands He gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes;
Praise Him, praise Him,
Widely as His mercy goes.

4 Angels, help us to adore Him;
Ye behold Him face to face;
Sun and moon, bow down before Him;
Dwellers all in time and space,
Praise Him, praise Him,
Praise with us the God of grace.

Praise the God of our salvation;
Hosts on high, His power proclaim;
Heaven and earth, and all creation,
Laud and magnify His name.

3 Worship, honor, glory, blessing,
Lord, we offer unto Thee;
Young and old, Thy praise expressing,
In glad homage bend the knee.
All the saints in heaven adore Thee;
We would bow before Thy throne:
As Thine angels serve before Thee,
So on earth Thy will be done.

R. SCHUMANN

My soul, re-peat His praise Whose mer-cies are so great;

Whose an-ger is so slow to rise, So rea-dy to a-bate. A-men.

2 High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of His grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.

Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.

3 His power subdues our sins,
And His forgiving love,

4 The pity of the Lord
To those that fear His name
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our feeble frame.

5 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;
If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.

6 But Thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

2 The answering hills of Palestine
Send back the glad reply,
And greet from all their holy heights
The dayspring from on high:
O'er the blue depths of Galilee
There comes a holier calm;
And Sharon waves in solemn praise
Her silent groves of palm.

3 Glory to God! the lofty strain
The realm of ether fills;
How sweeps the song of solemn joy
O'er Judah's sacred hills!

"Glory to God!" the sounding skies
Loud with their anthems ring:
"Peace on the earth; good-will to men,
From heaven's eternal King."

4 This day shall Christian tongues be mute,
And Christian hearts be cold?
O catch the anthem that from heaven
O'er Judah's mountains rolled!
When nightly burst from seraph-harps
The high and solemn lay, —
"Glory to God; on earth be peace;
Salvation comes to-day!"

2 He has come, the Prince of Peace; Come to bid our sor-rows cease;

Come to scat-ter, with His light, All the sha-dows of our night. A-men.

3 He, the mighty King, has come,
Making this poor earth His home;
Come to bear our sin's sad load,
Son of David, Son of God.

5 Unto us a Child is born;
Ne'er has earth beheld a morn
Out of all the morns of time
Half so glorious in its prime.

4 He has come, whose name of grace
Speaks deliverance to our race;
Left for us His glad abode,
Son of Mary, Son of God.

6 Unto us a Son is given;
He has come from God's own heaven,
Bringing with Him from above
Holy peace, and holy love.

GLAD DAY 7.7.7.7.

(Second Tune)

WILLIAM W. GILCHRIST, 1895

He has come, the Christ of God: Left for us His glad a-bode;

Stoop-ing from His throne of bliss, To this dark-some wil-der-ness! A-men.

It came up - on the mid-night clear, That glo-rious song of old, . .

From an - gels bend - ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold;

Peace on the earth, good-will to men, From heav'n's all-gra-cious King;

The world in sol-emn still-ness lay To hear the an - gels sing. A - men.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
 With peaceful wings unfurled;
 And still their heavenly music floats
 O'er all the weary world:
 Above its sad and lonely plains
 They bend on hovering wing,
 And ever o'er its Babel sounds
 The blessèd angels sing.

3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
 Whose forms are bending low,
 Who toil along the climbing way
 With painful steps and slow!
 Look now, for glad and golden hours
 Come swiftly on the wing:
 Oh, rest beside the weary road,
 And hear the angels sing.

4 For lo, the days are hastening on,
 By prophets seen of old,
 When with the ever-circling years
 Shall come the time foretold,
 When the new heaven and earth shall own
 The Prince of Peace, their King,
 And the whole world send back the song
 Which now the angels sing.

Yet in thy dark streets shin - eth The ev - er - last - ing Light;

The hopes and fears of all the years Are met in Thee to - night. A-men.

2 For Christ is born of Mary,
And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth.

3 How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given;
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

4 O holy Child of Bethlehem!
 Descend to us, we pray,
 Cast out our sin and enter in,
 Be born in us to-day.

We hear the Christmas angels,
 The great glad tidings tell,
 O, come to us, abide with us,
 Our Lord Immanuel!

While Shepherds watched their flocks by night, All seat-ed on the ground,

The an - gel of the Lord came down, And glo - ry shone a - round.

"Fear not," said he, for might - y dread Had seized their trou - bled mind;

"Glad tid - ings of great joy I bring To you, and all man - kind. A-men.

2 "To you, in David's town, this day,
Is born of David's line,
The Saviour, who is Christ, the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:
The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."

3 Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels, praising God, and thus Addressed their joyful song:
"All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin, and never cease."

Lifted by Him to the skies;
He is Son of Man that we
By Him sons of God may be.
Sing, O sing, this blessed morn,
Jesus Christ to-day is born.

3 God with us, Emmanuel,
Deigns for ever now to dwell;
And on Adam's fallen race
Sheds the fulness of His grace.
Sing, O sing, this blessed morn,
Jesus Christ to-day is born.

5 O renew us, Lord, we pray,
With Thy Spirit day by day,
That we ever one may be
With the Father and with Thee.
Sing, O sing, this blessed morn,
Jesus Christ to-day is born.

2 Christ, by highest heaven adored;
 Christ, the everlasting Lord;
 Come, Desire of Nations, come,
 Fix in us Thy humble home.
 Veiled in flesh the Godhead see;
 Hail the Incarnate Deity,
 Pleased as Man with man to dwell;
 Jesus, our Emmanuel!

3 Mild He lays His glory by,
 Born that man no more may die,
 Born to raise the sons of earth,
 Born to give them second birth.
 Risen with healing in His wings,
 Light and life to all He brings,
 Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
 Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace!

Re-joyce! Re-joyce! Em-man-u - el Shall come to thee, O Is - ra - el! A-men.

2 O come, Thou Rod of Jesse, free
Thine own from Satan's tyranny;
From depths of hell Thy people save,
And give them victory o'er the grave.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

3 O come, Thou Day-Spring, come and cheer
Our spirits by Thine advent here;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
And death's dark shadows put to flight.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

4 O come, Thou Key of David, come,
And open wide our heavenly home;
Make safe the way that leads on high,
And close the path to misery.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

5 O come, O come, Thou Lord of might,
Who once, from Sinai's flaming height
Didst give the trembling tribes Thy law,
In cloud, and majesty, and awe.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

As with glad-ness men of old Did the guid-ing star be-hold;

As with joy they hailed its light, Lead-ing on-ward, beam-ing bright;

So, most gracious God, may we Ev-er-more be led to Thee. A-men.

2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek Thy mercy-seat.

4 Holy Jesus, every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to Thee, our heavenly King.

5 In the heavenly country bright
Need they no created light;
Thou its light, its joy, its crown,
Thou its sun which goes not down;
There for ever may we sing
Alleluias to our King.

From the eastern mountains Press-ing on they come, Wise men in their wis-dom

To His humble home; Stirred by deep de-vo-tion, Hast-ing from a-far,

Ev-er jour-n'ying on-ward, Guid-ed by a star. A-men.

2 There their Lord and Saviour
Meek and lowly lay,
Wondrous light that led them
Onward on their way,
Ever now to lighten
Nations from afar,
As they journey homeward
By that guiding star.

3 Thou who in a manger
Once hast lowly lain,
Who dost now in glory
O'er all kingdoms reign,
Gather in the heathen,
Who in lands afar
Ne'er have seen the brightness
Of Thy guiding star.

4 Onward through the darkness
Of the lonely night,
Shining still before them
With Thy kindly light,
Guide them, Jew and Gentile,
Homeward from afar,
Young and old together,
By Thy guiding star.

5 Until every nation,
Whether bond or free,
'Neath Thy starlit banner,
Jesus, follows Thee
O'er the distant mountains
To that heavenly home,
Where no sin nor sorrow
Evermore shall come.

ALL THIS NIGHT (Nativity New) 8.6.6.D.

F. C. MAKER, 1881

All my heart this night re-joices, As I hear, far and near,
Sweet-est an-gel voi-ces; "Christ is born," their choirs are sing-ing,
Till the air ev-'ry-where Now with joy is ring-ing. A-men.

2 For it dawns, the promised morrow
Of His birth, who the earth
Rescues from her sorrow.
God to wear our form descendeth;
Of His grace to our race
Here His Son He lendeth.

3 Hark! a voice from yonder manger
Soft and sweet, doth entreat—
"Flee from woe and danger!
Brethren, come; from all that grieves you
You are freed; all you need
Here your Saviour gives you."

4 Come, then, let us hasten yonder:
Here let all, great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder.
Love Him who with love is yearning:
Hail the Star, that from far
Bright with hope is burning.

 And cry, 'Tis He can save.

3 O, where is He that trod the sea,
 'Tis only He can save;
 To thousands hungering wearily,
 A wondrous meal He gave:

Full soon, with food celestial fed,
 Their mystic fare they take;
 'Twas springtide when He blest the bread,
 And harvest when He brake.

4 O, where is He that trod the sea;
 My soul, the Lord is here:
 Let all thy fears be hushed in thee;
 To leap, to look, to hear,
 Be thine: thy needs He'll satisfy:
 Art thou diseased, or dumb?
 Or dost thou in thy hunger cry?
 "I come," saith Christ, "I come."

2 Heaven's arches rang when the angels sang,
 Proclaiming Thy royal degree;
 But in lowly birth didst Thou come to earth,
 And in great humility.
 Oh, come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
 There is room in my heart for Thee.

3 The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest

 But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou Son of God,
 In the desert of Galilee.
 Oh, come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
 There is room in my heart for Thee.

4 Thou camest, O Lord, with the living word,

But with mocking scorn, and with crown of thorn,
They bore Thee to Calvary.
Oh, come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
Thy cross is my only plea.

5 When the heavens shall ring, and the angels sing
At Thy coming to victory,
Let Thy voice call me home, saying, "Yet there is room,
There is room at My side for Thee."
And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,

Thou to whom the sick and dy - ing Ev - er came, nor came in vain,

Still with heal - ing words re - ply - ing To the wea - ried cry of pain;

Hear us, Je - sus, as we meet, Suppliants at Thy mer - cy - seat. A - men.

2 Every care, and every sorrow,
 Be it great, or be it small,
 Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
 When, where'er, it may befall,
 Lay we humbly at Thy feet,
 Suppliants at Thy mercy-seat.

3 Still the weary, sick and dying
 Need a brother's loving care;
 On Thy higher help relying
 May we now their burden share,
 Bringing all our offerings meet,
 Suppliants at Thy mercy-seat.

4 May each child of Thine be willing,
 Willing both in hand and heart,
 All the law of love fulfilling,
 Ever comfort to impart;
 Ever bringing offerings meet,
 Suppliant to Thy mercy-seat.

5 So may sickness, sin, and sadness,
 To Thy healing power yield,
 Till the sick and sad, in gladness,
 Rescued, ransomed, cleansed, healed,
 One in Thee together meet,
 Pardoned at Thy judgment-seat.

MARGUERITE C. M.

E. C. WALKER, 1876

2 For ever on Thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped Thy silent tongue.

4 Oh, give us hearts to love like Thee,
Like Thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sins, than all
The wrongs that we receive.

3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.

5 One with Thyself, may every eye
In us, Thy brethren, see
That gentleness and grace which spring
From union, Lord, with Thee.

A. KING, 1863

2 A voice by Galilee,
A holier voice I hear:
"Love God; thy neighbor love: for see God's mercy draweth near!"

In thee I own the sovereign will,
Obey the sovereign law.

3 O voice of duty, still Speak forth: I hear with awe;

4 Thou higher voice of Love,
Yet speak thy word in me;
Through duty, let me upward move
To thy pure liberty.

MARTYRDOM C. M.

H. WILSON, 1800

A-las! and did my Sav-iour bleed, And did my Sov-ereign die?
Would He de-vote that sa-cred head For such a worm as I? A-men.

2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut His glories in,
When God, the mighty Maker, died
For man, the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While His dear cross appears:
Dissolve, my heart, in thankfulness!
And melt, mine eyes, to tears!

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

MEDITATION C. M.

JOHN H. GOWER, 1890

There is a green hill far a-way, With-out a ci-ty wall,
Where the dear Lord was cru-ci-fied, Who died to save us all. A-men.

2 We may not know, we cannot tell
What pains He had to bear;
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

3 He died that we might be forgiven;
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by His precious blood.

4 There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin;
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

5 O, dearly, dearly has He loved,
And we must love Him too,
And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do.

O Je - sus, cru - ci - fied for man, O Lamb, all glo - rious on Thy throne,

Teach Thou our wond'ring souls to scan The mys-t'ry of Thy love unknown. A-men.

- 2 We pray Thee, grant us strength to take
Our daily cross, whate'er it be,
And gladly for Thine own dear sake
In paths of pain to follow Thee.
- 4 And day by day, O Lord, we ask
That holy memories of Thy cross
May sanctify each common task,
And turn to gain each earthly loss.
- 3 As on our daily way we go,
Through light or shade, in calm or strife,
Oh, may we bear Thy marks below
In conquered sin and chastened life.
- 5 Grant us, dear Lord, our cross to bear
Till at Thy feet we lay it down,
Win through Thy blood our pardon there,
And through the cross attain the crown.

ST. CROSS L. M.

Rev. J. B. DYKES, 1861

O come, and mourn with me a - while; O come ye to the Sav-iour's side;

O come, to- geth - er let us mourn; Je - sus, our Lord, is cru - ci - fied. A-men.

- 2 Have we no tears to shed for Him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride?
Ah, look how patiently He hangs;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.
- 4 Lord Jesus, may we love and weep,
Since Thou for us art crucified.
- 3 A broken heart, a fount of tears
Ask, and they will not be denied;
- 4 O love of God! O sin of man!
In this dread act your strength is tried;
And victory remains with love;
For Thou, our Lord, art crucified!

HAMBURG L. M.

Arr. from a Gregorian Chant, by LOWELL MASON, 1824

When I sur-vey the won-drous cross On which the Prince of glo-ry died,

My rich-est gain I count but loss, And pour con-tempt on all my pride. A-men.

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.

Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

3 See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down:

4 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small:
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

HEBER 8.7.8.7.4.7.

(First Tune)

E. J. HOPKINS, 1868

Hark, the voice of love and mer-cy Sounds a-loud from Cal-va-ry;

See, it rends the rocks a-sun-der, Shakes the earth and veils the sky:

"It is fin-ished!" Hear the dy-ing Sav-iour cry. A-men.

2 "It is finished!" O what pleasure
Do these precious words afford!
Heavenly blessings, without measure,
Flow to us from Christ the Lord:
"It is finished!"
Saints, the dying words record.

3 Tune your harps anew, ye seraphs,
Join to sing the pleasing theme;
All on earth and all in heaven,
Join to praise Immanuel's name:
Alleluia!
Glory to the bleeding Lamb.

PASSION CHORALE 7.6.7.6.D. (First Tune)

H. L. HASSLER, 1601

O sa - cred Head, now wound - ed, With grief and shame bowed down,

Now scorn - ful - ly sur - round - ed With thorns, Thine on - ly crown;

O sa - cred Head, what glo - ry, What bliss, till now was Thine!

Yet, tho' de - spised and gor - y, I joy to call Thee mine. A-men.

2 What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered
 Was all for sinner's gain:
 Mine, mine was the transgression,
 But Thine the deadly pain:
 Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
 'Tis I deserve Thy place;
 Look on me with Thy favor,
 Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

3 The joy can ne'er be spoken,
 Above all joys beside,
 When in Thy body broken,
 I thus with safety hide:
 My Lord of life, desiring
 Thy glory now to see,
 Beside the cross expiring,
 I'd breathe my soul to Thee.

4 What language shall I borrow
To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
For this Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?

O make me Thine forever;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never,
Outlive my love to Thee.

GETHSEMANE Six 7s.

R. REDHEAD, 1853

Go to dark Geth-sem - a - ne, Ye that feel the tempt-er's power;

Your Re-deem-er's con-flict see, Watch with Him one bit - ter hour;

Turn not from His griefs a - way, Learn of Je - sus Christ to pray. A-men.

2 Follow to the judgment-hall,
View the Lord of life arraigned;
O the wormwood and the gall!
O the pangs His soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame or loss;
Learn of Him to bear the cross.

3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
There, adoring at His feet,
Mark that miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete:
"It is finished," hear the cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

4 Early hasten to the tomb,
Where they laid His breathless clay:
All is solitude and gloom;
Who hath taken Him away?
Christ is risen; He meets our eyes;
Saviour, teach us so to rise.

STABAT MATER 8.8.7.D.

Rev. J. B. DYKES, 1875

Near the cross was Ma-ry weep-ing, There her mournful sta-tion keep-ing,

2 When no eye its pity gave us,
When there was no arm to save us,
He His love and power displayed:
By His stripes He wrought our healing,
By His death, our life revealing,
He for us the ransom paid.

3 Jesus, may Thy love constrain us,
That from sin we may refrain us,
In Thy griefs may deeply grieve:
Thee our best affections giving,
To Thy glory ever living,
May we in Thy glory live.

I. CONKEY, 1851

2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me:
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming,
Adds new luster to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

5 In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

J. STAINER, 1887

Cross of Je - sus, cross of sor - row, Where the blood of Christ was shed,

Per - fect man on thee did suf - fer, Per - fect God on thee has bled! A-men.

2 Here the King of all the ages,
Throned in light ere worlds could be,
Robed in mortal flesh is dying,
Crucified by sin for me.

3 O mysterious condescending!
O abandonment sublime!

Very God Himself is bearing
All the sufferings of time!

4 Evermore for human failure
By His passion we can plead;
God has borne all mortal anguish,
Surely He will know our need.

C. A. BARNARD

Sweet the mo - ments, rich in bless - ing, Which be - fore the cross we spend;

Life and health and peace pos - sess - ing, Thro' the sin - ner's dy - ing Friend. A-men.

2 Here we sit, in wonder, viewing
Mercy poured in streams of blood;
Precious drops, our souls bedewing,
Make and plead our peace with God.

3 Truly blessèd is the station,
Low before His cross to lie,
While we see divine compassion
Beaming in His gracious eye.

4 For Thy sorrows we adore Thee,
For the pains that wrought our peace;
Gracious Saviour, we implore Thee,
In our hearts Thy love increase.

5 Here we feel our sins forgiven,
While upon the Lamb we gaze;
And our thoughts are all of heaven,
And our lips o'erflow with praise.

ST. KEVIN 7.6.7.6.D.

A. S. SULLIVAN, 1874

Come, ye faith-ful, raise the strain Of tri-umph-ant glad-ness! *

God hath brought His Is-ra-el In-to joy from sad-ness.

Loosed from Pha-raoh's bit-ter yoke Ja-cob's sons and daugh-ters,

Led them with un-moisten'd foot Thro' the Red Sea wa-ters. A-men.

2 'Tis the spring of souls to-day:
 Christ hath burst His prison,
 From the frost and gloom of death
 Light and life have risen.
 All the winter of our sins,
 Long and dark, is flying
 From His light to whom we give Thanks and praise undying.

3 Now the queen of seasons, bright
 With the day of splendor,
 With the royal feast of feasts,
 Comes its joy to render;

Comes to glad Jerusalem,
 Who, with true affection,
 Welcomes in unwearied strains
 Jesus' resurrection!

4 "Alleluia!" now we cry
 To our King Immortal,
 Who, triumphant burst the bars
 Of the tomb's dark portal;
 "Alleluia" with the Son,
 God the Father praising;
 "Alleluia" yet again
 To the Spirit raising.

RESURREXIT Irregular

A. SULLIVAN, 1874

Christ is ris-en! Christ is ris-en! He hath burst His bonds in twain!

The first system of musical notation for the song 'RESURREXIT'. It consists of a treble and a bass staff, both in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with the lyrics 'Christ is ris-en! Christ is ris-en! He hath burst His bonds in twain!' written below the notes.

Christ is ris-en! Christ is ris-en! Al-le-lu-ia! swell the strain!

The second system of musical notation, continuing the melody from the first system. The lyrics are 'Christ is ris-en! Christ is ris-en! Al-le-lu-ia! swell the strain!'.

For our gain He suf-fered loss By Di-vine de-cree;

The third system of musical notation. The lyrics are 'For our gain He suf-fered loss By Di-vine de-cree;'.

He hath died up-on the cross, But our God is He.

The fourth system of musical notation. The lyrics are 'He hath died up-on the cross, But our God is He.'.

Refrain

Christ is ris-en! Christ is ris-en! He hath burst His bonds in twain!

The Refrain section of the musical notation, which repeats the melody and lyrics of the first system: 'Christ is ris-en! Christ is ris-en! He hath burst His bonds in twain!'.

Christ is ris-en! Christ is ris-en! Al-le-lu-ia! swell the strain. A-men.

2 See the chains of death are broken!
 Earth below and heaven above
 Joy in each amazing token
 Of His rising, Lord of love;
 He for evermore shall reign
 By the Father's side,
 Till He comes to earth again,
 Comes to claim His bride.

3 Glorious angels downward thronging
 Hail the Lord of all the skies;
 Heaven, with joy and holy longing
 For the Word incarnate cries,
 "Christ is risen! Earth, rejoice!
 Gleam, ye starry train!
 All creation, find a voice!
 He o'er all shall reign!"

ST. ALBINUS 7.8.7.8. With Alleluia

H. J. GAUNTLETT, 1872

Je-sus lives! thy ter-rors now Can no lon-ger, death, ap-pal us; Je-sus lives! by this we know Thou, O grave, canst not en-thral us. Al-le-lu-ia! A-men.

2 Jesus lives! henceforth is death
 But the gate of life immortal;
 This shall calm our trembling breath,
 When we pass its gloomy portal.
 Alleluia!

4 Jesus lives! our hearts know well
 Naught from us His love shall sever;
 Life, nor death, nor powers of hell
 Tear us from His keeping ever.
 Alleluia!

3 Jesus lives! for us He died;
 Then, alone to Jesus living,
 Pure in heart may we abide,
 Glory to our Saviour giving.
 Alleluia!

5 Jesus lives! to Him the throne
 Over all the world is given:
 May we go where He has gone,
 Rest and reign with Him in heaven.

From LYRA DAVIDICA, 1708

Je - sus Christ is ris'n to - day, Al - le - lu - ia!

Ou tri - umph - ant ho - ly day, Al - le - lu - ia!

Who did once up - on the Cross, Al - le - lu - ia!

Suf - fer to re - deem our loss, Al - le - lu - ia! A-men.

2 Hymns of praise then let us sing
Unto Christ, our heavenly King,
Who endured the cross and grave,
Sinners to redeem and save.

Alleluia!

3 But the pains which He endured,
Our salvation have procured;
Now above the sky He's King,
Where the angels ever sing.

Alleluia!

4 Sing we to our God above
 Praise eternal as His love;
 Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Alleluia!

Who did once up - on the Cross, Al - le - lu - ia!

Suf fer to re - deem our loss, Al - le - lu - ia! A - men.

CANTONE 7.7.7.7.

(First Tune)

A. H. MANN, 1894

Christ the Lord is risen to - day, Sons of men and an - gels say:

Raise your joys and tri-umphs high, Sing, ye heav'ns, and earth, re - ply. A-men.

2 Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the victory won;
Jesus' agony is o'er,
Darkness veils the earth no more.

3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal,
Christ hath burst the gates of hell;
Death in vain forbids him rise,
Christ hath opened Paradise.

4 Soar we now where Christ hath led,
Following our exalted Head;
Made like him, like Him we rise;
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

2 He Who gave for us His life,
Who for us endured the strife,
Is our Paschal Lamb to-day;
We too sing for joy, and say, Alleluia!

3 He Who bore all pain and loss
Comfortless upon the cross,
Lives in glory now on high,
Pleads for us and hears our cry; Alleluia!

4 He Who slumbered in the grave,
Is exalted now to save;
Now through Christendom it rings
That the Lamb is King of kings. Alleluia!

5 Now He bids us tell abroad
How the lost may be restored,
How the penitent forgiven,
How we too may enter heaven. Alleluia!

6 Thou our Paschal Lamb indeed,
Christ, to-day Thy people feed;
Take our sins and guilt away,
That we all may sing for aye, Alleluia!

ROTTERDAM 7.6.7.6.D.

(First Tune)

B. TOURS, 1875

The day of res - ur - rec - tion, Earth, tell it out a - broad:

The Pass - o - ver of glad - ness, The Pass - o - ver of God.

From death to life e - ter - nal, From earth un - to the sky,

Our Christ hath brought us o - ver, With hymns of vic - to - ry. A-men.

- 2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
 That we may see aright
 The Lord in rays eternal
 Of resurrection-light;
 And, listening to His accents,
 May hear, so calm and plain,
 His own "All hail!" and hearing,
 May raise the victor-strain.

3 Now let the heavens be joyful;
 Let earth her song begin;
 Let the round world keep triumph
 And all that is therein;
 Invisible and visible,
 Their notes let all things blend,
 For Christ the Lord hath risen,
 Our joy that hath no end.

SURSUM VOCES 8.7.8.7.D.

H. ELLIOT BUTTON

Sing with all the sons of glo - ry, Sing the res - ur - rec - tion song!

Death and sor - row, earth's dark sto - ry, To the form - er days be - long:

All a - round the clouds are break - ing, Soon the storms of time shall cease,

In God's like - ness man, a - wak - ing, Knows the ev - er - last - ing peace. A - men.

2 Oh, what glory, far exceeding
 All that eye has yet perceived!
 Holiest hearts, for ages pleading,
 Never that full joy conceived.
 God has promised, Christ prepares it,
 There on high our welcome waits;
 Every humble spirit shares it,
 Christ has passed the eternal gates.

3 Life eternal! O what wonders
 Crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
 When, amidst earth's closing thunders,
 Saints shall stand before the throne!
 O to enter that bright portal,
 See that glowing firmament,
 Know, with Thee, O God immortal,
 "Jesus Christ, whom Thou hast sent!"

EASTER 7.7.7.8.7

2 'Tis the Saviour: angels, raise
Fame's eternal trump of praise;
Let the earth's remotest bound
Hear the joy-inspiring sound.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Christ the Lord is risen to-day.

3 Heaven displays her portals wide,
Glorious Hero, through them ride;
King of glory, mount Thy throne,
Thy great Father's and Thine own.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Christ the Lord is risen to-day.

4 Praise Him, all ye heavenly choirs,
Praise, and sweep your golden lyres:
Shout, O earth, in rapturous song,
Let the strains be sweet and strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Christ the Lord is risen to-day.

WELCOME, HAPPY MORNING 11.11.11.11. With Refrain

J. B. CALKIN, 1866

Wel-come,hap-py morn-ing! age to age shall say: Hell to-day is vanquished,heav'n is won to-day; Lo! the Dead is liv-ing,

God for ev-er-more! Him,their true Cre-a-tor, all His works a-dore.

Swas.

Refrain in Unison

Wel-come,happy morn-ing! age to age shall say: Hell to-day is vanquished, heav'n is won to-day!

Lo! the dead is liv - ing,

God for-ev-er-more! Him, their true Cre-a - tor, all His works a-dore. Amen.

- 2 Earth her joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
All fresh gifts returned with her returning King:
Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
Speak His sorrow ended, hail His triumph now.

Refrain. "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say, etc.

- 3 Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
Hours and passing moments praise Thee in their flight;
Brightness of the morning, sky and fields and sea,
Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to Thee!

Refrain. "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say, etc.

- 4 Maker and Redeemer, life and health of all,
Thou from heaven beholding human nature's fall,
Of the Father's Godhead true and only Son,
Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on.

Refrain. "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say, etc.

- 5 Thou, of life the author, death didst undergo,
Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;
Come then, true and faithful, now fulfil Thy word;
'Tis Thine own third morning, rise, O buried Lord!

Refrain. "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say, etc.

- 2 Earth her joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
All fresh gifts returned with her returning King:
Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
Speak His sorrow ended, hail His triumph now.
Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day.

LUX EOI. 8.7.8.7.D.

A. SULLIVAN, 1874

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Hearts and voi - ces heav'n-ward raise:

Sing to God a hymn of glad - ness, Sing to God a hymn of praise:

He, Who on the Cross a Vic - tim, For the world's sal - va - tion bled,

Je - sus Christ, the King of glo - ry, Now is ris - en from the dead. A - men.

2 Now the iron bars are broken,
 Christ from death to life is born,
 Glorious life, and life immortal,
 On this holy Easter morn:
 Christ has triumphed, and we conquer
 By His mighty enterprise,
 We with Him to life eternal
 By His resurrection rise.

3 Christ is risen, Christ, the first-fruits
 Of the holy harvest-field,
 Which with all its full abundance
 At His second coming yield:
 Then the golden ears of harvest
 Will their heads before Him wave,
 Ripened by His glorious sunshine
 From the furrows of the grave.

4 Christ is risen, we are risen!
 Shed upon us heavenly grace,
 Rain and dew and gleams of glory
 From the brightness of Thy face:
 That, with hearts in heaven dwelling,
 We on earth may fruitful be,
 And by angel-hands be gathered,
 And be ever, Lord, with Thee.

5 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Glory be to God on high;
 Alleluia to the Saviour
 Who has won the victory;
 Alleluia to the Spirit,
 Fount of love and sanctity;
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 To the Triune Majesty.

VICTORY 8.8.8.4.

From PALESTRINA, 1588

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

Org.

The strife is o'er, the bat - tle done, The vic - to - ry of life is won;

The song of tri - umph has be - gun. Al - le - lu - ia! A - men.

- 2 The powers of death have done their worst,
But Christ their legions hath dispersed:
Let shouts of holy joy outburst,

Alleluia!

- 3 The three sad days are quickly sped;
He rises glorious from the dead:
All glory to our risen Head!

Alleluia!

- 4 He closed the yawning gates of hell,
The bars from heaven's high portals fell;
Let hymns of praise His triumphs tell!

Alleluia!

- 5 Lord! by the stripes which wounded Thee,
From death's dread sting Thy servants free,
That we may live and sing to Thee.

Alleluia!

ASCENSION S. M. D.

H. J. GAUNTLETT, 1877

Unison

Thou art gone up on high To man - sions in the skies;

Harmony

And round Thy throne un - ceas - ing - ly Glad songs of praise a - rise.

But we are lin - g'ring here With sin and care op - pressed:

Lord, send Thy prom - ised Com - fort - er, And lead us to Thy rest. A - men.

2 Thou art gone up on high:

But Thou didst first come down,
Through earth's most bitter agony
To pass unto Thy crown.
And girt with griefs and fears
Our onward course must be;
But only let that path of tears
Lead us at last to Thee.

3 Thou art gone up on high:

But Thou shalt come again,
With all the bright ones of the sky
Attendant in Thy train.
O, by Thy saving power,
So make us live and die,
That we may stand, in that dread hour,
At Thy right hand on high.

Hail the day that sees Him rise Al - le - lu - ia!

To His throne a - bove the skies; Al - le - lu - ia!

Christ, a - while to mor - tals given, Al - le - lu - ia!

Re - as - cends His na - tive heaven. Al - le - lu - ia! A-men.

2 There the glorious triumph waits:
Lift your heads, eternal gates;
Wide unfold the radiant scene;
Take the King of Glory in.

3 Him though highest heaven receives,
Still He loves the earth He leaves;

Though returning to His throne,
Still He calls mankind His own.

4 See, He lifts His hands above;
See, He shows the prints of love;
Hark! His gracious lips bestow
Blessings on His church below.

5 Still for us His death He pleads;
Prevalent He intercedes;
Near Himself prepares our place,
Harbinger of human race.

6 Lord, though parted from our sight
High above yon azure height,
Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Following Thee beyond the skies.

(Second Tune)

LAUS SEMPITERNA 7.7.7.7. With Alleluias

S. REAY

Hail the day that sees Him rise Al - le - lu - ia!

The first system of musical notation for the hymn. It consists of a treble and bass staff in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics 'Hail the day that sees Him rise Al - le - lu - ia!' are written below the notes.

To His throne a - bove the skies; Al - le - lu - ia!

The second system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics 'To His throne a - bove the skies; Al - le - lu - ia!' are written below the notes.

Christ, a - while to mor - tals given, Al - le - lu - ia!

The third system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics 'Christ, a - while to mor - tals given, Al - le - lu - ia!' are written below the notes.

Re - as - cends His na - tive heaven. Al - le - lu - ia! A-men.

The fourth and final system of musical notation. It concludes the hymn with a final cadence. The lyrics 'Re - as - cends His na - tive heaven. Al - le - lu - ia! A-men.' are written below the notes.

(First Tune)

C. G. VERRINDER

Rise, glo - rious Con - queror, rise In - to Thy na - tive skies;
As - sume Thy right; And where in ma - ny a fold The clouds are backward rolled, Pass through those gates of gold, And reign in light. A-men.

2 Victor o'er death and hell,
Cherubic legions swell
Thy radiant train.
Praises all heaven inspire,
Each angel sweeps his lyre,
And waves his wings of fire,
Thou Lamb once slain.

3 Enter, incarnate God!
No feet but Thine have trod
The serpent down:
Blow the full trumpets, blow,
Wider yon portals throw,
Saviour, triumphant, go,
And take Thy crown.

4 Lion of Judah, hail!
And let Thy name prevail
From age to age:
Lord of the rolling years,
Claim for Thine own the spheres,
For Thou hast bought with tears
Thy heritage.

HERMANN C. M.

Alt. from NICOLAUS HERMANN, 1560

The gold-en gates are lift - ed up, The doors are o - pened wide,

The King of glo - ry is gone in Un - to His Fa-ther's side. A-men.

2 Thou art gone up before us, Lord,
To make for us a place,
That we may be where now Thou art,
And look upon Thy face.

3 And ever on our earthly path
A gleam of glory lies,
A light still breaks behind the cloud
That veiled Thee from our eyes.

4 Lift up our hearts, lift up our minds:
Let Thy dear grace be given,
That while we wander here below,
Our treasure be in heaven;

5 That where Thou art, at God's right hand,
Our hope, our love may be:
Dwell Thou in us, that we may dwell
For evermore in Thee.

See, the Con-queror mounts in tri-umph, See the King in roy-al state,

Rid-ing on the clouds His char-iot To His heav'nly pal-ace gate;

Hark, the choirs of an-gel voi-ces Joy-ful al-le-lu-ias sing,

And the por-tals high are lift-ed, To re-ceive their heav'n-ly King. A-men.

2 Who is this that comes in glory,
 With the trump of jubilee?
 Lord of battles, God of armies,
 He has gained the victory;
 He Who on the cross did suffer,
 He Who from the grave arose,
 He has vanquished sin and Satan,
 He by death has spoiled His foes.

3 Thou hast raised our human nature
 On the clouds to God's right hand,
 There we sit in heavenly places,
 There with Thee in glory stand;
 Jesus reigns adored by angels,
 Man with God is on the throne,
 Mighty Lord, in Thine ascension
 We by faith behold our own.

ALLELUIA (Wesley) 8.7.8.7.D.

SAMUEL S. WESLEY, 1868

Al - le - lu - ia! sing to Je - sus! His the scep - ter, His the throne;

Al - le - lu - ia! His the tri - umph, His the vic - to - ry a - lone:

Hark! the songs of peace - ful Zi - on Thun - der like a might - y flood;

Je - sus, out of ev - 'ry na - tion, Hath redeemed us by His blood. A - men.

- 2 Alleluia! not as orphans,
Are we left in sorrow now;
Alleluia! He is near us,
Faith believes, nor questions how:
Though the cloud from sight received Him,
When the forty days were o'er,
Shall our hearts forget His promise,
"I am with you evermore"?

- 3 Alleluia! Bread of angels,
Thou on earth our food, our stay;
Alleluia! here the sinful
Flee to Thee from day to day;

Intercessor, Friend of sinners,
Earth's Redeemer, plead for me,
Where the songs of all the sinless
Sweep across the crystal sea.

- 4 Alleluia! sing to Jesus!
His the scepter, His the throne;
Alleluia! His the triumph,
His the victory alone:
Hark! the songs of peaceful Zion
Thunder like a mighty flood;
Jesus, out of every nation,
Hath redeemed us by His blood.

O Je-sus, King most won-der-ful, Thou Con-quer-or re-nowned,
Thou sweetness most in-ef-fa-ble, In whom all joys are found! A-men.

2 When once Thou visitest the heart,
Then truth begins to shine,
Then earthly vanities depart,
Then kindles love Divine.

4 May every heart confess Thy name,
And ever Thee adore;
And seeking Thee, itself inflame
To seek Thee more and more.

3 O Jesus, Light of all below,
Thou Fount of life and fire,
Surpassing all the joys we know,
And all we can desire!

5 Thee may our tongues for ever bless;
Thee may we love alone;
And ever in our lives express
The image of Thine own.

Now let our cheer-ful eyes sur-vey Our great High-Priest a-bove,
And cel-e-brate His con-stant care, His sym-pa-thy and love. A-men.

2 Though raised to a superior throne,
Where angels bow around,
And high o'er all the heavenly host,
With matchless honor crowned;

4 Those characters shall fair abide,
Our everlasting trust,
When gems and monuments and crowns
Are mouldered down to dust.

3 The names of all His saints He bears
Deep graven on His heart;
Nor shall a name once treasured there
E'er from His care depart.

5 So, gracious Saviour! on my breast,
May Thy dear name be worn,
A sacred ornament and guard,
To endless ages borne.

A roy - al di - a-dem a-dorns The might - y Vic - tor's brow. A-men.

2 The highest place that heaven affords
Is His, by sovereign right,
The King of kings, and Lord of lords,
And heaven's eternal light.

3 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below
To whom He manifests His love,
And grants His name to know:

4 To them the cross, with all its shame,
With all its grace, is given;

Their name an everlasting name,
Their joy, the joy of heaven.

5 They suffer with their Lord below,
They reign with Him above;
Their profit and their joy to know
The mystery of His love.

6 The cross He bore is life and health,
Though shame and death to Him;
His people's hope, His people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.

Crown Him with ma - ny crowns, The Lamb up - on His throne;

Hark! how the heav'n-ly an - them drowns All mu - sic but its own:

A - wake, my soul, and sing Of Him Who died for thee,

And hail Him as thy match-less King Thro' all e - ter - ni - ty. A-men.

2 Crown Him the Son of God
 Before the worlds began,
 And ye, who trod where He hath trod,
 Crown Him the Son of Man;
 Who every grief hath known
 That wrings the human breast,
 And takes and bears them for His own,
 That all in Him may rest.

3 Crown Him the Lord of Life,
 Who triumphed o'er the grave,
 And rose victorious in the strife
 For those He came to save;
 His glories now we sing
 Who died, and rose on high,
 Who died, eternal life to bring,
 And lives that death may die.

4 Crown Him the Lord of heaven,
Enthroned in worlds above;
Crown Him the King, to Whom is given,
The wondrous name of Love.

Crown Him with many crowns,
As thrones before Him fall,
Crown Him, ye kings, with many crowns,
For He is King of all.

Arr. from J. Goss, 1874

Re-joice, the Lord is King! Your Lord and King a-dore!

Mor-tals, give thanks and sing, . . . And tri-umph ev-er-more.

Lift up your heart! lift up your voice! Re-joyce! a-gain I say, re-joyce! A-men.

2 Jesus, the Saviour, reigns,

The God of truth and love;

When He had purged our stains,

He took His seat above.

Lift up your heart! lift up your voice!

Rejoice! again I say, rejoice!

3 He sits at God's right hand

Till all His foes submit,

And bow to His command,

And fall beneath His feet.

Lift up your heart! lift up your voice!

Rejoice! again I say, rejoice!

4 Rejoice in glorious hope:

Jesus, the Judge, shall come,

And take His servants up

To their eternal home.

We soon shall hear the archangel's voice:

The trump of God shall sound,— Rejoice!

Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart, Star of the coming day,

A - rise, and with Thy morning beams Chase all our griefs away. A-men.

2 Come, blessèd Lord, bid every shore
And answering island sing
Praises unto Thy royal name,
'And own Thee as their King.

3 Bid the whole earth, responsive now
To the bright world above,
Break forth in rapturous strains of joy
In memory of Thy love.

4 Jesus, Thy fair creation groans —
The air, the earth, the sea —
In unison with all our hearts,
And calls aloud for Thee.

5 Thine was the cross, with all its fruits
Of grace and peace divine;
Be Thine the crown of glory now,
The palm of victory Thine.

HARK! TEN THOUSAND HARPS AND VOICES
 SOUND THE NOTE OF PRAISE ABOVE;
 HARK! TEN THOUSAND HARPS AND VOICES
 SOUND THE NOTE OF PRAISE ABOVE;

Je - sus reigns, and heaven re - joi - ces; Je - sus reigns, the God of love:

See, He sits on yon-der throne; Je - sus rules the world a - lone.

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! A - men.

2 King of glory, reign forever!
Thine an everlasting crown;
Nothing from Thy love shall sever
Those whom Thou hast made Thine own;
Happy objects of Thy grace,
Destined to behold Thy face.

3 Saviour, hasten Thine appearing;
Bring, O bring the glorious day,
When the awful summons hearing,
Heaven and earth shall pass away:
Then, with golden harps, we'll sing,
"Glory, glory to our King!"

- 2 Crown the Saviour, angels, crown Him; 3 Sinners in derision crowned Him,
 Rich the trophies Jesus brings; Mocking thus the Saviour's claim;
 In the seat of power enthrone Him, Saints and angels crowd around Him,
 While the vault of heaven rings; Own His title, praise His name;
 Crown Him, crown Him! Crown Him, crown Him!
 Crown the Saviour King of kings. Spread abroad the Victor's fame.

- 4 Hark! those bursts of acclamation!
 Hark! those loud triumphant chords!
 Jesus takes the highest station;
 O what joy the sight affords!
 Crown Him, crown Him!
 King of kings, and Lord of lords.

JUST AS I AM 8.8.8.6.

J. BARNBY, 1893

2 When, weary in the Christian race,
Far-off appears my resting-place,
And, fainting, I mistrust Thy grace,
Then, Saviour, plead for me.

4 When Satan, by my sins made bold,
Strives from Thy cross to loose my hold,
Then with Thy pitying arms enfold,
And plead, O plead for me.

3 When I have erred, and gone astray,
Afar from Thine and wisdom's way,
And see no glimmering, guiding ray,
Still, Saviour, plead for me.

5 And when my dying hour draws near,
Darkened with anguish, guilt and fear,
Then to my fainting sight appear,
Pleading in heaven for me.

6 When the full light of heavenly day
Reveals my sins in dread array,
Say, Thou hast washed them all away:
O say, Thou plead'st for me.

2 Humbled for a season,
To receive a name
From the lips of sinners
Unto whom He came,
Faithfully He bore it
Spotless to the last,
Brought it back victorious,
When from death He passed:

3 In your hearts enthrone Him;
There let Him subdue
All that is not holy,
All that is not true;

Crown Him as your Captain
In temptation's hour;
Let His will enfold you
In its light and power.

4 Brothers, this Lord Jesus
Shall return again,
With His Father's glory,
With His angel train;
For all wreaths of empire
Meet upon His brow,
And our hearts confess Him
King of glory now.

no-blest pow'r ex-ert To cel-e-brate His fame: Tell all a-bove, and all be-low, The debt of love to Him you owe. A-men.

2 He left His starry crown,
And laid His robes aside;
On wings of love came down,
And wept, and bled, and died:
What He endured, O who can tell,
To save our souls from death and hell.

3 From the dark grave He rose,
The mansion of the dead,
And thence His mighty foes

In glorious triumph led;
Up through the sky the Conqueror rode,
And reigns on high, the Saviour, God.

4 Jesus, we ne'er can pay
The debt we owe Thy love;
Yet tell us how we may
Our gratitude approve:
Our hearts, our all, to Thee we give;
The gift, though small, do Thou receive!

3 There Thy kingdoms all adore Thee,
Heaven above and earth below;
While the depths of hell before Thee,
Trembling and defeated, bow.

4 We, O Lord, with hearts adoring,
Follow Thee above the sky:

Hear our prayers, Thy grace imploring,
Lift our souls to Thee on high!

5 So, when Thou again in glory
On the clouds of heaven shalt shine,
We, Thy flock, may stand before Thee,
Owned for evermore as Thine.

6 Hail! all hail! in Thee confiding,

Thou art com-ing, O my Sav-iour! Thou art com-ing, O my King!

In Thy beau-ty all re-splend-ent, In Thy glo-ry all trans-cend-ent;

Well may we re-joice and sing; Com-ing: in the op-'ning east Her-ald brightness slowly swells; Coming: O Thou glorious Priest! Hear we not Thy golden bells? A-men.

2 Thou art coming, Thou art coming;
 We shall meet Thee on Thy way;
 We shall see Thee, we shall know Thee,
 We shall bless Thee, we shall show Thee
 All our hearts could never say;
 What an anthem that will be,
 Music rapturously sweet,
 Pouring out our love to Thee
 At Thine own all-glorious feet.

3 Thou art coming; at Thy table
 We are witnesses for this;
 While remembering hearts Thou meetest
 In communion clearest, sweetest,
 Earnest of our coming bliss;
 Showing not Thy death alone,
 And Thy love exceeding great,
 But Thy coming, and Thy throne,
 All for which we long and wait.

4 Thou art coming, we are waiting
 With a hope that cannot fail;
 Asking not the day or hour,
 Resting on Thy word of power,
 Anchored safe within the veil.
 Time appointed may be long,
 But the vision must be sure;
 Certainly shall make us strong,
 Joyful patience can endure.

5 O the joy to see Thee reigning,
 Thee, our own belovèd Lord!
 Every tongue Thy name confessing,
 Worship, honor, glory, blessing
 Brought to Thee with one accord;
 Thee, our Master, and our Friend,
 Vindicated and enthroned;
 Unto earth's remotest end
 Glorified, adored, and owned!

O quick-ly come, dread Judge of all; For, aw-ful though Thine ad-vent be,

O quick-ly come; for doubt and fear Like clouds dis-solve when Thou art near. A-men.

2 O quickly come, great King of all;
 Reign all around us, and within;
 Let sin no more our souls enthrall,
 Let pain and sorrow die with sin:
 O quickly come; for Thou alone
 Canst make Thy scattered people one.

3 O quickly come, true Life of all;
 For death is mighty all around;
 On every home his shadows fall,
 On every heart his mark is found:
 O quickly come; for grief and pain
 Can never cloud Thy glorious reign.

4 O quickly come, sure Light of all;
 For gloomy night broods o'er our way;
 And weakly souls begin to fall
 With weary watching for the day:
 O quickly come; for round Thy throne
 No eye is blind, no night is known.

 Replenish them with oil;
 Look now for your salvation,
 The end of sin and toil.
 The watchers on the mountain
 Proclaim the Bridegroom near,
 Go meet Him as He cometh,
 With alleluias clear.

3 O wise and holy virgins,
 Now raise your voices higher,
 Until in songs of triumph
 Ye meet the angel choir.
 The marriage-feast is waiting,
 The gates wide open stand;
 Up, up, ye heirs of glory!
 The Bridegroom is at hand.

4 Our hope and expectation,
 O Jesus, now appear;
 Arise, Thou Sun so longed for,
 O'er this benighted sphere!
 With hearts and hands uplifted,
 We plead, O Lord, to see
 The day of earth's redemption,
 And ever be with Thee!

ST. THOMAS 8.7.8.7.4.7.

S. WEBBE (?)

Lo, He comes, with clouds descend-ing, Once for our sal - va - tion slain;

Thou-sand an - gel - hosts at - tend-ing Swell the tri-umph of His train:

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Christ, the Lord, re - turns to reign. A-men.

2 Every eye shall now behold Him
 Robed in dreadful majesty;
 Those who set at naught and sold Him,
 Pierced, and nailed Him to a tree,
 Deeply wailing,
 Shall the true Messiah see.

3 Now redemption, long expected,
 See in solemn pomp appear:
 All His saints, by men rejected,
 Now shall meet Him in the air:
 Alleluia!
 See the day of God appear.

4 Yea, Amen; let all adore Thee,
 High on Thine eternal throne;
 Saviour, take the power and glory;
 Claim the kingdoms for Thine own:
 Alleluia!
 Thou shalt reign, and Thou alone.

LUTHER'S HYMN 8.7.8.7.8.8.7.

J. KLUG's Gesangbuch, 1535

Great God, what do I see and hear! The end of things cre - a - ted!

The Judge of man-kind doth ap - pear On clouds of glo - ry seat - ed!

The trum - pet sounds: the graves re - store The dead which they con - tained be - fore; Pre - pare, my soul, to meet Him! A-men.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise
At the last trumpet's sounding,
Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding:
No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.

3 Great God, to Thee my spirit clings,
Thy boundless love declaring;
One wondrous sight my comfort brings,
The Judge my nature wearing.
Beneath His cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet Him.

MIDNIGHT 14.14.14.14.

G. A. MACFARREN, 1872

Be - hold, the Bridegroom com - eth in the mid - dle of the night,

And blest is he whose loins are girt, whose lamp is burn - ing bright;

But woe to that dull ser - vant, whom His Mas - ter shall sur - prise

With lamp untrimm'd, un - burn - ing, and with slum - ber in his eyes. A-men.

- 2 Do thou, my soul, keep watch, beware lest thou in sleep sink down,
Lest thou be given o'er to death, and lose the golden crown;
But see that thou be sober, with a watchful eye, and thus Cry, "Holy, holy, holy God, have mercy upon us."
- 3 That day, the day of fear, shall come; my soul, slack not thy toil,
But light thy lamp, and feed it well, and make it bright with oil;
Thou knowest not how soon may sound the cry at eventide,
"Behold, the Bridegroom comes. Arise! He comes to meet the Bride."
- 4 Beware, my soul! take thou good heed, lest thou in slumber lie,
And, like the five, remain without, and knock, and vainly cry;
But watch, and bear thy lamp undimmed, and Christ shall gird thee on His own bright wedding-robe of light, the glory of the Son.

O for a thousand tongues to sing My dear Re-deem - er's praise; The glo-ries

| 2 Jesus, the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace. | 4 He breaks the power of reigning sin,
He sets the prisoners free;
His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood availed for me. |
| 3 He speaks; and listening to His voice,
New life the dead receive,
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe. | 5 My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad,
The honors of Thy name. |

Come, let us join our cheer-ful songs With an - gels round the throne;

Ten thou-sand thou-sand are their tongues, But all their joys are one. A-men.

- 2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry, 4 Let all that dwell above the sky,
 "To be exalted thus;" And air, and earth, and seas,
 "Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply, Conspire to lift Thy glories high,
 "For He was slain for us." And speak Thine endless praise.

- 3 Jesus is worthy to receive Honor and power divine;
 And blessings, more than we can give, Be, Lord, forever Thine.
- 5 Let all creation join in one To bless the sacred name
 Of Him that sits upon the throne, And to adore the Lamb.

To our Re-deem-er's glo-rious name A - wake the sa - cred song:

O may His love — im-mor-tal flame — Tune ev-'ry heart and tongue. A-men.

- 2 His love, what mortal thought can reach, 4 Dear Lord, while we adoring pay
 What mortal tongue display! Our humble thanks to Thee,
 Imagination's utmost stretch May every heart with rapture say,
 In wonder dies away. "The Saviour died for me."
- 3 He left His radiant throne on high, 5 Oh, may the sweet, the blissful theme,
 Left the bright realms of bliss, Fill every heart and tongue,
 And came to earth to bleed and die: Till strangers love Thy charming name,
 Was ever love like this? And join the sacred song.

ANNE STEELE, 1760

All hail the pow'r of Je - sus' name! Let an - gels pros - trate fall;

Bring forth the roy - al di - a - dem, And crown Him Lord of all;

Bring forth the roy - al di - a - dem, And crown Him Lord of all! A-men.

2 Crown Him, ye martyrs of your God
Who from His altar call;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all!

4 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him Lord of all!

3 Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,
Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him Lord of all!

5 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all!

6 Oh, that with yonder sacred throng
We at His feet may fall,
Join in the everlasting song,
And crown Him Lord of all!

REV. EDWARD PERRONET, 1779-80. v. 6. REV. J. RIPPON, 1787

Noth - ing a - part from Thee, Je - sus, my Lord! A-men.

2 When unto Thee I flee,
 Thou wilt my refuge be,
 Jesus, my Lord!
 What need I now to fear?
 What earthly grief or care?
 Since Thou art ever near,
 Jesus, my Lord!

3 Soon Thou wilt come again;
 I shall be happy then,
 Jesus, my Lord!
 Then Thine own face I'll see,
 Then I shall like Thee be,
 Then evermore with Thee,
 Jesus, my Lord!

When morn - ing gilds the skies, My heart a - wak - ing cries,

May Je - sus Christ be praised: A - like at work and prayer . . .

To Je - sus I re - pair; . . May Je - sus Christ be praised. A - men.

2 When'e'r the sweet church bell
Peals over hill and dell,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
O hark to what it sings,
As joyously it rings,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

3 Does sadness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

4 The night becomes as day,
When from the heart we say,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

5 In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Let earth, and sea and sky
From depth to height reply,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

(First Tune)

J. Goss

A - wake, and sing the song Of Mo - ses and the Lamb;

Wake, ev - 'ry heart and ev - 'ry tongue, To praise the Sav-iour's name. A-men.

2 Sing of His dying love;
Sing of His rising power;
Sing how He intercedes above
For those whose sins He bore.

4 Soon shall ye hear Him say,
"Ye blessèd children, come."
Soon will He call you hence away,
And take His wanderers home.

3 Sing on your heavenly way!
Ye ransomed sinners, sing!
Sing on, rejoicing every day
In Christ, the eternal King!

5 There shall our raptured tongue
His endless praise proclaim,
And sweeter voices swell the song
Of glory to the Lamb.

(Second Tune)

A. WILLIAMS, 1762

A - wake, and sing the song Of Mo - ses and the Lamb;

Wake, ev - 'ry heart and ev - 'ry tongue, To praise the Sav-iour's name. A-men.

O could I speak the match-less worth, O could I sound the glories forth Which in my Saviour shine, I'd soar, and touch the heav'nly strings, And vie with Gabriel while he sings In notes al-most di-vine, In notes al-most di - vine. A-men.

2 I'd sing the precious blood He spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin, and wrath divine:
I'd sing His glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect, heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.

3 I'd sing the characters He bears,
And all the forms of love He wears,
Exalted on His throne:

In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would to everlasting days
Make all His glories known.

4 Well, the delightful day will come
When my dear Lord will bring me home,
And I shall see His face;
Then with my Saviour, brother, friend,
A blest eternity I'll spend,
Triumphant in His grace.

Rev. SAMUEL MEDLEY, 1789

Join all the glo-rious names Of wis-dom, love and power That ev - er mor-tals knew, That an-gels ev - er bore; All are too mean to

2 Great Prophet of my God,
 My tongue would bless Thy name;
 By Thee the joyful news
 Of our salvation came,
 The joyful news of sins forgiven,
 Of hell subdued and peace with heaven.

3 Jesus, my great High Priest,
 Offered His blood and died;
 My guilty conscience seeks

No sacrifice beside:
 His powerful blood did once atone,
 And now it pleads before the throne.

4 My Saviour and my Lord,
 My conqueror and my king,
 Thy scepter and Thy sword,
 Thy reigning grace I sing:
 Thine is the power; behold, I sit,
 In willing bonds, beneath Thy feet.

J. HATTON, c. 1793

Prais-es to Him whose love has given, In Christ, His Son, the life of heaven;
 Who for our dark-ness gives us light, And turns to day our deep-est night. A-men.

2 Praises to Him, in grace who came,
 To bear our woe, and sin, and shame;
 Who lived to die, who died to rise,
 The God-accepted sacrifice.

3 Praises to Him Who sheds abroad
 Within our hearts the love of God;

The Spirit of all truth and peace,
 Fountain of joy and holiness!

4 To Father, Son, and Spirit now
 The hands we lift, the knees we bow;
 To Thee, Jehovah, thus we raise
 The sinner's endless song of praise.

Rev. HORATIUS BONAR, 1856

Hail, Thou once de-spis-ed Je-sus, Hail, Thou Ga-li-le-an King!

Thou didst suf-fer to re-lease us, Thou didst free sal-va-tion bring:

Hail, Thou ag-o-niz-ing Sav-iour, Bear-er of our sin and shame;

By Thy mer-it we find fa-vor; Life is giv-en thro' Thy name. A-men.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
All our sins on Thee were laid;
By almighty love anointed,
Thou hast full atonement made:
All Thy people are forgiven
Through the virtue of Thy blood;
Opened is the gate of heaven;
Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

3 Jesus, hail, enthroned in glory,
There forever to abide;
All the heavenly hosts adore Thee,
Seated at Thy Father's side.
There for sinners Thou art pleading;
There Thou dost our place prepare;
Ever for us interceding
Till in glory we appear.

4 Worship, honor, power, and blessing,
 Thou art worthy to receive;
 Loudest praises, without ceasing,
 Meet it is for us to give.
 Help, ye bright angelic spirits,
 Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;
 Help to sing our Saviour's merits,
 Help to chant Immanuel's praise.

Sav-iour, source of ev - 'ry bless-ing, Tune my heart to grate-ful lays:

Streams of mer-cy, nev-er ceas-ing, Call for cease-less songs of praise. A-men.

2 Teach me some melodious measure,
Sung by raptured saints above;
Fill my soul with sacred pleasure,
While I sing redeeming love.

Thou, to save my soul from danger,
Didst redeem me with Thy blood.

3 Thou didst seek me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;

4 By Thy hand restored, defended,
Safe through life thus far I've come;
Safe, O Lord, when life is ended,
Bring me to my heavenly home.

Might - y God, while an - gels bless Thee, May a mor - tal sing Thy name?

Lord of men as well as an - gels, Thou art ev - 'ry crea - ture's theme.

Lord of ev - 'ry land and na - tion, An - cient of e - ter - nal days,

Sound - ed thro' the wide cre - a - tion Be Thy just and end - less praise. A - men.

2 For the grandeur of Thy nature,
 Grand beyond a seraph's thought;
 For the wonders of creation,
 Works with skill and kindness wrought;
 For Thy providence, that governs
 Through Thine empire's wide domain,
 Wings an angel, guides a sparrow,
 Blessèd be Thy gentle reign.

3 But Thy rich, Thy free redemption,
 Bright, though veiled in darkness long, —
 Thought is poor, and poor expression, —
 Who can sing that wondrous song?
 Brightness of the Father's glory,
 Shall Thy praise unuttered lie?
 Break, my tongue, such guilty silence!
 Sing the Lord who came to die.

4 From the highest throne of glory
 To the cross of deepest woe,
 Thou didst stoop to ransom captives;
 Flow my praise, for ever flow.
 Reascend, immortal Saviour,
 Leave Thy footstool, take Thy throne:
 Thence return, and reign for ever:
 Be the kingdom all Thine own!

Shep - herd of ten - der youth, Guid - ing in love and truth,

Through de - vious ways; Christ our tri-umph - ant king, We come Thy name to sing, And here our chil-dren bring To shout Thy praise. A-men.

2 Thou art our holy Lord,
The all-subduing word,
Healer of strife;
Thou didst Thyself abase,
That from sin's deep disgrace
Thou mightest save our race,
And give us life.

4 Ever be Thou our guide,
Our shepherd and our pride,
Our staff and song;
Jesus, Thou Christ of God,
By Thy perennial word,
Lead us where Thou hast trod,
Make our faith strong.

3 Thou art the great High Priest;
Thou hast prepared the feast
Of heavenly love:
In all our mortal pain
None call on Thee in vain;
Help Thou didst not disdain,
Help from above.

5 So now, and till we die,
Sound we Thy praises high,
And joyful sing;
Let all the holy throng
Who to Thy church belong,
Unite and swell the song
To Christ our king!

Who wondrously hast wrought,
Thyself the revelation
Of love beyond our thought:
We worship Thee, we bless Thee,
To Thee alone we sing;
We praise Thee, and confess Thee
Our holy Lord and king!

3 In Thee all fulness dwelleth,
All grace and power divine;
The glory that excelleth,
O Son of God, is Thine:

We worship Thee, we bless Thee,
To Thee alone we sing;
We praise Thee, and confess Thee
Our holy Lord and king!

4 O grant the consummation
Of this our song above,
In endless adoration,
And everlasting love:
Then shall we praise and bless Thee,
Where perfect praises ring,
And evermore confess Thee
Our Saviour and our King!

O One with God the Fa - ther In maj - es - ty and might,

The bright-ness of His glo - ry, E - ter - nal Light of light;

O'er this our home of dark - ness Thy rays are stream-ing now;

The shad-ows flee be - fore Thee, The world's true Light art Thou. A-men.

2 Yet, Lord, we see but darkly:
 O heavenly light, arise,
 Dispel these mists that shroud us,
 And hide Thee from our eyes!
 We long to tread the footprints
 That Thou Thyself hast trod;
 We long to see the pathway
 That leads to Thee our God.

3 O Jesus, shine around us
 With radiance of Thy grace;
 O Jesus, turn upon us
 The brightness of Thy face.
 We need no star to guide us,
 As on our way we press,
 If Thou Thy light vouchsafest,
 O Sun of righteousness.

O grant us light, that we may know The wisdom Thou alone canst give;
That truth may guide where'er we go, And vir-tue bless where'er we live. A-men.

2 O grant us light, that we may see
Where error lurks in human lore,
And turn our doubting minds to Thee,
And love Thy simple word the more.

4 O grant us light, in grief and pain,
To lift our burdened hearts above,
And count the very cross a gain,
And bless our Father's hidden love.

3 O grant us light, that we may learn
How dead is life from Thee apart,
How sure is joy for all who turn
To Thee an undivided heart.

5 O grant us light, when, soon or late,
All earthly scenes shall pass away,
In Thee to find the open gate
To deathless home and endless day.

Come, Ho-ly Spir-it, heav'nly Dove, With all Thy quick'ning powers;

- 2 Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys;
Our souls can neither fly nor go

Perish self in Thy pure fire!

4 Holy Spirit, Right divine,
King within my conscience reign;
Be my law, and I shall be Firmly bound, forever free.

3 Holy Spirit, Power divine,
Fill and nerve this will of mine;
By Thee may I strongly live,
Bravely bear, and nobly strive.

5 Holy Spirit, Peace divine,
Still this restless heart of mine;
Speak to calm this tossing sea,
Stayed in Thy tranquility.

6 Holy Spirit, Joy divine,
Gladden Thou this heart of mine;
In the desert ways I sing,
"Spring, O Well, forever spring."

MORNINGTON S. M.

Earl of Mornington, 1760

Come, Ho - ly Spir - it, come! Let Thy bright beams a - rise;

Dis - pel the dark-ness from our minds, And o - pen all our eyes. A-men.

2 Revive our drooping faith,
Our doubts and fears remove,
And kindle in our breasts the flame
Of never-dying love.

4 'Tis Thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life on every part,
And new create the whole.

3 Convince us of our sin;
Then lead to Jesus' blood;
And to our wondering view reveal
The secret love of God.

5 Dwell therefore in our hearts;
Our minds from bondage free;
Then shall we know, and praise, and love
The Father, Son, and Thee.

Lord God, the Ho - ly Ghost, In this ac - cept - ed hour,

As on the day of Pen - te-cost, De - scend in all Thy pow'r. A-men.

2 We meet with one accord
In our appointed place,
And wait the promise of our Lord,
The Spirit of all grace.

4 Spirit of light, explore,
And chase our gloom away,
With luster shining more and more
Unto the perfect day.

3 The young, the old, inspire
With wisdom from above;
And give us hearts and tongues of fire
To pray, and praise, and love.

5 Spirit of truth, be Thou,
In life and death, our guide;
O Spirit of adoption, now
May we be sanctified!

Je - sus, Thou art the sin - ner's Friend: As such I look to Thee;

Now, in the ful - ness of Thy love, O Lord, re - mem - ber me. A - men.

2 Thou wondrous Advocate with God,
I yield my soul to Thee;
While Thou art pleading on the throne,
Dear Lord, remember me.

3 Lord, I am guilty, I am vile,
But Thy salvation's free;
Then, in Thine all-abounding grace,
Dear Lord, remember me.

4 Howe'er forsaken or despised,
Howe'er oppressed I be,
Howe'er forgotten here on earth,
Do Thou remember me.

5 And when I close my eyes in death,
And human help shall flee,
Then, then, my dear redeeming God,
O then remember me.

Thou art the way: to Thee a - lone From sin and death we flee; And he who would the Fa - ther seek, Must seek Him, Lord, by Thee. A - men.

2 Thou art the truth: Thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the life: the rending tomb
Proclaims Thy conquering arm,

And those who put their trust in Thee
Nor death, nor hell shall harm.

4 Thou art the way, the truth, the life;
Grant us that way to know,
That truth to keep, that life to win,
Whose joys eternal flow.

O cease, my wan-d'ring soul, On rest-less wing to roam;
All the wide world, to ei-ther pole, Has not for thee a home. A-men.

2 Behold the ark of God,
Behold the open door;
Hasten to gain that dear abode,

Grace, 'tis a charm-ing sound, Har-mo-nious to mine ear;
Heav'n with the ech-o shall re-sound, And all the earth shall hear. A-men.

2 Grace first contrived the way
To save rebellious man,
And all the steps that grace display
Which drew the wondrous plan.

And new supplies each hour I meet,
While pressing on to God.

3 Grace taught my wandering feet
To tread the heavenly road;

4 Grace all the work shall crown,
Through everlasting days;
It lays in heaven the topmost stone,
And well deserves the praise.

Blow ye the trumpet, blow! The glad-ly solemn sound; Let all the na-tions know,

To earth's re-mot-est bound, The year of ju-bi-lee is come,

The year of ju-bi-lee is come; Re-turn, ye ransom'd sin-ners, home! A-men.

2 Jesus, our Great High Priest,
Hath full atonement made;
Ye weary spirits, rest;
Ye mournful souls, be glad:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

4 Ye, who have sold for naught
Your heritage above,
Shall have it back unbought,
The gift of Jesus' love:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

3 Extol the Lamb of God,
The all-atoning Lamb;
Redemption in His blood
Throughout the world proclaim:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

5 The gospel trumpet hear,
The news of heavenly grace;
And, saved from earth, appear
Before your Saviour's face:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

2 Not what I feel or do
Can give me peace with God;
Not all my prayers, and sighs, and tears,
Can bear my awful load.

3 Thy work alone, O Christ,
Can ease this weight of sin;
Thy blood alone, O Lamb of God,
Can give me peace within.

4 Thy love to me, O God,
Not mine, O Lord, to Thee,
Can rid me of this dark unrest,
And set my spirit free.

5 I bless the Christ of God,
I rest on love divine:
And with unfaltering lip and heart,
I call this Saviour mine.

Needful is Thy indulgent care;
Needful Thy all-prevailing prayer.

3 Needful thy presence, dearest Lord,
True peace and comfort to afford;
Needful thy promise, to impart
Fresh life and vigor to my heart.

4 Needful art Thou, my guide, my stay,
Through all life's dark and weary way;
Nor less in death Thou'lt needful be,
To bring my spirit home to Thee.

The King of glo - ry stand - eth Be - side that heart of sin,

His might - y voice com - mand - eth The rag - ing waves with - in;

The floods of deep - est an - guish Roll back - ward at His will,

As o'er the storm a - ris - eth His man - date, "Peace, be still." A-men.

- 2 At times, with sudden glory,
He speaks, and all is done!
Without one stroke of battle
The victory is won:
While we with joy beholding,
Can scarce believe it true,
That e'en our kingly Jesus
Can form such hearts anew.
- 3 But sometimes in the stillness,
He gently draweth near,
And whispers words of welcome,
Into the sinner's ear;

With anxious heart He waiteth
The answer of His cry,
That oft repeated question,
"O wherefore wilt thou die?"

- 4 O Christ, His love is mighty!
Long-suffering is His grace!
And glorious is the splendor
That beameth from His face!
Our hearts up-leap in gladness,
When we behold that love,
As we go singing onward
To dwell with Him above.

To the name of our sal-va-tion, Laud and hon-or let us pay,

Which for ma-ny a gen-er-a-tion Hid in God's fore-knowl-edge lay,

But with ho-ly ex-ul-ta-tion We may sing a-loud to-day. A-men.

2 Jesus is the name we treasure,
 Name beyond what words can tell,
 Name of gladness, name of pleasure,
 Ear and heart delighting well;
 Name of sweetness passing measure,
 Saving us from sin and hell.

3 'Tis the name for adoration,
 Name for songs of victory,
 Name for holy meditation
 In this vale of misery,
 Name for joyful veneration
 By the citizens on high.

6 Therefore we, in love adoring,
 This most blessèd name revere,
 Holy Jesus, Thee imploring
 So to write it in us here
 That hereafter, heavenward soaring,
 We may sing with angels there.

4 'Tis the name that whoso preacheth
 Speaks like music to the ear;
 Who in prayer this name beseecheth
 Sweetest comfort findeth near;
 Who its perfect wisdom reacheth
 Heavenly joy possesseth here.

5 Jesus is the name exalted
 Over every other name;
 In this name, whene'er assaulted,
 We can put our foes to shame;
 Strength to them who else had halted,
 Eyes to blind, and feet to lame.

2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
 Could or would have shed his blood?
 But our Jesus died to have us
 Reconciled in Him to God:
 This was boundless love indeed!
 Jesus is a friend in need.

3 When He lived on earth abasèd,
 "Friend of sinners" was His name;
 Now above all glory raisèd,
 He rejoices in the same.
 Still He calls them brethren, friends,
 And to all their wants attends.

4 Oh, for grace our hearts to soften!
 Teach us, Lord, at length to love;
 We, alas! forget too often
 What a Friend we have above:
 But when home our souls are brought,
 We will love Thee as we ought.

2 God calling yet! and shall He knock,
And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare His Spirit grieve?

I wait, but He does not forsake;
He calls me still; my heart, awake!

3 God calling yet! and shall I give

4 God calling yet! I cannot stay;
My heart I yield without delay:
Vain world, farewell, from thee I part;

So patiently to wait!
O sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

3 O Jesus, Thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,
"I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat Me so?"
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door;
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,

COME UNTO ME 7.6.7.6.D.

(First Tune)

Rev. J. B. DYKES, 1875

Org. “Come un - to Me, ye wea - ry, And I will give you rest.”

O bless - ed voice of Je - sus, Which comes to hearts op - prest!

It tells of ben - e - dic - tion, Of par - don, grace and peace,

Of joy that hath no end - ing, Of love that can - not cease. A-men.

2 Come unto Me, ye wanderers,
And I will give you light."
O loving voice of Jesus,
Which comes to cheer the night!
Our hearts were filled with sadness,
And we had lost our way,
But He has brought us gladness,
And songs at break of day.

3 “Come unto Me, ye fainting,
And I will give you life.”
O cheering voice of Jesus,
Which comes to aid our strife!
The foe is stern and eager,
The fight is fierce and long;
But Thou hast made us mighty,
And stronger than the strong.

4 "And whosoever cometh,
I will not cast him out."
O welcome voice of Jesus,
Which drives away our doubt!

Which calls us, very sinners,
Unworthy though we be
Of love so free and boundless,
To come, O Lord, to Thee.

MESSIAH 7.6.7.6.D.

(Second Tune)

G. F. HANDEL
Arr. by A. SULLIVAN

"Come un - to Me, ye wea - ry, And I will give you rest."

The first system of music is in 4/4 time, featuring a treble and bass staff. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The key signature has one flat (B-flat).

O bless - ed voice of Je - sus, Which comes to hearts op - prest!

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. It includes a repeat sign at the beginning of the treble staff.

It tells of ben - e - dic - tion, Of par - don, grace and peace, . .

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. It includes a repeat sign at the beginning of the treble staff.

Of joy that hath no end - ing, Of love that can - not cease. A-men.

The fourth system concludes the piece with a final cadence. It includes a repeat sign at the beginning of the treble staff.

ILSLEY 8.7.8.7.D.

F. G. ILSLEY, 1887

Souls of men! why will ye scat-ter Like a crowd of frightened sheep?

Fool-ish hearts, why will ye wan-der From a love so true and deep?

Was there ev-er kind-est shep-herd Half so gen-tle, half so sweet,

As the Sav-iour who would have us Come and gath-er round His feet? A-men.

- 2 It is God: His love looks mighty
But is mightier than it seems;
'Tis our Father; and His fondness
Goes far out beyond our dreams.
There's a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in His justice,
Which is more than liberty.
- 3 There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgment given.
There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good!
There is mercy with the Saviour;
There is healing in His blood,

- 4 For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind,
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
But we make His love too narrow
By false limits of our own;
And we magnify His strictness
With a zeal He will not own.
- 5 There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.
If our love were but more simple,
We should take Him at His word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

(First Tune)

H. S. OAKELEY, 1873

2 Come to the living waters, come!
Sinners, obey your Maker's call;
Return, ye weary wanderers, home,
And find My grace is free for all!

3 See from the rock a fountain rise!
For you in healing streams it rolls;
Money ye need not bring, nor price,
Ye weary, wandering, burdened souls.

4 Nothing ye in exchange shall give,
Leave all you have and are behind,
Frankly the gift of God receive,
Pardon and peace in Jesus find.

To - day Thy mer - cy calls me To wash a - way my sin;

How - ev - er great my tres - pass, What - e'er I may have been,

How - ev - er long from mer - cy I may have turned a - way,

Thy blood, O Christ, can cleanse me, And make me white to - day. A-men.

2 To-day Thy gate is open,
And all who enter in Shall find a Father's welcome,
And pardon for their sin;
The past shall be forgotten,
A present joy be given,
A future grace be promised,
A glorious crown in heaven.

3 To-day the Father calls me,
The Holy Spirit waits,
The blessèd angels gather
Around the heavenly gates:
No question will be asked me,
How often I have come;
Although I oft have wandered,
It is my Father's home.

Je - sus calls us; o'er the tu - mult Of our life's wild, rest-less sea,

Day by day His sweet voice soundeth, Saying, "Christian, fol-low me." A-men.

2 As, of old, apostles heard it
By the Galilean lake,
Turned from home and toil and kindred,
Leaving all for His dear sake.

4 In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still He calls, in cares and pleasures,
"Christian, love me more than these."

3 Jesus calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us,
Saying, "Christian, love me more."

5 Jesus calls us; by Thy mercies,
Saviour, may we hear Thy call,
Give our hearts to Thy obedience,
Serve and love Thee best of all.

If He be my guide?
“In His feet and hands are wound-prints,
And His side.”

5 If I still hold closely to Him,
What hath He at last?
“Sorrow vanquished, labor ended,
Jordan past.”

3 Is there diadem, as monarch,
That His brow adorns?
“Yea, a crown, in very surety,
But of thorns.”

6 If I ask Him to receive me,
Will He say me nay?
“Not till earth, and not till heaven
Pass away.”

4 If I find Him, if I follow,
What His guerdon here?
“Many a sorrow, many a labor,
Many a tear.”

7 Finding, following, keeping, struggling,
Is He sure to bless?
Saints, apostles, prophets, martyrs,
Answer, “Yes.”

COME, YE DISCONSOLATE 11.10.11.10.

S. WEBBE, 1790

First system of the musical score. The treble staff contains the vocal melody, and the bass staff contains the piano accompaniment. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: "Come, ye dis - con - so - late, wher - e'er ye lan - guish;"

Second system of the musical score. The treble staff contains the vocal melody, and the bass staff contains the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Come to the mer - cy - seat, fer - vent - ly kneel:"

Third system of the musical score. The treble staff contains the vocal melody, and the bass staff contains the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Here bring your wound - ed hearts, here tell your an - guish;"

Fourth system of the musical score. The treble staff contains the vocal melody, and the bass staff contains the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Earth has no sor - row that heav'n can - not heal. A-men."

- 2 Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
 Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure,
 Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
 "Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure."

- 3 Here see the Bread of life; see waters flowing
 Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
 Come to the feast of love; come, ever knowing
 Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

This system contains the final two staves of music, which appear to be a piano accompaniment without lyrics.

2 The Lord is glorious and strong,
 Our God is very high;
 O trust in Him, trust now in Him,
 And have security:
 He shall be to thee like the sea,
 And thou shalt surely feel
 His wind, that bloweth healthily
 Thy sicknesses to heal.

3 The Lord is wonderful and wise,
 As all the ages tell;
 O learn of Him, learn now of Him,
 Then with thee it is well.
 And with His light thou shalt be blest,
 Therein to work and live;
 And He shall be to thee a rest
 When evening hours arrive.

O Thou, whose ten - der mer - cy hears Con - tri - tion's hum - ble sigh,

Whose hand, in - dul - gent, wipes the tears From sorrow's weep - ing eye; A - men.

2 See, low before Thy throne of grace,
 A wretched wanderer mourn;
 Hast Thou not bid me seek Thy face?
 Hast Thou not said, "Return?"

3 And shall my guilty fears prevail,
 To drive me from Thy feet?
 O let not this dear refuge fail,
 This only safe retreat.

4 O shine on this benighted heart,
 With beams of mercy shine;
 And let Thy healing voice impart
 A taste of joys divine.

DUNDEE C. M.

Arr. from C. TYE, 1553

O Lord, turn not Thy face a-way From them that low-ly lie,

La-ment-ing sore their sin-ful life, With tears and bit-ter cry. A-men.

2 Thy mercy-gates are open wide
To them that mourn their sin;
O shut them not against us, Lord,
But let us enter in.

3 We need not to confess our fault,
For surely Thou canst tell;
What we have done, and what we are, Thou knowest very well.

4 Wherefore, to beg and to entreat,
With tears we come to Thee,

As children that have done amiss
Fall at their father's knee.

5 And need we, then, O Lord, repeat
The blessing which we crave,
When Thou dost know, before we speak,
The thing that we would have?

6 Mercy, O Lord, we mercy ask,
This is the total sum;

For mercy, Lord, is all our prayer;
O let Thy mercy come!

S. HOWARD, 1762

Out of the deep I call To Thee, O Lord, to Thee;

Be-fore Thy throne of grace I fall; Be mer-ci-ful to me. A-men.

2 Out of the deep I cry,
The woeful deep of sin,
Of evil done in days gone by,
Of evil now within.

3 Out of the deep of fear
And dread of coming shame,

From morning watch till night is near
I plead the precious name.

4 Lord, there is mercy now,
As ever was, with Thee;
Before Thy throne of grace I bow;
Be merciful to me.

T. CAMPIAN, 1613

- 2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppress,
Christ and His cross my only plea;
O God, be merciful to me.
- 4 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee;
O God, be merciful to me.
- 3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare to lift them to the skies;
But Thou dost all my anguish see;
O God, be merciful to me.
- 5 And when, redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God has been merciful to me.

LACRYMÆ 7.7.7.

A. SULLIVAN, 1874

- 2 Fresh the wounds that sin hath made;
Hear the prayers I oft have prayed,
And in mercy send me aid.
- 4 Thou the true physician art;
Thou, O Christ, canst health impart,
Binding up the bleeding heart.
- 3 Helpless, none can help me now;
Cheerless, none can cheer but Thou;
Suppliant, Lord, to Thee I bow.
- 5 Other comforters are gone;
Thou canst heal, and Thou alone,
Thou for all my sin atone.

Rev. GODFREY THRING, 1866

I was a wan-d'ring sheep, I did not love the fold;

I did not love my Shepherd's voice, I would not be con-trolled.

I was a way-ward child, I did not love my home;

I did not love my Fa-ther's voice, I loved a - far to roam. A-men.

2 The Shepherd sought His sheep,
 The Father sought His child;
 They followed me o'er vale and hill,
 O'er deserts waste and wild:
 They found me nigh to death,
 Famished and faint and lone;
 They bound me with the bands of love,
 They saved the wandering one.

3 Jesus my Shepherd is;
 'Twas He that loved my soul,
 'Twas He that washed me in His blood,
 'Twas He that made me whole;
 'Twas He that sought the lost,
 That found the wandering sheep,
 'Twas He that brought me to the fold,
 'Tis He that still doth keep.

4 I was a wandering sheep,
I would not be controlled;
But now I love my Shepherd's voice,
I love, I love the fold.

I was a wayward child,
I once preferred to roam;
But now I love my Father's voice,
I love, I love His home.

I need Thee, pre - cious Je - sus, For I am full of sin;

My soul is dark and guilt - y, My heart is dead with-in;

I need the cleans-ing foun - tain Where I can al - ways flee,

The blood of Christ most pre - cious, The sin - ner's per - fect plea. A-men.

2 I need Thee, precious Jesus,
 For I am very poor;
 A stranger and a pilgrim,
 I have no earthly store;
 I need the love of Jesus
 To cheer me on my way,
 To guide my doubting footsteps,
 To be my strength and stay.

3 I need Thee, precious Jesus,
 And hope to see Thee soon,
 Encircled with the rainbow,
 And seated on Thy throne:
 There, with Thy blood-bought children,
 My joy shall ever be,
 To sing Thy praises, Jesus,
 To gaze, my Lord, on Thee.

SPANISH HYMN Eight 7s.

Spanish Melody, 1824

2 By Thy helpless infant years,
By Thy life of want and tears,
By Thy days of sore distress
In the savage wilderness,
By the dread permitted hour
Of the mighty tempter's power:
Turn, O turn a favoring eye,
Hear our solemn litany!

4 By the burthen Thou didst bear,
By Thine agony of prayer,
By the cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear, and torturing scorn;
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful Sacrifice;
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn litany!

3 By the sacred grief that wept
O'er the grave where Lazarus slept;
By the boding tears that flowed
Over Salem's loved abode;
By the anguished sigh that told
Treachery lurked within Thy fold;
From Thy seat above the sky,
Hear our solemn litany!

5 By Thy deep expiring groan;
By the sealed sepulchral stone;
By the vault, whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God:
O from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty, reascended Lord,
Listen, listen to the cry
Of our solemn litany!

MISERICORDIA 8.8.8.6.

(First Tune)

H. SMART, 1875

Just as I am, with-out one plea But that Thy blood was shed for me,

And that Thou bid'st me come to Thee, O Lamb of God, I come. A-men.

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To Thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
By fears within, and foes without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

5 Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve:
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,

6 Just as I am, Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down:
Now, to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

There is a ho - ly sac - ri - fice Which God in heaven will not de-spise,

Yea, which is pre - cious in His eyes, The con - trite heart. A-men.

2 That lofty One, before Whose throne
The countless hosts of heaven bow down,
Another dwelling-place will own,
The contrite heart.

3 The Holy One, the Son of God,
His pardoning love will shed abroad,
And consecrate as His abode
The contrite heart.

3 The Holy Spirit from on high
Will listen to its faintest cry,
And cheer and bless and purify
The contrite heart.

4 Saviour, I cast my hopes on Thee;
Such as Thou art, I fain would be;
In mercy, Lord, bestow on me
The contrite heart.

- 2 When we in Thy temple meet,
Spread our wants before Thy feet,
Pleading at the mercy-seat;
Look from heaven and save.
- 3 When Thy love our hearts shall fill,
And we long to do Thy will,
Turning to Thy holy hill:
Lord, accept and save.
- 4 Should we wander from Thy fold,
And our love to Thee grow cold,

- With a pitying eye behold;
Lord, forgive and save.
- 5 Should the hand of sorrow press,
Earthly care and want distress,
May our souls Thy peace possess;
Jesus, hear and save.
- 6 And whate'er our cry may be,
When we lift our hearts to Thee,
From our burden set us free:
Hear, forgive and save.

- 2 I have long withstood His grace,
Long provoked Him to His face;

God is love: I know, I feel;
Jesus lives and loves me still.

| 2 We have not feared Thee as we ought,
Nor bowed beneath Thine awful eye,
Nor guarded deed, and word, and thought,
Remembering that God was nigh.
Lord, give us faith to know Thee near,
And grant the grace of holy fear. | 4 We have not served Thee as we ought;
Alas! the duties left undone,
The work with little fervor wrought,
The battles lost, or scarcely won!
Lord, give the zeal, and give the might,
For Thee to toil, for Thee to fight. |
| 3 We have not loved Thee as we ought,
Nor cared that we are loved by Thee;
Thy presence we have coldly sought,
And feebly longed Thy face to see.
Lord, give a pure and loving heart
To feel and own the love Thou art. | 5 When shall we know Thee as we ought,
And fear, and love, and serve aright!
When shall we, out of trial brought,
Be perfect in the land of light!
Lord, may we day by day prepare
To see Thy face, and serve Thee there. |

Teach us what Thy love has borne, That with lov-ing sor-row torn Tru-ly con-trite, we may mourn: We be-seech Thee, hear us. A-men.

- 2 Let not sin within us reign,
May we gladly suffer pain,
If it purge away our stain:
We beseech Thee, hear us.
- 3 Grant us love, Thy love to own,
Love to live for Thee alone,

And the power of grace make known:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

As we ever onward press,
Till we perfect holiness:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Fa-ther, hear Thy chil-dren's call: Hum-bly at Thy feet we fall,

Prod-i-gals, con-fess-ing all: We be-seech Thee, hear us. A-men.

- 2 Christ, beneath Thy cross we blame
All our life of sin and shame,
Penitent, we breathe Thy name:
We beseech Thee, hear us.
- 3 Holy Spirit, grieved and tried,
Oft forgotten and defied,
Now we mourn our stubborn pride:
We beseech Thee, hear us.
- 4 Love that caused us first to be,
Love that bled upon the tree,
Love that draws us lovingly:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

- 5 We Thy call have disobeyed,
Into paths of sin have strayed,
And repentance have delayed:
We beseech Thee, hear us.
- 6 Thou who hear'st each contrite sigh,
Bidding sinful souls draw nigh,
Willing not that one should die,
We beseech Thee, hear us.
- 7 By the love that bids Thee spare,
By the heaven Thou dost prepare,
By Thy promises to prayer,
We beseech Thee, hear us.

heav'n and long to en - ter in, But there no e - vil thing may find a home; And yet I hear a voice that bids me "Come." A-men.

- 2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land?
Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.
- 3 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear,
His are the hands stretched out to draw me near,
And His the blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the throne.
- 4 'Twas He who found me on the deathly wild,
And made me heir of heaven, the Father's child,
And day by day, whereby my soul may live,
Gives me His grace of pardon, and will give.
- 5 Yea, Thou wilt answer for me, righteous Lord:
Thine all the merits, mine the great reward;
Thine the sharp thorns, and mine the golden crown,
Mine the life won, and Thine the life laid down.

Im-mor-tal Love, for - ev - er full, For - ev - er flow - ing free,
For - ev - er shared, for - ev - er whole, A nev - er - ebb - ing sea! A-men.

2 Our outward lips confess the name
All other names above;
Love only knoweth whence it came,
And comprehendeth love.

5 The healing of His seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

3 We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For Him no depths can drown:

6 Through Him the first fond prayers are
Our lips of childhood frame; [said
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with His name.

4 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is He;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

7 Our Lord, and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own Thy sway, we hear Thy call,
We test our lives by Thine.

Fa-ther, I know that all my life Is por-tioned out for me;
The chan-ges that are sure to come, I do not fear to see:

I ask Thee for a pres-ent mind, In - tent on pleas - ing Thee. A-men.

2 I ask Thee for a thoughtful love,
Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
And wipe the weeping eyes;
A heart at leisure from itself,
To soothe and sympathize.

4 I ask Thee for the daily strength,
To none that ask denied,
A mind to blend with outward life,
While keeping at Thy side;
Content to fill a little space,
If Thou be glorified.

3 I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro,
Seeking for some great thing to do,
Or secret thing to know:
I would be treated as a child,
And guided where I go.

5 And if some things I do not ask
Among my blessings be,
I'd have my spirit filled the more
With grateful love to Thee;
More careful, not to serve Thee much,
But please Thee perfectly.

2 The task Thy wisdom hath assigned
O let me cheerfully fulfil;

3 Preserve me from my calling's snare,
And hide my simple heart above;
Above the thorns of choking care,

And still to things eternal look,
And hasten to Thy glorious day:

4 Thee may I set at my right hand,

- 2 But Christ, the heavenly Lamb,
Takes all our sins away,
A sacrifice of nobler name
And richer blood than they.
- 3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of Thine,
While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin,

- 4 My soul looks back to see
The burdens Thou didst bear,
When hanging on the cursèd tree,
And hopes her guilt was there.

To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing His bleeding love.

TRUSTING 6.5.6.5.D.

JOHN ADCOCK, 1905

Je - sus, I will trust Thee! Trust Thee with my soul,

Guilt - y, lost, and help - less, Thou canst make me whole.

There is none in heav - en Or on earth like Thee;

Thou hast died for sin - ners—Therefore, Lord, for me. A-men.

Copyright, 1905, by A. S. BARNES & Co.

2 Jesus, I may trust Thee!
 Name of matchless worth,
 Spoken by the angel
 At Thy wondrous birth;
 Written, and for ever,
 On Thy cross of shame:
 Sinners read and worship,
 Trusting in that name.

3 Jesus, I must trust Thee!
 Pond'ring all Thy ways,
 Full of love and mercy
 All Thine earthly days.

Sinners gathered round Thee,
 Lepers sought Thy face,
 None too vile or loathsome
 For a Saviour's grace.

4 Jesus, I do trust Thee!
 Trust without a doubt;
 Whosoever cometh
 Thou wilt not cast out.
 Faithful is Thy promise;
 Precious is Thy blood;
 These my soul's salvation,
 Thou my Saviour God!

Thy life was giv'n for me, Thy blood, O Lord, was shed,
That I might ran-somed be, And quick - ened from the dead.
Thy life was giv'n for me: What have I giv'n for Thee? A-men.

2 Long years were spent for me
In weariness and woe,
That through eternity
Thy glory I might know.
Long years were spent for me:
Have I spent one for Thee?

4 And Thou hast brought to me,
Down from Thy home above,
Salvation full and free,
Thy pardon and Thy love.
Great gifts Thou brougest me:
What have I brought to Thee?

3 Thy Father's home of light,
Thy rainbow-circled throne,
Were left for earthly night,
For wanderings sad and lone.
Yea, all was left for me:
Have I left aught for Thee?

5 Oh, let my life be given,
My years for Thee be spent,
World-fetters all be riven,
And joy with suffering blent!
Thou gav'st Thyself for me;
I give myself to Thee.

Je - sus, Mas - ter, whose I am, Pur-chased Thine a - lone to be, .

By Thy blood, O spot-less Lamb, Shed so will-ing-ly for me;

Let my heart be all Thine own, Let me live to Thee a-lone. A-men.

2 Other lords have long held sway;
Now Thy name alone to bear,
Thy dear voice alone obey,
Is my daily, hourly prayer.
Whom have I in heaven but Thee?
Nothing else my joy can be.

3 Jesus, Master, I am Thine;
Keep me faithful, keep me near:
Let Thy presence in me shine
All my homeward way to cheer.
Jesus, at Thy feet I fall,
O be Thou my All in all.

Rev. J. B. DYKES, 1874

Thine for-ev-er! God of love, Hear us from Thy throne a-bove;

Thine for-ev-er may we be, Here and in e-ter-ni-ty. A-men.

2 Thine forever! Lord of life,
Shield us through our earthly strife;
Thou, the life, the truth, the way,
Guide us to the realms of day.

Safe alone beneath Thy care,
Let us all Thy goodness share.

3 Thine forever! Saviour, keep
These Thy frail and trembling sheep;

4 Thine forever! Thou our guide,
All our wants by Thee supplied,
All our sins by Thee forgiven,
Lead us, Lord, from earth to heaven.

Je - sus, Lov - er of my soul, Let me to Thy bo - som fly,

While the near-er wa-ters roll, While the tem-pest still is high!

Hide me, O my Sav-iour, hide, Till the storm of life is past,

Safe in - to the ha-ven guide; O re-ceive my soul at last! A-men.

2 Other refuge have I none;
 Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
 Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
 Still support and comfort me!
 All my trust on Thee is stayed,
 All my help from Thee I bring;
 Cover my defenceless head
 With the shadow of Thy wing!

3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
 More than all in Thee I find:
 Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
 Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
 Just and holy is Thy name;
 I am all unrighteousness;
 False and full of sin I am,
 Thou art full of truth and grace.

4 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound;
Make and keep me pure within.

Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of Thee;
Spring Thou up within my heart!
Rise to all eternity!

2 Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love:
Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee.

4 Take my will, and make it Thine,
It shall be no longer mine:
Take my heart: it is Thine own,
It shall be Thy royal throne.

3 Take my silver and my gold;
Not a mite would I withhold:
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou dost choose.

5 Take my love: my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure-store:
Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for Thee!

J. W. ELLIOTT, 1875

O Je - sus, I have prom - ised To serve Thee to the end;

Be Thou for - ev - er near me, My Mas - ter and my friend;

I shall not fear the bat - tle If Thou art by my side,

Nor wan - der from the path - way If Thou wilt be my guide. A-men.

2 O let me feel Thee near me;
 The world is ever near;
 I see the sights that dazzle,
 The tempting sounds I hear;
 My foes are ever near me,
 Around me and within;
 But, Jesus, draw Thou nearer,
 And shield my soul from sin.

3 O Jesus, Thou hast promised
 To all who follow Thee,
 That where Thou art in glory
 There shall Thy servant be;
 And, Jesus, I have promised
 To serve Thee to the end;
 O give me grace to follow,
 My Master and my friend.

To Thee, O dear, dear Sav - iour, My spir - it turns for rest,
My peace is in Thy fa - vor, My pil - low on Thy breast;
Though all the world de - ceive me, I know that I am Thine,
And Thou wilt nev - er leave me, O bless - ed Sav - iour mine. A-men.

2 In Thee my trust abideth,
On Thee my hope relies,
O Thou whose love provideth
For all beneath the skies;
O Thou whose mercy found me,
From bondage set me free,
And then forever bound me
With threefold cords to Thee.

3 My grief is in the dulness
With which this sluggish heart
Doth open to the fullness
Of all Thou wouldst impart;
My joy is in Thy beauty
Of holiness Divine,
My comfort in the duty
That binds my life in Thine.

4 Alas, that I should ever
Have failed in love to Thee,
The only one who never Forgot or slighted me!
O for a heart to love Thee,
More truly as I ought,
And nothing place above Thee
In deed, or word, or thought.

5 O for that choicest blessing
Of living in Thy love,
And thus on earth possessing
The peace of heaven above;
O for the bliss that by it
The soul securely knows,
The holy calm and quiet
Of faith's serene repose.

I could not do with-out Thee, O Sav- iour of the lost,

Whose pre- cious blood re- deemed me At such tre- men- dous cost;

Thy right- eous-ness, Thy par- don, Thy pre- cious blood, must be

My on- ly hope and com- fort, My glo- ry and my plea. A-men.

2 I could not do without Thee,
I cannot stand alone,
I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own;
But Thou, beloved Saviour,
Art all in all to me,
And weakness will be power
If leaning hard on Thee.

3 I could not do without Thee,
For, oh, the way is long,
And I am often weary,
And sigh replaces song:
How could I do without Thee?
I do not know the way;
Thou knowest, and Thou leadest,
And wilt not let me stray.

4 I could not do without Thee,
O Jesus, Saviour dear;
E'en when my eyes are holden,
I know that Thou art near.
How dreary and how lonely
This changeful life would be,
Without the sweet communion,
The secret rest with Thee!

6 I could not do without Thee,
For years are fleeting fast,
And soon in solemn loneliness
The river must be passed;
But Thou wilt never leave me,
And though the waves roll high,
I know Thou wilt be near me,
And whisper, "It is I."

O Lamb of God, still keep me Near to Thy wound-ed side;

'Tis on - ly there in safe - ty And peace I can a - bide.

What foes and snares sur - round me, What doubts and fears with - in!

The grace that sought and found me, A - lone can keep me clean. A-men.

2 'Tis only in Thee hiding,
I know my life secure;
Only in Thee abiding,
The conflict can endure:
Thine arm the victory gaineth
O'er every hateful foe;
Thy love my heart sustaineth,
In all its care and woe.

3 Soon shall my eyes behold Thee
With rapture face to face;
One half hath not been told me
Of all Thy power and grace;
Thy beauty, Lord, and glory,
The wonders of Thy love,
Shall be the endless story
Of all Thy saints above.

I lay my sins on Je - sus, The spot - less Lamb of God; He bears them all, and frees us From the ac - curs - ed load: I bring my guilt to Je - sus, To wash my crim-son stains White, in His blood most pre - cious, Till not a spot re-mains. A-men.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus,
 All fulness dwells in Him;
 He heals all my diseases,
 He doth my soul redeem:
 I lay my griefs on Jesus,
 My burdens and my cares;
 He from them all releases,
 He all my sorrows shares.

3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
 This weary soul of mine;
 His right hand me embraces,
 I on His breast recline.

I love the name of Jesus,
 Emmanuel, Christ, the Lord:
 Like fragrance on the breezes
 His name abroad is poured.

4 I long to be like Jesus, —
 Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
 I long to be like Jesus,
 The Father's holy child;
 I long to be with Jesus,
 Amid the heavenly throng,
 To sing, with saints, His praises,
 To learn the angels' song.

Take my heart, O Fa-ther, take it; Make and keep it all Thine own;

Let Thy Spir-it melt and break it, This proud heart of sin and stone. A-men.

2 Father, make it pure and lowly,
Fond of peace, and far from strife;
Turning from the paths unholy
Of this vain and sinful life.

3 Ever let Thy grace surround it;
Strengthen it with power divine,
Till Thy cords of love have bound it:
Make it to be wholly Thine.

4 May the blood of Jesus heal it,
And its sins be all forgiven;
Holy Spirit, take and seal it,
Guide it in the path to heaven.

A. SULLIVAN, 1875

I've found a Friend; O such a Friend! He loved me ere I knew Him;

He drew me with the cords of love, And thus He bound me to Him;

And round my heart still close-ly twine Those ties which naught can sever,

For I am His, and He is mine, For ev - er and for ev - er. A-men.

2 I've found a Friend; O such a Friend!
 He bled, He died to save me;
 And not alone the gift of life,
 But His own self He gave me.
 Naught that I have mine own I'll call,
 I'll hold it for the Giver;
 My heart, my strength, my life, my all,
 Are His, and His for ever.

3 I've found a Friend; O such a Friend!
 All power to Him is given,
 To guard me on my onward course,
 And bring me safe to heaven:

Eternal glory gleams afar,
 To nerve my faint endeavor:
 So now to watch, to work, to war;
 And then to rest for ever.

4 I've found a Friend; O such a Friend
 So kind and true and tender!
 So wise a counsellor and guide,
 So mighty a defender!
 From Him who loves me now so well
 What power my soul shall sever?
 Shall life or death, shall earth or hell?
 No: I am His for ever.

Je - sus, I my cross have ta - ken, All to leave, and fol - low Thee;

Des - ti - tute, de - spised, for - sak - en, Thou, from hence, my all shalt be:

Per - ish, ev - 'ry fond am - bi - tion, All I've sought, and hoped, and known;

Yet how rich is my con - di - tion, God and heav'n are still my own! A-men.

2 Let the world despise and leave me,
 They have left my Saviour, too;
 Human hearts and looks deceive me,
 Thou art not, like man, untrue;
 And while Thou shalt smile upon me,
 God of wisdom, love, and might,
 Foes may hate, and friends may shun me,
 Show Thy face and all is bright.

3 Go then, earthly fame and treasure!
 Come disaster, scorn, and pain!
 In Thy service, pain is pleasure;
 With Thy favor, loss is gain.
 I have called Thee, Abba, Father;
 I have stayed my heart on Thee:
 Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
 All must work for good to me.

4 Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to Thy breast;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.

O 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While Thy love is left to me;
O 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

Daily I'm constrained to be:
Let that grace now, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to Thee.

4 Jesus sought me, when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed His precious blood.

6 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, O take and seal it,
Seal it from Thy courts above.

O ho-ly Saviour! Friend un - seen, Since on Thine arm Thou bid'st me lean,

Help me, throughout life's changing scene, By faith to cling to Thee! A-men.

2 What though the world deceitful prove,
And earthly friends and joys remove?
With patient, uncomplaining love
Still would I cling to Thee.

How safe, how calm, how satisfied,
The souls that cling to Thee.

3 Though faith and hope awhile be tried,
I ask not, need not aught beside:

4 Blest is my lot whate'er befall;
What can disturb me, who appall,
While, as my strength, my rock, my all,
Saviour, I cling to Thee?

 And from my smitten heart with tears,
 Two wonders I confess,—
 The wonders of His glorious love,
 And my own worthlessness.

3 I take, O cross, thy shadow,
 For my abiding place;
 I ask no other sunshine than
 The sunshine of His face:
 Content to let the world go by,
 To know no gain nor loss,—
 My sinful self, my only shame,—
 My glory all the cross.

2 O grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but Thy pure love alone;
O may Thy love possess me whole,

Strange fires far from my soul remove;
My every act, word, thought, be love.

3 O love, how cheering is thy ray!
All pain before thy presence flies:
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
Where'er thy healing beams arise.
O Jesus, nothing may I see,
Or hear, or feel, or think, but Thee.

4 Still let Thy love point out my way;
How wondrous things Thy love hath
Still lead me, lest I go astray; [wrought!
Direct my work, inspire my thought;
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that love is near.

5 In suffering, be Thy love my peace;
In weakness, be Thy love my power;

JOHN HATTON, c. 1793

Come, let us sing the song of songs, The saints in heav'n be - gan the strain,
The homage which to Christ belongs: "Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!" A-men.

- 2 Slain to redeem us by His blood,
To cleanse from every sinfu' stain,
And make us kings and priests to God:
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"
- 3 To Him, enthroned, by filial right,
All power in heaven and earth proclaim,

- Honor, and majesty, and might:
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"
- 4 Long as we live, and when we die,
And while in heaven with Him we reign,
This song, our song of songs shall be:
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

Sing to the Lord a joy-ful song, Lift up your hearts, your voi-ces raise:

To us His gra-cious gifts be-long, To Him our songs of love and praise.

For He is Lord of heav'n and earth, Whom angels serve and saints a-dore,

The Fa-ther, Son and Ho-ly Ghost, To Whom be praise for ev-er-more. A-men.

2 For life and love, for rest and food,
For daily help and nightly care,
Sing to the Lord; for He is good:
And praise His name, for it is fair.
For He is Lord of heav'n and earth,
Whom angels serve and saints adore,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
To Whom be praise for evermore.

3 For strength to those who on Him wait,
His truth to prove, His will to do,
Praise ye our God; for He is great:
Trust in His name, for it is true.

For He is Lord of heav'n and earth,
Whom angels serve and saints adore,
The Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
To Whom be praise for evermore.

4 For life below, with all its bliss,
And for that life, more pure and high,
That inner life, which over this
Shall ever shine, and never die.
Sing to the Lord of heaven and earth,
Whom angels serve and saints adore,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
To Whom be praise for evermore.

PROPIOR DEO 6.4.6.4.6.6.4.

A. SULLIVAN, 1872

2 Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest;
Now Thee alone I seek,
Give what is best:
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

3 Let sorrow do its work,
Send grief and pain;
Sweet are Thy messengers,
Sweet their refrain,
When they can sing with me,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

4 Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Crüger's Praxis Pietatis Melica, 1648

Now thank we all our God With heart and hands and voi - ces,

Who won-drous things hath done, In whom His world re - joi - ces;

Who, from our moth - ers' arms, Hath blessed us on our way

With count-less gifts of love, And still is ours to - day. A-men.

2 O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

3 All praise and thanks to God,
The Father, now be given,
The Son, and Him who reigns
With them in highest heaven,
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

PLEYEL'S HYMN 7.7.7.7.

Arr. from IGNACE PLEYEL, 1790

Chil-dren of the heav'n-ly King, As ye jour-ney, sweet-ly sing;

Sing your Sav-iour's wor-thy praise, Glo-rious in His works and ways. A-men.

- 2 We are travelling home to God,
In the way the fathers trod:
They are happy now, and we Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest,
You on Jesus' throne shall rest;
There your seat is now prepared,
There your kingdom and reward.

- 4 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.
- 5 Lord, obediently we go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only Thou our leader be,
And we still will follow Thee.

Sav-iour! teach me, day by day, Love's sweet les-son to o-bey;

Sweet-er les-son can-not be, Lov-ing Him who first lov'd me. A-men.

Copyright, 1898, by W. F. BIDDLE

- 2 With a childlike heart of love,
At Thy bidding may I move;
Prompt to serve and follow Thee,
Loving Him who first loved me.
- 3 Teach me all Thy steps to trace,
Strong to follow in Thy grace;
Learning how to love from Thee,
Loving Him who first loved me.

- 4 Love in loving finds employ —
In obedience all her joy:
Ever new that joy will be,
Loving Him who first loved me.
- 5 Thus may I rejoice to show
That I feel the love I owe;
Singing, till Thy face I see,
Of His love who first loved me.

For the beau - ty of the earth, For the beau - ty of the skies,

For the love which from our birth O - ver and a - round us lies:

Christ, our God, to Thee we raise This, our sac - ri - fice of praise. A-men.

2 For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon and stars of light;
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

3 For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above;
For all gentle thoughts and mild:
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

4 For each perfect gift of Thine
To our race so freely given,
Graces, human and divine,
Flowers of earth, and buds of heaven:
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

5 For Thy church that evermore
Lifteth holy hands above,
Offering up on every shore
Its pure sacrifice of love:
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

Friend to help us, cheer us, save us, In whom pow'r and pi - ty blend —

Praise we must the grace which gave us Je - sus Christ, the sin - ners' friend. A - men.

2 Friend who never fails nor grieves us,
Faithful, tender, constant, kind! —
Friend who at all times receives us,
Friend who came the lost to find! —
Sorrow soothing, joys enhancing,
Loving until life shall end —
Then conferring bliss entrancing,
Still, in heaven, the sinners' friend!

3 O to love and serve Thee better!
From all evil set us free;
Break, Lord, every sinful fetter;
Be each thought conformed to Thee:
Looking for Thy bright appearing,
May our spirits upward tend;
Till no longer doubting, fearing,
We behold the sinners' friend!

O ren - der thanks un - to the Lord, And cease your prais - es nev - er,
 Whose countless ben - e - fits are poured On us His chil - dren ev - er. A - men.

2 His works bear witness to the might
 Which fails His chosen never;
 And hymn His praises in the sight
 Of men and angels ever.
 3 By day the glorious sun ascends
 Heaven's arch, and tarries never —
 An emblem of the God who lends
 His light and love forever.
 4 By night the borrowed moonbeams shed
 A grace which faileth never;
 And tell us of a church, whose head
 Enlightens her forever.

5 And so each star however faint,
 Which shines and loiters never,
 Reminds us of some earnest saint
 Whose life is bright forever.
 6 So tending heavenward, Lord, may we Soon meet Thee to part never,
 And all Thy matchless beauty see,
 And taste Thy love forever.
 7 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 Whose mercy changeth never,
 From man and from the angel host
 Be praise and glory ever.

- 2 I thank Thee, too, that Thou hast made Joy to abound;
So many gentle thoughts and deeds Circling us round;
That in the darkest spot of earth Some love is found.
- 4 I thank Thee, Lord, that Thou hast kept The best in store;
We have enough, yet not too much To long for more:
A yearning for a deeper peace Not known before.
- 3 I thank Thee more that all our joy Is touched with pain,
That shadows fall on brightest hours, That thorns remain;
So that earth's bliss may be our guide, And not our chain.
- 5 I thank Thee, Lord, that here our souls, Though amply blest,
Can never find, although they seek, A perfect rest;
Nor ever shall, until they lean On Jesus' breast.

O Lord of heav'n and earth and sea, To Thee all praise and glo - ry be;

How shall we show our love to Thee, Who giv-est all? A-men.

2 The golden sunshine, vernal air,
Sweet flowers and fruit Thy love declare;
When harvests ripen, Thou art there,
Who givest all.

5 Thou giv'st the Spirit's holy dower,
Spirit of life, and love, and power,
And dost His sevenfold graces shower
Upon us all.

3 For peaceful homes, and healthful days,
For all the blessings earth displays,
We owe Thee thankfulness and praise,
Who givest all.

6 For souls redeemed, for sins forgiven,
For means of grace and hopes of heaven,
What can to Thee, O Lord, be given,
Who givest all?

4 Thou didst not spare Thine only Son,
But gav'st Him for a world undone,
And freely with that blessed one
Thou givest all.

7 To Thee, from Whom we all derive
Our life, our gifts, our power to give;
Oh, may we ever with Thee live,
Who givest all!

How can I love Thee as I ought?
And how extol Thy matchless fame,
The glorious beauty of Thy name?
Jesus, my Lord, I Thee adore;
O make me love Thee more and more.
- 3 Jesus, what didst Thou find in me
That Thou hast dealt so lovingly?
How great the joy that Thou hast brought,
So far exceeding hope or thought!
Jesus, my Lord, I Thee adore;
So make me love Thee more and more.
- 4 Jesus, of Thee shall be my song;
To Thee my heart and soul belong:
All that I have or am is Thine;
And Thou, blest Saviour, Thou art mine:
Jesus, my Lord, I Thee adore;
O make me love Thee more and more.

How rapidly the closing hour,

3 Thus may I serve Thee, gracious Lord;

O Mas-ter, let me walk with Thee In low-ly paths of ser-vice free,
Tell me thy se-cret, help me bear The strain of toil, the fret of care. A-men.

2 Help me the slow of heart to move
By some clear winning word of love;
Teach me the wayward feet to stay,
And guide them in the homeward way.

In work that keeps faith sweet and strong,
In trust that triumphs over wrong.

3 Teach me Thy patience! still with Thee
In closer, dearer company,

2 In hope that sends a shining ray
Far down the future's broadening way;
In peace that only Thou canst give,
With Thee, O Master, let me live!

O Mas - ter, when Thou call - est, No voice may say Thee nay,

For blest are they that fol - low Where Thou dost lead the way:

In fresh - est prime of morn - ing, Or full - est glow of noon,

The note of heav'n-ly warn - ing Can nev - er come too soon. A-men.

2 O Master, where Thou callest,
No foot may shrink in fear,
For they who trust Thee wholly Shall find Thee ever near:
And chamber still and lonely,
Or busy harvest-field,
Where Thou, Lord, rulest only,
Shall precious produce yield.

3 O Master, whom Thou callest,
No heart may dare refuse;
'Tis honor, highest honor,
When Thou dost deign to use:

Our brightest and our fairest,
Our dearest—all are Thine;
Thou Who for each one carest,
We hail Thy love's design.

4 They who go forth to serve Thee,
We too who serve at home,
May watch and pray together
Until Thy kingdom come:
In Thee for age united,
Our song of hope we raise,
Till that blest shore is sighted
When all shall turn to praise.

With Je - sus as your fel - low, To Je - sus as your head. A-men.

2 O happy if ye labor
As Jesus did for men!
O happy if ye hunger
As Jesus hungered then!

3 The cross that Jesus carried,
He carried as your due:
The crown that Jesus weareth,
He weareth it for you.

4 The faith by which ye see Him,
The hope in which ye yearn,
The love that through all troubles
To Him alone will turn;

5 The trials that beset you,
The sorrows ye endure,
The manifold temptations
That death alone can cure;

6 What are they but His jewels,
Of right celestial worth?
What are they but the ladder
Set up to heaven on earth?

7 O happy band of pilgrims,
Look upward to the skies,
Where such a light affliction
Shall win so great a prize!

Let me be a praise to Thee.

One who owes Thee more than all?
As Thou wilt! I would not choose;
Only let me hear Thy call.
Jesus, let me always be,
In Thy service, glad and free.

2 Work, for the night is coming:
 Work through the sunny noon;
 Fill brightest hours with labor,
 Rest comes sure and soon;
 Give every flying minute
 Something to keep in store;
 Work, for the night is coming,
 When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
 Under the sunset skies;
 While their bright tints are glowing,
 Work, for daylight flies;
 Work till the last beam fadeth,
 Fadeth to shine no more;
 Work while the night is darkening,
 When man's work is o'er.

O God of mer - cy, God of might, In love and pi - ty grant Thy light;

Teach us as ev - er in Thysight, To live our life to Thee. A - men.

2 And Thou Who cam'st on earth to die,
That fallen man might live thereby,
O hear us, for to Thee we cry,
In hope, O Lord, to Thee.

Then teach us, whatsoe'er betide,
To love them all in Thee.

3 Teach us the lesson Thou hast taught,
To feel for those Thy blood hath bought;
That every word, and deed, and thought
May work a work for Thee.

5 In sickness, sorrow, want, or care,
Whate'er it be, 'tis ours to share;
May we, where help is needed, there
Give help as unto Thee.

4 For all are brethren, far and wide,
Since Thou, O Lord, for all hast died:

6 And may Thy Holy Spirit move
All those who live, to live in love,
Till Thou shalt greet in heaven above
All those who give to Thee.

The Son of God goes forth to war, A king-ly crown to gain;

Who best can drink his cup of woe, Tri-um-phant o-ver pain,

Who pa-tient bears his cross be-low, He fol-lows in His train. A-men.

2 The martyr first, whose eagle eye
 Could pierce beyond the grave,
 Who saw his Master in the sky,
 And called on Him to save:
 Like Him, with pardon on his tongue
 In midst of mortal pain,
 He prayed for them that did the wrong:
 Who follows in his train?

3 A glorious band, the chosen few
 On whom the Spirit came,
 Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
 And mocked the cross and flame:
 They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
 The lion's gory mane;
 They bowed their necks the death to feel:
 Who follows in their train?

4 A noble army, men and boys,
 The matron and the maid,
 Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,
 In robes of light arrayed:
 They climbed the steep ascent of heaven
 Through peril, toil, and pain:
 O God, to us may grace be given
 To follow in their train.

2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course,
But hell and sin are vanquished foes;
Thy Jesus nailed them to the cross,
And sung the triumph when He rose.

There peace and joy eternal reign,
And glittering robes for conquerors wait.

3 Then let my soul march boldly on,
Press forward to the heavenly gate;

4 There shall I wear a starry crown,
And triumph in almighty grace;
While all the armies of the skies
Join in my glorious Leader's praise.

2 Run the straight race through God's good
Light up thine eyes, and seek His face; [grace,
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove
Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

3 Cast care aside, lean on thy guide,
His boundless mercy will provide;

Work-man of God, O lose not heart, But learn what God is like;

And in the dark-est bat-tle - field Thou shalt know where to strike. A-men.

Thrice blest is he to whom is given
The instinct that can tell
That God is on the field, when He Is most invisible.

Blest too is he who can divine,
Where real right doth lie,
And dares to take the side that seems
Wrong to man's blindfold eye.

God's glory is a wondrous thing,
Most strange in all its ways,

And, of all things on earth, least like
What men agree to praise.

5 Then learn to scorn the praise of men,
And learn to lose with God;
For Jesus won the world through shame,
And beckons thee His road.

6 For right is right, since God is God;
And right the day must win;
To doubt would be disloyalty,
To falter would be sin.

Am I a sol-dier of the cross, A fol-low'r of the Lamb?

And shall I fear to own His cause, Or blush to speak His name? A-men.

2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?

3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord;

I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by Thy word.

5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.

6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all Thine armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be Thine.

2 Strong in the Lord of hosts,
And in His mighty power,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

3 Stand then in His great might,
With all His strength endued;
But take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God:

4 That, having all things done,
And all your conflicts passed,

Ye may o'ercome through Christ alone,
And stand entire at last.

5 From strength to strength go on;
Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.

In all His soldiers, "Come,"
Till Christ the Lord descends from high,
And takes the conquerors home.

3 Go forward, Christian soldier,

 Till Satan's host is vanquished,
 And heaven is all possessed;

Till Christ Himself shall call Thee

Often have we left Thee,
Often gone astray;
Keep us, mighty Saviour,
In the narrow way.—Ref.

Bid Thine angels shield us
When the storm-clouds lower,
Pardon, Lord, and save us
In the last dread hour.—Ref.

3 All our days direct us
In the way we go,
Lead us on victorious
Over every foe:

4 Then with saints and angels
May we join above,
Offering prayers and praises
At Thy throne of love;
When the toil is over,
Then come rest and peace
Jesus in His beauty,
Songs that never cease.—Ref.

ST. ANDREW OF CRETE 6.5.6.5.D.

J. B. DYKES, 1868

Chris - tian, dost thou see them On the ho - ly ground,

How the hosts of dark - ness Com - pass thee a - round?

Chris - tian, up and smite them, Count - ing gain but loss;

Smite them, Christ is with thee, Sol - dier of the cross. A-men.

2 Christian, dost thou feel them,
 How they work within,
 Striving, tempting, luring,
 Goading into sin?
 Christian, never tremble;
 Never be downcast;
 Gird thee for the battle,
 Watch and pray and fast.

3 Christian, dost thou hear them,
 How they speak thee fair?
 "Always fast and vigil?
 Always watch and prayer?"
 Christian, answer boldly:
 "While I breathe I pray:"
 Peace shall follow battle,
 Night shall end in day.

4 "Well I know thy trouble,
O My servant true;
Thou art very weary,
I was weary too;

But that toil shall make thee
Some day all Mine own,
And the end of sorrow
Shall be near My throne."

VIGILATE 7.7.7.3.

W. H. MONK, 1868

Chris-tian! seek not yet re-pose, Cast thy dreams of ease a - way,

Thou art in the midst of foes: "Watch.. and pray." A-men.

2 Gird thy heavenly armor on,
Wear it ever, night and day;
Ambushed lies the evil one:
"Watch and pray."

4 Hear, above all, hear thy Lord,
Him thou lovest to obey;
Hide within thy heart His word,
"Watch and pray."

3 Hear the victors who o'ercame;
Still they mark each warrior's way;
All with one sweet voice exclaim,
"Watch and pray."

5 Watch, as if on that alone
Hung the issue of the day;
Pray that help may be sent down:
"Watch and pray."

ARMAGEDDON 6.5.6.5. 12 l.

Arr. by J. GOSS, 1871

Who is on the Lord's side? Who will serve the King? Who will be His help - ers Oth - er lives to bring? Who will leave the world's side?

2 Not for weight of glory,
 Not for crown and palm,
 Enter we the army,
 Raise the warrior psalm;
 But for love that claimeth
 Lives for whom He died:
 He whom Jesus nameth
 Must be on His side.
 By Thy love constraining,
 By Thy grace divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are Thine.

3 Jesus, Thou hast bought us,
 Not with gold or gem,
 But with Thine own life-blood,
 For Thy diadem:
 With Thy blessing filling
 Each who comes to Thee,
 Thou hast made us willing,
 Thou hast made us free.
 By Thy grand redemption,
 By Thy grace divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are Thine.

4 Fierce may be the conflict,
 Strong may be the foe,
 But the King's own army
 None can overthrow:
 Round His standard ranging,
 Victory is secure;
 For His truth unchanging
 Makes the triumph sure.
 Joyfully enlisting
 By Thy grace divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are Thine.

5 Chosen to be soldiers
 In an alien land,
 Chosen, called, and faithful,
 For our Captain's hand;
 In the service royal
 Let us not grow cold;
 Let us be right loyal,
 Noble, true, and bold.
 Master, Thou wilt keep us,
 By Thy grace divine,
 Always on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, always Thine.

Oft in dan - ger, oft in woe, On - ward, Chris - tians, on - ward go:

Fight the fight, main-tain the strife, Strengthen'd with the bread of life. A-men.

2 Let your drooping hearts be glad:
March in heavenly armor clad:
Fight, nor think the battle long,
Victory soon shall tune your song.

Let not fears your course impede,
Great your strength, if great your need.

3 Let not sorrow dim your eye,
Soon shall every tear be dry;

4 Onward then in battle move,
More than conquerors ye shall prove;
Though opposed by many a foe,
Christian soldiers, onward go.

2 At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory:
Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise.
Onward, etc.

3 Like a mighty army
Moves the church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod;
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.
Onward, etc.

4 Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.
Onward, etc.

5 Onward, then, ye people,
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph-song;
Glory, laud, and honor
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.
Onward, etc.

WATCHWORD (Forward) 6.5.6.5. 12 l.

H. SMART, 1872

Forward! be our watchword, Steps and voices joined; Seek the things be-fore us,
 Not a look be-hind. Burns the fie-ry pil-lar At our ar-my's head;
 Who shall dream of shrinking, By our Cap-tain led? For-ward thro' the des-ert, Thro' the toil and fight! Jordan flows before us; Zi-on beams with light. A-men.

- 2 Forward, when in childhood
 Buds the infant mind;
 All through youth and manhood,
 Not a thought behind:
 Speed through realms of nature,
 Climb the steps of grace;
 Faint not, till in glory
 Gleams our Father's face.
 Forward, all the life-time,
 Climb from height to height,
 Till the head be hoary,
 Till the eve be light.
- 3 Forward, flock of Jesus,
 Salt of all the earth,
 Till each yearning purpose
 Spring to glorious birth.
 Sick, they ask for healing,
 Blind, they grope for day;

Pour upon the nations
 Wisdom's loving ray.
 Forward, out of error,
 Leave behind the night;
 Forward, through the darkness
 Forward, into light!

- 4 Glories upon glories
 Hath our God prepared,
 By the souls that love Him
 One day to be shared:
 Eye hath not beheld them,
 Ear hath never heard;
 Nor of these have uttered
 Thought or speech a word.
 Forward, marching eastward
 Where the heaven is bright,
 Till the veil be lifted,
 Till our faith be sight.

HE LEADETH ME L. M. D. With Refrain

W. B. BRADBURY, 1864

He lead-eth me: O bless-ed thought, O words with heav'nly comfort fraught,

What-e'er I do, wher-e'er I be, Still 'tis God's hand that lead-eth me.

REFRAIN

He lead-eth me, He lead-eth me, By His own hand He lead-eth me;

Lead us, Heav'nly Fa-ther, lead us O'er the world's tem-pest-u-ous sea;

 Love with every passion blending,
 Pleasure that can never cloy;
 Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
 Nothing can our peace destroy.

2 In the world will foes assail me,
 Craftier, stronger far than I;
 And the strife may never fail me,
 Well I know, before I die.
 Therefore, Lord, I come, believing
 Thou canst give the power I need;
 Through the prayer of faith receiving
 Strength, — the Spirit's strength indeed.

3 I would trust in Thy protecting,
 Wholly rest upon Thine arm,
 Follow wholly Thy directing,
 Thou, mine only guard from harm!
 Keep me from mine own undoing,
 Help me turn to Thee when tried;
 Still my footsteps, Father, viewing,
 Keep me ever at Thy side.

WHITTIER 8.6.8.8.6.

F. C. MAKER

Dear Lord and Fa-ther of man-kind, For-give our fev-'rish ways!

Re-clothe us in our right-ful mind; In pur-er lives thy ser-vice find, In deep-er rev-'rence, praise. A-men.

- 2 In simple trust like theirs who heard,
Beside the Syrian sea,
The gracious calling of the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word
Rise up and follow Thee.
- 3 O Sabbath rest by Galilee!
O calm of hills above,
Where Jesus knelt to share with Thee
The silence of eternity,
Interpreted by love!
- 4 With that deep hush subduing all
Our words and works that drown
The tender whisper of Thy call,
As noiseless let Thy blessing fall
As fell Thy manna down.
- 5 Drop Thy still dews of quietness,
Till all our strivings cease:
Take from our souls the strain and stress;
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of Thy peace.
- 6 Breathe through the pulses of desire
Thy coolness and Thy balm;
Let sense be dumb, its heats expire:
Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still small voice of calm!

My God, my Fa-ther, while I stray Far from my home in life's rough way,
O teach me from my heart to say, "Thy will be done!" A-men.

- 2 Though dark my path, and sad my lot, 5 Let but my fainting heart be less
Let me be still and murmur not, With Thy good Spirit for its guest,
Or breathe the prayer divinely taught, My God, to Thee I leave the rest;
"Thy will be done!" "Thy will be done!"
- 3 What though in lonely grief I sigh 6 Renew my will from day to day,
For friends beloved, no longer nigh, Blend it with Thine, and take away
Submissive still would I reply, All that now makes it hard to say,
"Thy will be done!" "Thy will be done!"
- 4 If Thou should'st call me to resign 7 Then, when on earth I breathe no more
What most I prize, it ne'er was mine; The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
I only yield Thee what is Thine; I'll sing upon a happier shore,
"Thy will be done!" "Thy will be done!"

CHARLOTTE ELLIOTT, 1834

My Je - sus, as Thou wilt! Oh, may Thy will be mine!

In - to Thy hand of love I would my all re - sign;

Through sor - row, or through joy, . Con - duct me as Thine own,

And help me still to say, My Lord, Thy will be done! A-men.

2 My Jesus, as Thou wilt:

If needy here and poor,
Give me Thy people's bread,
Their portion rich and sure.
The manna of Thy word
Let my soul feed upon;
And if all else should fail,
My Lord, Thy will be done.

3 My Jesus, as Thou wilt:

Though seen through many a tear,
Let not my star of hope
Grow dim or disappear.

Since Thou on earth hast wept
And sorrowed oft alone,
If I must weep with Thee,
My Lord, Thy will be done.

4 My Jesus, as Thou wilt:

All shall be well for me;
Each changing future scene
I gladly trust with Thee.
Straight to my home above,
I travel calmly on,
And sing in life or death,
My Lord, Thy will be done.

CIVITAS DEI 7.6.8.6.D.

A. J. CALDICOTT

Organ Not in dumb res-ig-na-tion We lift our hands on high;

Not like the nerve-less fa-tal-ist Con-tent to trust and die.

Our faith springs like the ea-gle Who soars to meet the sun,

And cries ex-ult-ing un-to Thee O Lord, Thy will be done! A-men.

2 When tyrant feet are trampling
 Upon the common weal,
 Thou dost not bid us bend and writhe
 Beneath the iron heel.
 In Thy name we assert our right
 By sword or tongue or pen,
 And e'en the headsman's axe may flash
 Thy message unto men.

3 Thy will! It strengthens weakness,
 It bids the strong be just;
 No lip to fawn, no hand to beg,
 No brow to seek the dust.
 Wherever man oppresses man
 Beneath Thy liberal sun
 O Lord be there Thine arm made bare,
 Thy righteous will be done!

LUX BENIGNA 10.4.10.4.10.10. (First Tune)

Rev. J. B. DYKES, 1867

Lead, kindly Light, a-mid th' encir- cling gloom, Lead Thou me on! The night is dark, and I am far from home; Lead Thou me on! Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see . . . The dis- tant scene; one step enough for me. A-men.

2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on!
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will. Remember not past years!

Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone,
And with the morn those angel faces smile
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile!

Thy way, not mine, O Lord, How - ev - er dark it be! . .

Lead me by Thine own hand; Choose out the path . . for me. A-men.

- 2 I dare not choose my lot;
 I would not, if I might;
 Choose Thou for me, my God,
 So shall I walk aright.

 Is Thine: so let the way
 That leads to it be Thine,
 Else I must surely stray.

 Choose Thou my cares for me,

 Be Thou my guide, my strength,
 My wisdom, and my all.

Rev. HORATIUS BONAR, 1857

How firm a foun-da-tion, ye saints of the Lord, Is laid for your faith in His ex-cel-lent Word! What more can He say than to you He hath said, To you who for ref-uge to Je-sus have fled. To you who for ref-uge to Je-sus have fled? A-men.

- 2 "Fear not, I am with thee, oh, be not dismayed,
For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by My righteous, omnipotent hand.
- 3 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not overflow;
For I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.
- 4 "When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply;
The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design
Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.
- 5 "E'en down to old age all My people shall prove
My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable love;
And when hoary hairs shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs they shall still in My bosom be borne.
- 6 "The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,
I will not, I will not desert to his foes;
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never, no never, no never forsake!"

I do not ask that life may be, O Lord, a pleasant road;
Nor that Thou wouldest take from me Aught of its weary load. A-men.

2 For one thing chiefly do I plead,
Dear Lord, lead me aright: [bleed,
Though strength should fail, and heart should Lead me through peace to light.

3 I do not ask to understand
My cross, my way to see;

Let me, in darkness, feel Thy hand,
And simply follow Thee.

4 Joy is like day, but peace divine
May rule the quiet night:
Lead me, till perfect day shall shine,

O Thou, from Whom all good-ness flows, I lift my heart to Thee;
In all my sor-rows, con-flicts, woes, Dear Lord, re-mem-ber me. A-men.

2 When on my aching, burdened heart
My sins lie heavily,
Thy pardon grant, Thy peace impart:
In love, remember me.

3 When trials sore obstruct my way,
And ills I cannot flee,
O let my strength be as my day!
For good, remember me.

4 If worn with pain, disease, and grief,
This feeble frame should be,
Grant patience, rest, and kind relief:
Hear and remember me.

2 Keen was the trial once,
The bitter cup of woe,
When martyred saints, baptized in blood,
Christ's sufferings shared below.

4 Lord, may that grace be ours,
Like them in faith to bear
All that of sorrow, grief, or pain
May be our portion here.

3 Bright is their glory now,
Boundless their joy above,
Where, on the bosom of their God,
They rest in perfect love.

The word of blessing give,
And let us rest beneath Thy feet,

2 Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crown each lingering year;
No path we shun, no darkness dread,
Our hearts still whispering, Thou art near.

The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,
Shall softly tell us, Thou art near!

And trembling faith is changed to fear;

O Love divine, forever dear;
Content to suffer, while we know,
Living and dying, Thou art near!

Thou know-est, Lord, the wea-ri-ness and sor-row Of the sad heart that comes to Thee for rest; Cares of to-day, and bur-dens for to-mor-row, Bless-ings im-plored, and sins to be con-fessed: We come be-fore Thee at Thy gra-cious word, And lay them at Thy feet: Thou know-est, Lord. A-men.

- 2 Thou knowest all the past: how long and blindly
On the dark mountains the lost wanderer strayed;
How the Good Shepherd followed, and how kindly
He bore it home, upon His shoulders laid,
And healed the bleeding wounds, and soothed the pain,
And brought back life and hope and strength again.
- 3 Thou knowest all the future: gleams of gladness
By stormy clouds too quickly overcast;
Hours of sweet fellowship and parting sadness,
And the dark river to be crossed at last.
O, what could hope and confidence afford
To tread that path, but this, Thou knowest, Lord!
- 4 Therefore we come, Thy gentle call obeying,
And lay our sins and sorrows at Thy feet;
On everlasting strength our weakness staying,
Clothed in Thy robe of righteousness complete:
Then rising and refreshed we leave Thy throne,
And follow on to know as we are known.

Till all life's discipline shall cease,
And we go home to Thee.

JUDEA 11.11.11.11.

(Second Tune)

Rev. J. B. DYKES

Though faint, yet pur - su - ing, we go on our way;

ough waves and clouds and storms, He gently clears thy way:
 Wait thou His time, so shall this night
 Soon end in joyous day.

- 3 What though thou rulest not,
 Yet heaven and earth and hell
 Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,
 And ruleth all things well.

- 5 Let us, in life, in death,
 Thy steadfast truth declare,
 And publish with our latest breath
 Thy love and guardian care.

Rev. PAUL GERHARDT, 1656. Tr. by Rev. JOHN WESLEY, 1739

DOWNFIELD S. M.

- 2 Sorrow and fear are gone,
 Whene'er Thy face appears;
 It stills the sighing orphan's moan,
 And dries the widow's tears.

- 4 Jesus, to Whom I fly,
 Doth all my wishes fill;
 In vain the creature streams are dry;
 I have the fountain still.

- 3 It hallows every cross;
 It sweetly comforts me;
 Helps me to bear my every loss,
 And find my all in Thee.

- 5 Stripped of my earthly friends,
 I find them all in One,
 And peace, and joy that never ends,
 And heaven, in Christ alone.

Your harps, ye trem-bling saints, Down from the wil - lows take;

Loud to the praise of love di - vine Bid ev - ery string a - wake. A-men.

2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.

Then is the time to trust our God,
And rest upon His name.

Though suf - f'ring, and sor - row, and tri - al be near,

The Lord is our ref - uge, and whom can we fear? A - men.

whom can we

- 2 He raiseth the fallen, He cheereth the faint;
The weak and oppressed, He will hear their complaint;
The way may be weary, and thorny the road,
But how can we falter? our help is in God.
- 3 And to His green pastures our footsteps He leads;
His flock in the desert how kindly He feeds!
The lambs in His bosom He tenderly bears,
And brings back the wanderers all safe from the snares.

4 Though clouds may surround us, our God is our light;
 Though storms rage around us, our God is our might;
 So faint, yet pursuing, still onward we come;

2 With us when we toil in sadness,
Sowing much, and reaping none;
Telling us that in the future
Golden harvests shall be won.

Waking hope within our bosoms,
Stillling every anxious fear.

3 With us when the storm is sweeping
O'er our pathway dark and drear;

4 With us in the lonely valley,
When we cross the chilling stream;
Lighting up the steps to glory
With salvation's radiant beam.

2 When fear its gloomy cloud will fling
O'er earth,—our souls to heaven above,
As to their sanctuary spring;
For Thou art love.

In this our soul sweet comfort hath,
That Thou art love.

3 When mystery shrouds our darkened path,
We'll check our dread, our doubts reprove;

4 Yes! Thou art love; a truth like this
Can every gloomy thought remove,
And turn all tears, all woes to bliss;
Our God is love.

(First Tune)

C. T. CALDBECK, 1878

Peace, per - fect peace, in this dark world of sin: The blood of Je - sus whis - pers peace with - in. A-men.

- 2 Peace, perfect peace, by thronging duties pressed:
To do the will of Jesus, — this is rest.
- 3 Peace, perfect peace, with sorrows surging round:
On Jesus' bosom naught but calm is found.
- 4 Peace, perfect peace, with loved ones far away:
In Jesus' keeping we are safe, and they.
- 5 Peace, perfect peace, our future all unknown:
Jesus we know, and He is on the throne.
- 6 Peace, perfect peace, death shadowing us and ours:
Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers.
- 7 It is enough: earth's struggles soon shall cease,
And Jesus call us to heaven's perfect peace.

2 One family, we dwell in Him,
One Church above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.

3 One army of the living God,
To His command we bow;

Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.

4 Dear Saviour, be our constant guide;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And land us safe in heaven.

2 Let us with zeal like theirs inspired,
Strive in the Christian race;
And, freed from every weight of sin,
Their holy footsteps trace.

3 Behold a witness nobler still,
Who trod affliction's path—
Jesus, the author, finisher,
Rewarder of our faith:

4 He, for the joy before him set,
And moved by pitying love,
Endured the cross, despised the shame,
And now he reigns above.

5 Thither, forgetting things behind,
Press we, to God's right hand;
There, with the Saviour and His saints,
Triumphantly to stand.

For all Thy saints, O Lord, Who strove in Thee to live,

Who fol - low'd Thee, o - bey'd, a - dor'd, Our grate-ful hymn re - ceive. A-men.

2 For all Thy saints, O Lord,
Accept our thankful cry,
Who counted Thee their great reward,
And strove in Thee to die.

Learned from Thy Holy Spirit's breath
To suffer and to do.

3 They all in life and death,
With Thee, their Lord, in view,

And humbly pray that we
May follow them in holiness,

Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Chris - tian love:

2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

4 When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

3 We share our mutual woes;
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

5 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

2 Our Sacrifice is one;
 One priest before the throne,
 The slain, the risen Son,
 Redeemer, Lord alone:
 Thou who didst raise Him from the dead,
 Unite Thy people in their Head.

3 O may that holy prayer,
 His tenderest and His last,
 His constant, latest care
 Ere to His throne He passed,
 No longer unfulfilled remain,
 The world's offence, His people's stain!

4 Head of Thy Church beneath,
 The catholic, the true,
 On all her members breathe,
 Her broken frame renew:
 Then shall Thy perfect will be done,
 When Christians love and live as one.

From all Thy saints in war - fare, For all Thy saints at rest,

Their crowns of liv - ing glo - ry Are lit with rays from Thee. A-men.

2 Apostles, prophets, martyrs,
And all the sacred throng,
Who wear the spotless raiment,
Who raise the ceaseless song;
For these, passed on before us,
Saviour, we Thee adore,
And, walking in their footsteps,
Would serve Thee more and more.

3 Then praise we God the Father,
And praise we God the Son,
And God the Holy Spirit,
Eternal Three in One;
Till all the ransomed number
Fall down before the throne,
And honor, power, and glory
Ascribe to God alone.

Who are these in bright ar-ray, This in-num-er-a-ble throng,

Round the al-tar night and day, Hymn-ing one tri-um-phant song:

“Wor-ty is the Lamb, once slain, Bless-ing, hon-or, glo-ry, pow’r, Wis-dom, rich-es, to ob-tain, New do-min-ion ev-’ry hour.” A-men.

2 These through fiery trials trod;
 These from great afflictions came;
 Now, before the throne of God,
 Sealed with His almighty name;
 Clad in raiment pure and white,
 Victor-palms in every hand,
 Through their dear Redeemer's might,
 More than conquerors they stand.

3 Hunger, thirst, disease unknown,
 On immortal fruits they feed;
 Them the Lamb amidst the throne,
 Shall to living fountains lead;
 Joy and gladness banish sighs,
 Perfect love dispels all fear,
 And forever from their eyes
 God shall wipe away the tear.

ST. ASAPH 8.7.8.7.D.

W. S. BAMBRIDGE, 1872

Through the night of doubt and sor-row On-ward goes the pil-grim band,

Sing-ing songs of ex-pec-ta-tion, March-ing to the prom-ised land:

Clear be-fore us through the dark-ness Gleams and burns the guid-ing light;

Broth-er clasps the hand of broth-er, Stepping fear-less thro' the night. A-men.

2 One the light of God's own presence
O'er His ransomed people shed,
Chasing far the gloom and terror,
Brightening all the path we tread;
One the object of our journey,
One the faith which never tires,
One the earnest looking forward,
One the hope our God inspires;

3 One the strain that lips of thousands
Lift as from the heart of one,
One the conflict, one the peril,
One the march in God begun;

One the gladness of rejoicing
On the far eternal shore,
Where the One Almighty Father
Reigns in love for evermore.

4 Onward, therefore, pilgrim brothers,
Onward, with the cross our aid;
Bear its shame, and fight its battle,
Till we rest beneath its shade:
Soon shall come the great awaking,
Soon the rending of the tomb;
Then the scattering of all shadows,
And the end of toil and gloom.

Who are these like stars ap-pear - ing, These be - fore God's throne who stand?

Each a gold - en crown is wear - ing; Who are all this glo - rious band?

Al - le - lu - ia! hark, they sing, Prais - ing loud their heav'n - ly King. A - men.

2 Who are these of dazzling brightness
These in God's own truth arrayed,
Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand?
Whence comes all this glorious band?

4 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified;
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

3 These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honor long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng;
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph through the Lamb have gained.

5 These like priests have watched and Offering up to Christ their will; [waited,
Soul and body consecrated,
Day and night they serve Him still:
Now in God's most holy place
Blest they stand before His face.

Al - le - lu - ia is the an - them Of the choirs in heav - 'nly day,

Which the an - gels sing, a - bid - ing In the house of God al - way. A - men.

2 Alleluia thou resoundest,
 Salem, mother ever blest;
 Alleluias without ending
 Fit yon place of gladsome rest;
 Exiles we, by Babel's waters,
 Sit in bondage and distressed.

3 Alleluia! songs of gladness
 Suit not always souls forlorn:
 Alleluia! sounds of sadness
 Midst our joyful strains are borne;
 For in this dark world of sorrow
 We with tears our sins must mourn.

4 Trinity of endless glory,
 Hear Thy people as they cry;
 Grant us all our heart's deep longing
 In our home beyond the sky;
 There to Thee our Alleluia
 Singing everlastingly.

For all the saints, who from their la - bors rest, Who Thee by faith be - fore the world con - fessed, Thy name, O Je - sus, be for - ev - er blessed: Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia! A-men.

- 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might:
Thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their light of light. Alleluia!
- 3 O, may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia!
- 4 O, blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine. Alleluia!
- 5 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia!
- 6 The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest. Alleluia!
- 7 But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on His way. Alleluia!
- 8 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!

2 Ye powers, who stand before the eternal Light,
In hymning choirs re-echo to the height
An endless Alleluia.

3 The holy city shall take up your strain,
And with glad songs resounding wake again
An endless Alleluia.

4 In blissful answering strains ye thus rejoice
To render to the Lord with thankful voice
An endless Alleluia.

5 Ye who have gained at length your palms in bliss,
Victorious ones, your chant shall still be this,
An endless Alleluia.

6 There, in one grand acclaim, for ever ring
The strains which tell the honor of your King,
An endless Alleluia.

7 This is sweet rest for weary ones brought back,
This is glad food and drink which ne'er shall lack
An endless Alleluia.

8 While Thee, by Whom were all things made, we praise
Forever, and tell out in sweetest lays
An endless Alleluia.

9 Almighty Christ, to Thee our voices sing
Glory for evermore; to Thee we bring
An endless Alleluia.

Of godly sorrow give;
A strong, desiring confidence
To hear Thy voice and live; | 4 Patience to watch, and wait, and weep,
Though mercy long delay;
Courage, our fainting souls to keep,
And trust Thee though Thou slay. 5 Give these, and then Thy will be done;
Thus strengthened with all might,
We through Thy Spirit and Thy Son
Shall pray, and pray aright. |

From ev-'ry storm-y wind that blows, From ev-'ry swell-ing tide of woes,

There is a calm, a sure re-treat; 'Tis found be-neath the mer-cy-seat. A-men.

Copyright, 1905, by W. F. BIDDLE

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,
A place than all besides more sweet;
It is the blood-stained mercy-seat.

4 Ah, whither could we flee for aid,
When tempted, desolate, dismayed,
Or how the hosts of hell defeat,
Had suffering saints no mercy-seat?

3 There is a spot where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend,
Though sundered far; by faith they meet
Around the common mercy-seat.

5 There, there on eagle wings we soar,
And time and sense seem all no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

RETREAT L. M.

(Second Tune)

T. HASTINGS, 1842

From ev-'ry storm-y wind that blows, From ev-'ry swelling tide of woes,

There is a calm, a sure re-treat; 'Tis found be-neath the mer-cy - seat. A-men.

When the wea-ry, seek-ing rest, To Thy goodness flee; When the heav-y - la - den cast All their load on Thee; When the troubled, seek - ing peace,

On Thy name shall call; When the sin-ner, seek-ing life, At Thy feet shall fall.

Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry In heav'n, Thy dwelling-place on high. A-men.

2 When the worldling, sick at heart,
Lifts his soul above;
When the prodigal looks back
To his Father's love;
When the proud man, in his pride,
Stoops to seek Thy face;
When the burdened brings his guilt
To Thy throne of grace:
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

3 When the stranger asks a home,
All his toils to end;
When the hungry craveth food,
And the poor a friend;
When the sailor on the wave
Bows the fervent knee;
When the soldier on the field
Lifts his heart to Thee:
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

4 When the child, with loving heart,
 Youth or maiden fair;
 When the aged, trusting still,
 Seek Thy face in prayer;
 When the widow weeps to Thee,
 Sad and lone and low;
 When the orphan brings to Thee
 All his orphan woe:
 Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
 In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

C. H. LLOYD, 1892

Come, my soul, thy suit pre-pare, Je - sus loves to an-swer pray'r;

He Him-self has bid thee pray, Therefore will not say thee nay. A-men.

- 2 With my burden I begin: .
 Lord remove this load of sin;
 Let Thy blood, for sinners spilt,
 Set my conscience free from guilt.
- 3 Lord, I come to Thee for rest,
 Take possession of my breast;
 There Thy blood-bought right maintain
 And without a rival reign.

- 4 While I am a pilgrim here,
 Let Thy love my spirit cheer;
 As my guide, my guard, my friend,
 Lead me to my journey's end.
- 5 Show me what I have to do,
 Every hour my strength renew;
 Let me live a life of faith,
 Let me die Thy people's death.

God, to be, While we lift our souls to Thee. A-men.

- 2 Jesus, by Thy blood alone,
 Who didst for our sins atone,
 Dare we come before Thy throne.
- 3 Thou who knowest all our need,
 Grant the prayer of faith to plead,
 Teach us how to intercede.
- 4 Thou hast led us in the way,
 And hast taught us how to say,
 "Abba, Father," when we pray.

- 5 Holy Spirit, from on high
 Helping our infirmity,
 Aid us in our feeble cry.
- 6 Flesh and heart would faint and fail,
 But there stands within the veil
 One who ever doth prevail.
- 7 Glory to the Father, Son,
 Holy Spirit, Three in One,
 While the endless ages run.

Bless-ed Je-sus! Bless-ed Je-sus! Thou hast bought us, Thine we are. A-men.

2 We are Thine; do Thou befriend us,
Be the guardian of our way;
Keep Thy flock, from sin defend us,
Seek us when we go astray:
Blessèd Jesus,
Hear Thy children, when they pray.

3 Thou hast promised to receive us,
Poor and sinful though we be;
Thou hast mercy to relieve us,
Grace to cleanse, and power to free:
Blessèd Jesus,
Early let us turn to Thee.

4 Early let us seek Thy favor;
Early let us do Thy will;
Blessèd Lord and only Saviour,
With Thy love our bosoms fill:
Blessèd Jesus,
Thou hast loved us, love us still.

My God, is a - ny hour so sweet, From blush of morn to ev - ning-star, As that which calls me to Thy feet, The hour of pray'r? A-men.

- 2 Blest is that tranquil hour of morn,
And blest that solemn hour of eve,
When, on the wings of prayer upborne,
The world I leave.
- 3 Then is my strength by Thee renewed;
Then are my sins by Thee forgiven;
Then dost Thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.
- 4 No words can tell what sweet relief
Here for my every want I find;

- What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What peace of mind.
- 5 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And e'en the penitential tear
Is wiped away.

No privilege so dear shall be
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to Thee.

There I delight in Thee to rest,
And find Thy mercy sweet.

4 Light Thou my weary way,
Place Thou my weary feet,
That while I stray on earth I may Still find Thy mercy sweet.

5 Thus shall the heavenly host
Hear all my songs repeat
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
My joy, Thy mercy sweet.

Ap-proach, my soul, the mer - cy - seat, Where Je - sus ans - wers pray'r;

There hum - bly fall be - fore His feet, For none can per - ish there. A-men.

2 Thy promise is my only plea,
With this I venture nigh;
Thou callest burdened souls to Thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.

3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely pressed,
By war without, and fears within,
I come to Thee for rest.

4 Be Thou my shield and hiding-place,
That, sheltered near Thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him, Thou hast died.

5 O wondrous love, to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead Thy gracious name.

There is an eye that nev - er sleeps Be - neath the wing of night;

There is an ear that nev - er shuts When sink the beams of light; A-men.

- 2 There is an arm that never tires
When human strength gives way;
There is a love that never fails
When earthly loves decay.
- 4 But there's a power which man can wield
When mortal aid is vain,
That eye, that arm, that love to reach,
That listening ear to gain.
- 3 That eye is fixed on seraph throngs;
That arm upholds the sky;
That ear is filled with angel songs;
That love is throned on high.
- 5 That power is prayer, which soars on high,
Through Jesus, to the throne,
And moves the hand which moves the world,
To bring salvation down.

O for a faith that will not shrink Tho' pressed by ev - 'ry foe;

That will not trem - ble on the brink Of an - y earth - ly woe; A-men.

Copyright, 1905, by A. S. BARNES & Co.

- 2 That will not murmur nor complain
Beneath the chastening rod,
But, in the hour of grief and pain,
Will lean upon its God;
- 4 A faith that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last hour is fled,
And with a pure and heavenly ray
Lights up a dying bed.
- 3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without;
That when in danger knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt;
- 5 Lord, give us such a faith as this,
And then, whate'er may come,
We'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.

Still with Thee, O my God, I would de - sire to be,
By day, by night; at home, a-broad, I would be still with Thee. A-men.

2 With Thee when dawn comes in
And calls me back to care,
Each day returning to begin
With Thee, my God, in prayer.

3 With Thee amid the crowd
That throngs the busy mart,
To hear Thy voice, where time's is loud,
Speak softly to my heart.

4 With Thee when day is done,
And evening calms the mind;

The setting as the rising sun
With Thee my heart would find.

5 With Thee when darkness brings
The signal of repose,
Calm in the shadow of Thy wings,
Mine eyelids I would close.

6 With Thee, in Thee, by faith
Abiding, I would be;
By day, by night, in life, in death,
I would be still with Thee.

O for a heart to praise my God, A heart from sin set free;
A heart that al - ways feels Thy blood So free - ly shed for me! A-men.

2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My dear Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone.

3 A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine;

Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of Thine.

4 Thy nature, dearest Lord, impart;
Come quickly from above;
Write Thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new, best name of Love.

O for a clos-er walk with God, A calm and heav'n-ly frame,

A light to shine up-on the road That leads me to the Lamb! A-men.

2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and His word?

3 Return, O holy Dove; return,
Sweet messenger of rest:
I hate the sins that made Thee mourn
And drove Thee from my breast.

4 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.

5 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

As pants the hart for cool-ing streams, When heat-ed in the chase,

So longs my soul, O God, for Thee, And Thy re-fresh-ing grace. A-men.

2 For Thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
O, when shall I behold Thy face
Thou Majesty divine!

3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Trust God, who will employ
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.

4 God of my strength, how long shall I,
Like one forgotten, mourn,
Forlorn, forsaken, and exposed
To my oppressor's scorn?

5 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Hope still; and thou shalt sing
The praise of Him Who is thy God,
Thy health's eternal spring.

The crim-son of the sun - set sky, How fast they fade a - way!

O for the pear - ly gates of heav'n! O for the gold - en floor!

O for the Sun of Right-eous-ness That set-teth nev - er - more! A-men.

- 2 The highest hopes we cherish here,
 How fast they tire and faint;
 How many a spot defiles the robe
 That wraps an earthly saint:
 O for a heart that never sins,
 O for a soul washed white,
 O for a voice to praise our King,
 Nor weary day or night!

3 Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
 And grace to lead us higher;
 But there are perfectness and peace,
 Beyond our best desire:
 O by Thy love and anguish, Lord,
 O by Thy life laid down,
 O that we fall not from Thy grace,
 Nor cast away our crown!

ROSEATE HUES C. M. D.

(Second Tune)

J. BARNBY, 1892

The ro-seate hues of ear-ly dawn, The bright-ness of the day,

This block contains the first line of musical notation for the hymn 'Roseate Hues'. It features a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics 'The ro-seate hues of ear-ly dawn, The bright-ness of the day,' are written below the notes.

The crim-son of the sun-set sky, How fast they fade a-way!

This block contains the second line of musical notation. The melody continues in the treble staff, with some notes marked with an 'x' indicating a specific performance instruction. The bass staff continues the accompaniment. The lyrics 'The crim-son of the sun-set sky, How fast they fade a-way!' are written below.

O for the pearl-y gates of heav'n! O for the gold-en floor!

This block contains the third line of musical notation. The melody in the treble staff includes a key change to two sharps (F#, C#) for the final phrase. The bass staff continues the accompaniment. The lyrics 'O for the pearl-y gates of heav'n! O for the gold-en floor!' are written below.

O for the Sun of Right-eous-ness That set-teth nev-er-more. A-men.

This block contains the final line of musical notation for the hymn. The melody concludes in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a final accompaniment. The lyrics 'O for the Sun of Right-eous-ness That set-teth nev-er-more. A-men.' are written below.

cry, "Blest Spir - it, come And speed me to my rest." A-men.

2 Upon the willows long
My harp has silent hung:
How should I sing a cheerful song
Till Thou inspire my tongue?

4 To thee, to thee I press,
A dark and toilsome road:
When shall I pass the wilderness,
And reach the saints' abode?

3 My spirit homeward turns,
And fain would thither flee:
My heart, O Zion, droops and yearns
When I remember thee.

5 God of my life, be near;
On Thee my hopes I cast:
O guide me through the desert here,
And bring me home at last.

O where shall rest be found, Rest for the wea - ry soul?
'Twere vain the o - cean depths to sound, Or pierce to eith - er pole. A-men.

2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

4 There is a death, whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath:
O what eternal horrors hang
Around the second death.

3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.

5 Lord God of truth and grace,
Teach us that death to shun,
Lest we be banished from Thy face,

Sure guide of erring age and youth,
Lead me, and teach me too.

4 O everlasting Strength,
Uphold me in the way;
Bring me, in spite of foes, at length

5 O everlasting Love,
Wellspring of grace and peace,

They who seek the throne of grace Find that throne in ev - 'ry place;
If we live a life of pray'r, God is pres - ent ev - 'ry-where. A-men.

2 In our sickness and our health,

Near-er, my God, to Thee, Near-er to Thee; E'en tho' it be a cross
That rais-eth me; Still all my song shall be, Near-er, my God, to Thee, Near-er my God to Thee, Near-er to Thee! A-men.

2 Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer my God to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

3 There let the way appear
Steps unto heaven;
All that Thou sendest me,
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

4 Then with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

5 Or if on joyful wing
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

- 3 Great love of God come in!
Well-spring of heavenly peace;

- Thou living water, come!

2 Calmer yet and calmer,
In the hour of pain,
Surer yet and surer
Peace at last to gain;
Suffering still and doing,
To His will resigned,
And to God subduing
Heart and will and mind.

3 Higher yet and higher
Out of clouds and night,
Nearer yet and nearer
Rising to the light;
Light serene and holy,
Where my soul may rest,
Purified and lowly,
Sanctified and blest;

4 Swifter yet and swifter
Ever onward run,
Firmer yet and firmer
Step as I go on:
Oft these earnest longings
Swell within my breast,
Yet their inner meaning
Ne'er can be expressed.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire, ascending, seeks the sun;
Both speed them to their source:
So a soul, that's born of God,
Pants to view His glorious face,
Upward tends to His abode,
To rest in His embrace.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
Press onward to the prize;
Soon our Saviour will return
Triumphant in the skies:
Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance will be given,
All our sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven.

O Love di-vine, how sweet Thou art! When shall I find my will-ing heart

All tak - en up by Thee? I thirst, and faint, and die to prove

The great-ness of re-deem-ing love, The love of Christ to me. A-men.

2 Stronger His love than death or hell;
 Its riches are unsearchable;
 The first-born sons of light
 Desire in vain its depths to see;
 They cannot reach the mystery,
 The length and breadth and height.

3 God only knows the love of God:
 Oh, that it now were shed abroad
 In this poor stony heart!
 For love I sigh, for love I pine;
 This only portion, Lord, be mine,
 Be mine this better part.

4 Oh, that I could for ever sit
 With Mary at the Master's feet!
 Be this my happy choice;
 My only care, delight, and bliss,
 My joy, my heaven on earth be this,
 To hear the Bridegroom's voice.

5 Thy only love do I require,
 Nothing on earth beneath desire,
 Nothing in heaven above;
 Let earth and heaven and all things go;
 Give me Thy only love to know,
 Give me Thy only love.

SHINING SHORE 8.7.8.7.D.

G. F. Root, 1855

My days are glid - ing swift - ly by, And I, a pil-grim stran-ger,

Would not de-tain them, as they fly, Those hours of toil and dan-ger;

For, O, we stand on Jor-dan's strand; Our friends are pass - ing o - ver;

And just be-fore, the shin-ing shore We may al-most dis-cov - er. A-men.

2 Should coming days be cold and dark,
 We need not cease our singing;
 That perfect rest nought can molest,
 Where golden harps are ringing.
 For, O, we stand on Jordan's strand;
 Our friends are passing over;
 And just before, the shining shore
 We may almost discover.

3 Let sorrow's rudest tempest blow,
 Each chord on earth to sever;
 Our King says, Come, and there's our home,
 Forever, O, forever!
 For, O, we stand on Jordan's strand;
 Our friends are passing over;
 And just before, the shining shore
 We may almost discover.

Thou hid-den love of God, whose height, Whose depth unfathom'd no man knows,

I see from far Thy beauteous light, O God, I sigh for Thy re - pose:

Org. Ped.

My heart is pain'd, nor can it be At rest till it finds rest in Thee. A-men.

2 Is there a thing beneath the sun
That strives with Thee my heart to share?
Ah! tear it thence, and reign alone,
The Lord of every motion there;
Then shall my heart from earth be free,
When it has found repose in Thee.

3 O Love, Thy sovereign aid impart
To save me from low-thoughted care;
Chase this self-will through all my heart,
Through all its latent mazes there;
Make me Thy duteous child, that I
Ceaseless may "Abba, Father," cry.

4 Each moment draw from earth away
My heart, that lowly waits Thy call;
Speak to my inmost soul, and say,
"I am thy Love, thy God, thy All."
To feel Thy power, to hear Thy voice
To taste Thy love, be all my choice.

PERFECT LOVE 11.10.11.10.

J. BARNBY, 1889

We would see Je - sus, for the shad-ows length-en O - ver this lit - tle landscape of our life. We would see Je - sus, our weak faith to strength-en For the last wea - ri - ness, the fi - nal strife. A-men.

- 2 We would see Jesus, the great rock foundation,
Whereon our feet were set with sovereign grace;
Not life, nor death, with all their agitation,
Can thence remove us if we see His face.
- 3 We would see Jesus; yet the spirit lingers
Round the dear objects it has loved so long,
And earth from earth can scarce unclasp its fingers;
Our love to Thee makes not this love less strong.
- 4 We would see Jesus: sense is all too binding,
And heaven appears too dim, too far away;
We would see Thee, Thyself our hearts reminding
What Thou hast suffered, our great debt to pay.
- 5 We would see Jesus: this is all we're needing;
Strength, joy, and willingness come with the sight;
We would see Jesus, dying, risen, pleading;
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night.

A few more years shall roll, A few more sea - sons come,

And we shall be with those that rest A - sleep with - in the tomb:

Then, O my Lord, pre - pare My soul for that great day;

O wash me in Thy pre-cious blood, And take my sins a - way. A-men.

2 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild rocky shore,
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that great day;
O wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

3 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
O wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

4 A few more Sabbaths here
 Shall cheer us on our way,
 And we shall reach the endless rest,
 The eternal Sabbath-day:
 Then, O my Lord, prepare
 My soul for that sweet day;
 O wash me in Thy precious blood.
 And take my sins away.

5 'Tis but a little while,
 And He shall come again
 Who died that we might live, Who lives
 That we with Him may reign:
 Then, O my Lord, prepare
 My soul for that glad day;
 O wash me in Thy precious blood,
 And take my sins away.

Then, O my Lord, pre-pare My soul for that great day;

O, wash me in Thy pre-cious blood, And take my sins a-way. A-men.

For - ev - er with the Lord! A - men! so let it be!

Life from the dead is in that word, And im - mor - tal - i - ty!

Here in the bod - y pent, Ab - sent from Him I roam,

Yet night-ly pitch my mov-ing tent A day's march near-er home. A-men.

2 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near,
At times, to faith's foreseeing eye,
Thy golden gates appear!

Ah! then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above!

3 Then, then I feel, that He Remembered or forgot,
The Lord, is never far from me,
Though I perceive Him not.

So when my latest breath
Shall rend the veil in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.

One sweet-ly sol - emn thought Comes to me o'er and o'er;
Near-er my home am I to - day Than e'er I've been be - fore. A-men.

2 Nearer my Father's house,
Where many mansions be;
Nearer my Saviour's glorious throne;
Nearer the crystal sea;

3 Nearer the bound of life,
Where burdens are laid down;
Nearer to leave the heavy cross;
Nearer to gain the crown.

4 But, lying dark between,
Winding down through the night,

There rolls the deep and unknown stream
That leads at last to light.

5 E'en now, perchance, my feet
Are slipping on the brink,
And I, to-day, am nearer home,—
Nearer than now I think.

6 Father, perfect my trust!
Strengthen my power of faith!
Nor let me stand, at last, alone
Upon the shore of death.

2 It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake, in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.

3 It is not death to bear
The wrench that sets us free
From dungeon chain, to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.

4 It is not death to fling
 Aside this sinful dust,
 And rise, on strong exulting wing,

 Bidding rejoice
 All in Jesus sleeping.

2 There the tears of earth are dried;
 There its hidden things are clear;
 There the work of life is tried
 By a juster Judge than here.
 Father, in Thy gracious keeping
 Leave me now Thy servant sleeping.

3 There the sinful souls, that turn
 To the cross their dying eyes,
 All the love of Christ shall learn
 At His feet in Paradise.
 Father, in Thy gracious keeping
 Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

4 "Earth to earth, and dust to dust,"
 Calmly now the words we say;
 Left behind, we wait in trust
 For the resurrection-day.

2 Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet;
With holy confidence to sing
That death hath lost his venom'd sting.

4 Asleep in Jesus! O for me
May such a blissful refuge be;
Securely shall my ashes lie,
Waiting the summons from on high.

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.

7 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep.

REST L. M.

(Second Tune)

W. B. BRADBURY, 1843

A - sleep in Je - sus! bless-ed sleep, From which none ev - er wakes to weep,

A calm and un - dis-turbed re-pose, Un-bro-ken by the last of foes. A-men.

ST. SYLVESTER 8.7.8.7. and 8.8.8.9.

Rev. J. B. DYKES, 1862

Days and moments quickly fly - ing Speed us on-ward to the dead:

O how soon shall we be ly - ing Each with-in his nar - row bed!

2 Jesus, merciful Redeemer,
Rouse dead souls to hear Thy voice;
Wake, O wake each idle dreamer
Now to make the eternal choice.

4 Wise that we our days may number,
Strive and wrestle with our sin,
Stay not in our work, nor slumber
Till Thy glorious rest we win.

3 As a shadow life is fleeting;
As a vapor so it flies;
For the old year now retreating
Pardon grant, and make us wise;

5 Soon before the Judge all glorious
We with all the dead shall stand:
Saviour, over death victorious,
Place us then on Thy right hand.

6 Life pass-eth soon: Death draweth near: Keep us, good Lord, Till Thou ap - pear;

With Thee to live, With Thee to die, With Thee to reign thro' eter - - ni - ty. A-men.

I would not live al - way; I ask not to stay Where storm af - ter storm ris - es dark o'er the way; The few lu - rid morn - ings that dawn on us here Are e-nough for life's woes, full e-nough for its cheer. A-men.

- 2 I would not live alway, thus fettered by sin;
Temptation without, and corruption within;
E'en the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears,
And the cup of thanksgiving with penitent tears.
- 3 I would not live alway; no, welcome the tomb:
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom;
There sweet be my rest, till He bid me arise
To hail Him in triumph descending the skies.
- 4 Who, who would live alway, away from his God,
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns;
- 7 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren, transported to greet;
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul?

VICTORY 13.11.13.11

J. BARNEY, 1867

Thou art gone to the grave: but we will not de - plore thee,

Though sor - rows and dark - ness en - com - pass the tomb;

The Sav - iour hath passed through its por - tal be - fore thee,

And the lamp of His love is thy guide thro' the gloom. A-men.

2 Thou art gone to the grave: we no longer behold thee,
 Nor tread the rough path of the world by thy side;
 But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
 And sinners may die, for the Sinless has died.

3 Thou art gone to the grave: but we will not deplore thee,
 Whose God was thy ransom, thy guardian, and guide;
 He gave thee, He took thee, and He will restore thee;
 And death has no sting, for the Saviour has died.

MATERNA C. M. D.

S. A. WARD, 1882

O Moth - er dear, Je - ru - sa - lem! When shall I come to thee? . .

When shall my sor - rows have an end? Thy joys when shall I see? . .

O hap - py har - bor of God's saints! O sweet and pleas - ant soil! . .

In thee no sor - row may be found, No grief, no care, no toil. A-men.

2 Thy turrets and thy pinnacles

With jewels rare do shine,

Thy very streets are paved with gold
Surpassing pure and fine.

No murky cloud o'er shadows thee,

Nor gloom, nor darksome night;

But every soul shines as the sun,

For God Himself gives light.

3 Thy gardens and thy goodly walks

Continually are green,

Where grow such sweet and pleasant flowers

As nowhere else are seen,

Right through thy streets, with silver sound

The living waters flow,

And on the banks, on every side,

The trees of life do grow.

4 Those trees for evermore bear fruit,

And evermore do spring:

There evermore the angels are,

And evermore do sing.

Jerusalem, my happy home,

Would God I were in thee!

Would God my woes were at an end,

Thy joys that I might see!

ST. MARGUERITE C. M.

(First Tune)

Rev. E. C. WALKER, 1876

There is a land of pure de-light, Where saints im-mor-tal reign;

In-fi-nite day ex-cludes the night, And pleas-ures ban-ish pain. A-men.

2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

4 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea;
And linger, shivering, on the brink,
And fear to launch away.

3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.

5 O could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unbeckoned eyes;

6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

H. S. IRONS, 1861

Je - ru - sa - lem, my hap - py home, Name ev - er dear to me!

When shall my la - bors have an end, In joy and peace, and thee? A-men.

- 2 When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls
And pearly gates behold?
Thy bulwarks with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold?
- 3 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom,
Nor sin nor sorrow know:
Blest seats! through rude and stormy scenes
I onward press to you.
- 4 Why should I shrink at pain and woe,
Or feel at death dismay?
I've Canaan's goodly land in view,
And realms of endless day.
- 5 Apostles, martyrs, prophets, there
Around my Saviour stand;
And soon my friends in Christ below
Will join the glorious band.
- 6 Jerusalem, my happy home!
My soul still pants for thee:
Then shall my labors have an end,
When I thy joys shall see.

There is no night in heaven; In that blest world a - bove

Work nev-er can bring wea-ri-ness, For work it - self is love. A - men.

2 There is no grief in heaven;
For life is one glad day;
And tears are of those former things
Which all have passed away.

4 There is no death in heaven;
For they who gain that shore
Have won their immortality,
And they can die no more.

3 There is no sin in heaven;
Behold that blessed throng
All holy is their spotless robe!
All holy is their song!

5 Lord Jesus, be our guide;
O lead us safely on,
Till night and grief and sin and death
Are past, and heaven is won!

SARDIS 8.7.8.7. ✓

Arr. from BEETHOVEN

This is not my place of rest-ing, Mine's a cit - y yet to come;

On-ward to it I am hast-ing, On to my e - ter - nal home. A-men.

2 In it all is light and glory;
O'er it shines a nightless day;
Every trace of sin's sad story,
All the curse, hath passed away.

3 There the Lamb, our Shepherd, leads us,
By the streams of life along,
On the freshest pastures feeds us,
Turns our sighing into song.

4 Soon we pass this desert dreary,
Soon we bid farewell to pain;
Never more are sad and weary,
Never, never sin again.

SANCTUARY 8.7.8.7.D.

Rev. J. B. DYKES, 1871

Hark! the sound of ho - ly voi - ces, Chanting at the crys - tal sea,

Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia, Lord, to Thee:

Mul - ti - tude which none can num - ber, Like the stars in glo - ry stands,

Cloth'd in white ap - par - el, hold - ing Palms of vic - t'ry in their hands. A - men.

2 Patriarch, and holy prophet,
 Who prepared the way for Christ,
 King, apostle, saint, confessor,
 Martyr and evangelist;
 Sainly maiden, godly matron,
 Widows who have watched to prayer,
 Joined in holy concert, singing
 To the Lord of all, are there.

3 Marching with Thy Cross, their banner,
 They have triumphed, following
 Thee, the Captain of salvation,
 Thee, their Saviour and their King.

Gladly, Lord, with Thee they suffer'd;
 Gladly, Lord, with Thee they died;
 And by death to life immortal
 They were born and glorified.

4 Now they reign in heavenly glory,
 Now they walk in golden light,
 Now they drink, as from a river,
 Holy bliss and infinite:
 Love and peace they taste for ever,
 And all truth and knowledge see
 In the beatific vision
 Of the blessed Trinity.

Up-ward where the stars are burn-ing, Si-lent, si-lent in their turn-ing,

Round the nev-er chang-ing pole; Up-ward where the sky is bright-est,

Up-ward where the blue is light-est, Lift I now my long-ing soul. A-men.

2 Far above that arch of gladness,
Far beyond these clouds of sadness,
Are the many mansions fair.
Far from pain and sin and folly,
In that palace of the holy,
I would find my mansion there.

4 Where the Lamb on high is seated,
By ten thousand voices greeted,
Lord of lords, and King of kings.
Son of Man, they crown, they crown Him,
Son of God, they own, they own Him;
With His name the palace rings.

3 Where the glory brightly dwelleth,
Where the new song sweetly swelleth,
And the discord never comes;
Where life's stream is ever laving,
And the palm is ever waving,
That must be the home of homes.

5 Blessing, honor, without measure,
Heavenly riches, earthly treasure,
Lay we at His blessed feet:
Poor the praise that now we render,
Loud shall be our voices yonder,
When before His throne we meet.

PEACEFUL REST 8.6.8.8.6.

(First Tune)

J. BARNBY

There is an hour of peace-ful rest, To mourn-ing wan-der'rs giv'n;

There is a joy for souls dis-tressed, A balm for ev - 'ry wound - ed breast, 'Tis found a - bove, in heav'n. A-men.

2 There is a home for weary souls
By sin and sorrow driven;
When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise, and ocean rolls,
And all is drear but heaven.

3 There, faith lifts up her cheerful eye,
To brighter prospects given;
And views the tempest passing by,
The evening shadows quickly fly,
And all serene in heaven.

4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
And joys supreme are given;
There rays divine disperse the gloom:
Beyond the confines of the tomb
Appears the dawn of heaven.

From Templi Carmina

Give me the wings of faith to rise, With - in the veil, and see
The saints a - bove, how great their joys, How bright their glo-ries be. A-men.

- 2 I ask them whence their victory came:
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their victory to the Lamb,
Their triumph to His death.
- 3 They marked the footsteps that He trod,
His zeal inspired their breast;

And, following their incarnate God,
Possess the promised rest.

- 4 Our glorious leader claims our praise
For His own pattern given;
While the long cloud of witnesses
Show the same path to heaven.

O Par - a-dise! O Par - a-dise! Who doth not crave for rest?

Who would not seek the hap - py land Where they that loved are blest?

All rap-ture through and through, In God's most ho - ly sight. A-men.

2 O Paradise! O Paradise!
The world is growing old;
Who would not be at rest and free
Where love is never cold?
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.

3 O Paradise! O Paradise!
I want to sin no more;
I want to be as pure on earth
As on thy spotless shore;
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.

4 Lord Jesus, King of Paradise,
 O keep me in Thy love,
 And guide me to that happy land
 Of perfect rest above;
 Where loyal hearts and true
 Stand ever in the light.
 All rapture through and through,
 In God's most holy sight.

PARADISE 8.6.8.6.6.6.6.6.

(Second Tune)

H. SMART, 1868

O Par - a - dise! O Par - a - dise! Who doth not crave for rest?

The first system of musical notation for the song 'Paradise'. It consists of a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time, with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics 'O Par - a - dise! O Par - a - dise! Who doth not crave for rest?' are written below the staff.

Who would not seek the hap - py land Where they that loved are blest?

The second system of musical notation for the song 'Paradise'. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics 'Who would not seek the hap - py land Where they that loved are blest?' are written below the staff.

Where loy - al hearts and true Stand ev - er in the light,

The third system of musical notation for the song 'Paradise'. It continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics 'Where loy - al hearts and true Stand ev - er in the light,' are written below the staff.

All rap - ture through and through, In God's most ho - ly sight. A-men.

The fourth system of musical notation for the song 'Paradise'. It concludes the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics 'All rap - ture through and through, In God's most ho - ly sight. A-men.' are written below the staff.

BLESSED HOME Eight 6s.

J. STAINER, 1875

There is a bless-ed home. Be-yond this land of woe,

Where tri-als nev-er come, Nor tears of sor-row flow;

Where faith is lost in sight, And pa-tient hope is crown'd, And ev-er-last-ing light Its glo-ry throws a-round. A-men.

- 2 There is a land of peace:
 Good angels know it well;
 Glad songs that never cease
 Within its portals swell;
 Around its glorious throne
 Ten thousand saints adore
 Christ, with the Father One,
 And Spirit, evermore.
- 3 O joy all joys beyond,
 To see the Lamb Who died,
 And count each sacred wound
 In hands, and feet, and side;

- To give to Him the praise
 Of every triumph won,
 And sing through endless days
 The great things He hath done!
- 4 Look up, ye saints of God!
 Nor fear to tread below
 The path your Saviour trod
 Of daily toil and woe!
 Wait but a little while
 In uncomplaining love!
 His own most gracious smile
 Shall welcome you above.

HEAVEN IS MY HOME 6.4.6.4.6.6.6.4.

A. SULLIVAN, 1872

I'm but a stran-ger here, Heav'n is my home;

Earth is a des-ert drear, Heav'n is my home:

Dan-ger and sor-row stand Round me on ev-'ry hand;

Heav'n is my fa-ther-land, Heav'n is my home. A-men.

2 What though the tempest rage,
 Heaven is my home;
 Short is my pilgrimage,
 Heaven is my home:
 And time's wild wintry blast
 Soon shall be overpast;
 I shall reach home at last,
 Heaven is my home.

3 There, at my Saviour's side,
 Heaven is my home;
 I shall be glorified,
 Heaven is my home.

There are the good and blest,
 Those I love most and best;
 And there I too shall rest,
 Heaven is my home.

4 Therefore I murmur not,
 Heaven is my home;
 What'er my earthly lot,
 Heaven is my home:
 And I shall surely stand
 There at my Lord's right hand;
 Heaven is my fatherland,
 Heaven is my home.

Je - ru - sa - lem the gold - en, With milk and hon - ey blest!

2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
 All-jubilant with song,
 And bright with many an angel,
 And all the martyr throng:
 The Prince is ever in them;
 The daylight is serene;
 The pastures of the blessèd
 Are decked in glorious sheen.

3 There is the throne of David, —
 And there, from care released,
 The song of them that triumph,
 The shout of them that feast;

And they, who with their Leader,
 Have conquered in the fight,
 For ever and for ever
 Are clad in robes of white.

4 O sweet and blessèd country,
 The home of God's elect!
 O sweet and blessèd country,
 That eager hearts expect!
 Jesus, in mercy bring us
 To that dear land of rest;
 Who art, with God the Father,

For thee, O dear, dear coun - try, Mine eyes their vig - ils keep;

For ver - y love be - hold - ing Thy hap - py name, they weep:

The men - tion of thy glo - ry Is unc - tion to the breast,

And med - i - cine in sick - ness, And love, and life, and rest. A-men.

2 O one, O only mansion!

O Paradise of joy!

Where tears are ever banished,

And smiles have no alloy;

Thy loveliness oppresses

All human thought and heart,

And none, O Peace, O Zion,

Can sing thee as thou art.

4 The cross is all thy splendor,

The Crucified thy praise;

His laud and benediction

Thy ransomed people raise:

Upon the Rock of Ages

They build thy holy tower;

Thine is the victor's laurel,

And thine the golden dower.

3 With jaspers glow thy bulwarks,

Thy streets with emeralds blaze;

The sardius and the topaz

Unite in thee their rays;

Thine ageless walls are bonded

With amethysts unpriced;

Thy saints build up its fabric,

And the corner-stone is Christ.

5 O sweet and blessèd country,

The home of God's elect!

O sweet and blessèd country

That eager hearts expect!

Jesus, in mercy bring us

Who art, with God the Father,

And Spirit, ever blest.

THE HOMELAND 7.6.7.6.D.

A. SULLIVAN, 1867

The Home-land! O the Home - land! The land of souls free - born!

No gloom - y night is known there, But aye the fade - less morn:

I'm sigh - ing for that coun - try, My heart is ach - ing here;

There is no pain in the Home-land To which I'm draw-ing near. A-men.

2 My Lord is in the Homeland,
With angels bright and fair;
No sinful thing nor evil,
Can ever enter there;
The music of the ransomed
Is ringing in my ears,
And when I think of the Homeland,
My eyes are wet with tears.

3 For loved ones in the Homeland
Are waiting me to come
Where neither death nor sorrow
Invade their holy home:
O dear, dear native country!
O rest and peace above!
Christ bring us all to the Homeland
Of His eternal love.

ANFIELD 7.6.7.6.D.

Anon.

Brief life is here our por - tion, Brief sor - row, short - liv'd care;

The life that knows no end - ing, The tear - less life is there!

O hap - py ret - ri - bu - tion! Short toil, e - ter - nal rest,

For mor - tals and for sin - ners, A man - sion with the blest! A-men.

2 There grief is turned to pleasure;
Such pleasure as below
No human voice can utter,
No human heart can know;
And after fleshly weakness,
And after this world's night,
And after storm and whirlwind,
Are calm, and joy, and light.

3 And now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown;
And He Whom now we trust in,
Shall then be seen and known,
And they that know and see Him,
Shall have Him for their own.

4 The morning shall awaken,
The shadows flee away,
And each true-hearted servant
Shall shine as doth the day;
For God our King and portion,
In fulness of His grace,
We then shall see for ever,
And worship face to face.

5 O sweet and blessèd country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessèd country
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest;
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

2 Arise, arise, good Christian,
Let right to wrong succeed;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead;
To the light that hath no evening,
That knows nor moon nor sun,
The light so new and golden,
The light that is but one.

3 O happy, holy portion,
Refecation for the blest,
True vision of true beauty,
Sweet cure of all distressed!

Strive, man, to win that glory;
Toil, man, to gain that light;
Send hope before to grasp it,
Till hope be lost in sight.

4 O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect;
O sweet and blessed country
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us

ALFORD 7.6.8.6.7.6.8.6.

Rev. J. B. DYKES, 1875

Ten thou-sand times ten thou-sand In spark-ling rai-ment bright,

The ar-mies of the ran-somed saints Throng up the steep-s of light:

'Tis fin-ish-ed, all is fin-ish-ed, Their fight with death and sin:

Fling o-pen wide the gold-en gates, And let the vic-tors in. A-men.

- 2 What rush of alleluias
Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph high!
O day, for which creation
And all its tribes were made;
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousand fold repaid!
- 3 O then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore;
What knitting severed friendships up,
Where partings are no more!

Then eyes with joy shall sparkle,
That brimmed with tears of late;
Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

- 4 Bring near Thy great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain;
Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power, and reign:
Appear, Desire of nations,
Thine exiles long for home;
Show in the heaven Thy promised sign;
Thou Prince and Saviour, come.

RUTHERFORD 7.6.7.6.7.6.7.5.

CHRÉTIEN D'URHAN, 1834
Har. E. F. RIMBAULT, 1867

The sands of time are sink - ing, The dawn of heav - en breaks,

The sum - mer morn I've sighed for, The fair, sweet morn a - wakes.

Oh! dark hath been the mid - night, But day - spring is at hand,

And glo - ry, glo - ry dwell - eth In Em - man - uel's land. A-men.

2 Oh, Christ, He is the fountain,
The deep, sweet well of love!
The streams of earth I've tasted;
More deep I'll drink above.
There to an ocean fullness
His mercy doth expand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Emmanuel's land.

3 With mercy and with judgment
My web of time He wove,
And aye the dews of sorrow
Were lusted with His love;

I'll bless the hand that guided,
I'll bless the heart that planned
When throned where glory dwelleth
In Emmanuel's land.

4 The bride eyes not her garment,
But her dear bridegroom's face;
I will not gaze at glory,
But on my King of grace;
Not at the crown He giveth,
But on His piercèd hand:
The Lamb is all the glory
Of Emmanuel's land.

Hark! hark, my soul! An - gel - ic songs are swell - ing O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave-beat shore: How sweet the truth those blessed strains are tell - ing
Of that new life when sin shall be no more. An - gels of Je - sus,
An - gels of light, Sing - ing to wel - come the pilgrims of the night! A-men.

2 Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come,"
And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the gospel leads us home.
*Angels of Jesus, Angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night!*

3 Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea;
And laden souls, by thousands meekly stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.

4 Rest comes at length: though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
Faith's journeys end in welcomes to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

O what the joy and the glo - ry must be, Those end - less

Sab-baths the bless-ed ones see; . . . Crown for the val - iant, to wea - ry ones rest; God shall be all, and in all ev - er blest. A-men.

- 2 What are the Monarch, His court, and His throne?
What are the peace and the joy that they own?
Oh, that the blest ones, who in it have share,
All that they feel could as fully declare!
- 3 There, where no troubles distraction can bring,
We the sweet anthems of Zion shall sing;
While for Thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
Thy blessèd people eternally raise,
- 4 There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one evermore;
One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the angels and us shall belong.
- 5 Now, in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh;
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon's strand.

Cit - y of God, how broad and far Out-spread thy walls sub-lime!

The true thy char-tered free-men are Of ev - ery age and clime. A-men.

- 2 One holy Church, one army strong,
One steadfast high intent,
One working band, one harvest-song,
One King omnipotent!
- 4 How gleam thy watchfires through the
With never-fainting ray: [night
How rise thy towers, serene and bright,
To meet the dawning day!
- 3 How purely hath thy speech come down
From man's primeval youth;
How grandly hath thine empire grown
Of freedom, love, and truth!

In vain the drifting sands;
Unharm'd upon the eternal Rock
The eternal city stands.

One ho - ly Church of God ap - pears Thro' ev - 'ry age and race,

Un-wast-ed by the lapse of years, Unchang'd by chang-ing place. A-men.

- 2 From oldest time, on farthest shores,
Beneath the pine or palm,
One Unseen Presence she adores,
With silence, or with psalm.

O, where are kings and em-pires now Of old that went and came?

But, Lord, Thy Church is pray-ing yet, A thou-sand years the same. A-men.

2 We mark her goodly battlements,
And her foundations strong;
We hear within the solemn voice
Of her unending song.

Though earthquake shocks are threatening
And tempests are abroad, [her,

3 For not like kingdoms of the world,
Thy holy Church, O God!

4 Unshaken as eternal hills,
Immovable she stands,
A mountain that shall fill the earth,
A house not made by hands.

Great is the Lord our God, And let His praise be great;

He makes His churches His a-bode, His most de-light-ful seat. A-men.

2 These temples of His grace,
How beautiful they stand,
The honors of our native place,
And bulwarks of our land.

4 Oft have our fathers told,
Our eyes have often seen,
How well our God secures the fold,
Where His own sheep have been.

3 In Zion God is known,
A refuge in distress;
How bright has His salvation shone
Through all her palaces.

5 In every new distress
We'll to His house repair;
We'll think upon His wondrous grace,
And seek deliverance there.

Where two or three for worship meet, That mingle hearts and songs above.
For thither Christ himself resorts, 4 Within these walls may peace abound;

The Church our blest Re - deem-er saved With His own pre-cious blood. A-men.

- 2 I love Thy Church, O God:
Her walls before Thee stand,
Dear as the apple of Thine eye,
And graven on Thy hand.
3 For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end.
4 Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.
5 Jesus, Thou friend divine,
Our Saviour and our King,
Thy hand from every snare and foe
Shall great deliverance bring.
6 Sure as Thy truth shall last,
To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,

Unison

Now rest, ye pil - grim host, Look back up - on your way,

Harmony

The mountains climbed, the tor - rents crossed, Thro' many a wea - ry day.

From this vic - to - rious height, How fair the past ap - pears,

God's grace and glo - ry shin - ing bright On all the by - gone years. A-men.

2 How many, at His call,
Have parted from our throng!
They watch us from the crystal wall,
And echo back our song.
They rest, beyond complaints,
Beyond all sighs and tears:
Praise be to God for all His saints
Who wrought in bygone years.

3 The banners they upbore
Our hands still lift on high;
The Lord they followed evermore
To us is also nigh.
Arise, arise, and tread
The future without fears;
He leadeth still, whose hand hath led Through all the bygone years.

4 When we have reached the home
 We seek with weary feet,
 Our children's children still shall come
 To keep these ranks complete;
 And He, whose host is one
 In all the countless spheres,
 Will guide His marching servants on Through everlasting years.

THE PILGRIM HOST S. M. D. (Second Tune)

W. W. GILCHRIST, 1895

Now rest, ye pil-grim host, . . Look back up - on your way, . .

The first system of musical notation for 'The Pilgrim Host' is in 4/4 time, key of B-flat major. It features a treble and bass staff. The melody is in the treble staff, starting with a quarter note G4, followed by a dotted quarter note A4, a quarter note Bb4, and a quarter note G4. The bass staff provides harmonic support with chords. A triplet of eighth notes (G4, A4, Bb4) appears in the treble staff.

The moun-tains climbed, the tor - rents crossed, Thro' many a wea - ry day. . .

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment. It includes a triplet of eighth notes in the treble staff.

From this vic - to - rious height, How fair the past ap - pears,

How fair the past ap - pears, . .

The third system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment. It includes a triplet of eighth notes in the treble staff.

God's grace and glo - ry shin - ing bright On all the by - gone years. A-men.

The fourth system of musical notation concludes the piece. It includes a triplet of eighth notes in the treble staff.

S. S. WESLEY, 1864

The Church's one foun - da - tion Is Je - sus Christ her Lord;

She is His new cre - a - tion By wa - ter and the word:

From heav'n He came and sought her To be His ho - ly bride;

With His own blood He bought her, And for her life He died. A-men.

2 Elect from every nation,
 Yet one o'er all the earth,
 Her charter of salvation
 One Lord, one faith, one birth;
 One holy name she blesses,
 Partakes one holy food,
 And to one hope she presses,
 With every grace endued.

3 Though with a scornful wonder
 Men see her sore oppressed,
 By schisms rent asunder,
 By heresies distressed,
 Yet saints their watch are keeping,
 Their cry goes up, "How long?"
 And soon the night of weeping
 Shall be the morn of song.

4 'Mid toil and tribulation,
 And tumult of her war,
 She waits the consummation
 Of peace for evermore;
 Till with the vision glorious
 Her longing eyes are blest,
 And the great Church victorious
 Shall be the Church at rest.

5 Yet she on earth hath union
 With God the Three in One,
 And mystic sweet communion
 With those whose rest is won:
 O happy ones and holy!
 Lord, give us grace that we,
 Like them the meek and lowly,
 On high may dwell with Thee.

Lord of the worlds a - bove, How pleas - ant and how fair

The dwell - ings of Thy love, Thine earth - ly tem - ples, are: To Thine a - bode my heart as-pires, With warm de - sires to see my God. A-men.

2 O happy souls that pray
Where God appoints to hear!
O happy men that pay
Their constant service there!
They praise Thee still; and happy they
That love the way to Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength,
Through this dark vale of tears,
Till each arrives at length,
Till each in heaven appears:
O glorious seat, when God, our King,
Shall thither bring our willing feet!

4 God is our sun and shield,
Our light and our defence;
With gifts His hands are filled;
We draw our blessings thence.
Thrice happy he, O God of hosts,
Whose spirit trusts alone in Thee.

We love the place, O God, Where - in Thine hon - or dwells;
The joy of Thine a - bode All earth - ly joy ex - cels. A-men.

2 It is the house of prayer,
Wherein Thy servants meet;
And Thou, O Lord, art there
Thy chosen flock to greet.

4 We love to sing below
For mercies freely given;
But O! we long to know
The triumph-song of Heaven.

3 We love the Word of Life,
The Word that tells of peace,
Of comfort in the strife,
And joys that never cease.

5 Lord Jesus, give us grace
On earth to love Thee more,
In Heaven to see Thy face,
And with Thy saints adore.

Zi - on stands by hills sur-round-ed, Zi - on kept by pow'r di - vine:
All her foes shall be con-found-ed, Though the world in arms com-bine.

Hap - py Zi - on! What a fa - vored lot is thine! A-men.

2 Every human tie may perish;
 Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
 Mothers cease their own to cherish;
 Heaven and earth at last remove;
 But no changes
 Can attend Jehovah's love.

3 In the furnace God may prove thee,
 Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
 But can never cease to love thee;
 Thou art precious in His sight:
 God is with thee,
 God thine everlasting light.

Christ is made the sure foun - da - tion, And the pre - cious cor - ner - stone,

Ho - ly Si - on's help for - ev - er, And her con - fi - dence a - lone. A-men.

2 All that dedicated city,
 Dearly loved by God on high,
 In exultant jubilation
 Pours perpetual melody;
 God the One in Three adoring,
 Singing everlastingly.

3 To this temple, where we call Thee,
 Come, O Lord of Hosts, to-day:
 With Thy wonted loving-kindness,

Hear Thy people, as they pray,
 And Thy fullest benediction
 Shed within its walls alway.

4 Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants
 What they supplicate to gain,
 Here to have and hold forever
 Those good things their prayers obtain;
 And hereafter in Thy glory
 With Thy blessed ones to reign.

Latin (8th century). Tr. Rev. J. M. NEALE, 1851

Glo-rious things of thee are spo-ken, Zi - on, cit - y of our God;

He whose word can - not be bro-ken Formed thee for His own a - bode:

On the Rock of A - ges found-ed, What can shake thy sure re-pose?

With sal-va-tion's walls sur-rounded, Thou mayst smile at all thy foes. A-men

2 See, the streams of living waters,
 Springing from eternal love,
 Well supply thy sons and daughters,
 And all fear of want remove:
 Who can faint, when such a river
 Ever will their thirst assuage;
 Grace, which, like the Lord the Giver,
 Never fails from age to age?

3 Round each habitation hovering,
 See the cloud and fire appear
 For a glory and a covering,
 Showing that the Lord is near:
 Thus deriving from their banner
 Light by night, and shade by day,
 Safe they feed upon the manna
 Which He gives them when they pray

4 Saviour, if of Zion's city
 I, through grace, a member am,
 Let the world deride or pity,
 I will glory in Thy name:
 Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
 All his boasted pomp and show;
 Solid joys and lasting treasure
 None but Zion's children know.

In loud ex - alt - ed strains, The King of glo - ry praise;

O'er heav'n and earth He reigns, . Thro' ev - er - last - ing days; .

But Si - on, with His pres - ence blest, Is His de - light, His chos - en rest,

Is His de - light, His chos - en rest. A - men.

Small notes to be played by the Organ

2 O King of glory, come;
And with Thy favor crown
This temple as Thy home,
This people as Thy own;
Beneath this roof vouchsafe to show
How God can dwell with men below.

3 Now let Thine ear attend
Our supplicating cries;
Now let our praise ascend,
Accepted, to the skies:
Now let Thy Gospel's joyful sound
Spread its celestial influence round.

4 Here may the listening throng
Imbibe Thy truth and love;
Here Christians join the song
Of seraphim above:
Till all who humbly seek Thy face
Rejoice in Thy abounding grace.

2 Lord, from Thine inmost glory send,
Within these walls t' abide,
The peace that dwelleth without end
Serenely by Thy side.

And they who mourn, and they who fear
Be strengthened as they pray.

3 May erring minds, that worship here,
Be taught the better way;

4 May faith grow firm, and love grow warm
And pure devotion rise,
While, round these hallowed walls, the storm
Of earth-born passion dies.

O Lord of hosts, whose glo - ry fills The bounds of the e - ter - nal hills,
And yet vouchsafes, in Christian lands, To dwell in temples made with hands. A-men.

- 2 Grant that all we, who here to-day
Rejoicing this foundation lay,
May be in very deed Thine own,
Built on the precious corner-stone.
- 3 Endue the creatures with Thy grace
That shall adorn Thy dwelling-place;
The beauty of the oak and pine,
The gold and silver, make them Thine.
- 4 To Thee they all belong; to Thee
The treasures of the earth and sea;

- And when we bring them to Thy throne
We but present Thee with Thine own.
- 5 Endue the hearts that guide with skill,
Preserve the hands that work from ill;
That we, who these foundations lay,
May raise the top-stone in its day.
- 6 Both now and ever, Lord, protect
The temple of Thine own elect;
Be Thou in them, and they in Thee,
O ever-blessèd Trinity.

Found-ed on Thee, our on - ly Lord, On Thee, the ev - er - last - ing Rock, Thy church shall stand, as stands Thy word, Nor fear the storm, nor dread the shock. A-men.

- 2 For Thee our waiting spirits yearn,
For Thee this house of praise we rear;
To Thee with longing hearts we turn:
Come, fix Thy glorious presence here.
- 3 Come, with Thy Spirit and Thy power,
The Conqueror, once the Crucified;

- Our God, our strength, our king, our tower,
Here plant Thy throne, and here abide.

Accept, O God, this earthly shrine;
Be Thou our rock, our life, our thought,

Our humble work pro-pi-tious own, As now we lay this cor-ner-stone. A-men.

- 2 Except the Lord the house do build,
 Except with grace the work be filled,
 All labor's vain. O, Christ, impart
 Thy loving spirit to each heart:
 By Thee, to Thee, on Thee alone,
 We build, Thou fairest Corner-Stone!
- 3 Here may the truth and right grow strong,
 Here love prevail Thy saints among,
 Here sinners feel Thy quickening grace,
 And seek with hasting joy Thy face;
 And thousands gladly make Thee known
 As their eternal Corner-Stone.

- 4 Build Thou the walls! Make them so glow
 With glory, we on earth below
 The eternal splendors shall foresee;
 Grandeur than Salem's may they be,
 All luminous with grace Thine own,
 From topmost peak to corner-stone!

And thus proclaim in joyful song

Both loud and long that glorious name.

3 Here, gracious God, do Thou

For evermore draw nigh;

Accept each faithful vow,

And mark each suppliant sigh;

In copious shower on all who pray

Each holy day Thy blessings pour!

4 Here may we gain from Heaven

The grace which we implore;

And may that grace, once given,

Be with us evermore,

Until that day when all the blest

To endless rest are called away!

2 See round Thine ark the hungry billows curling,
See how Thy foes their banners are unfurling;
Lord, while their darts envenomed they are hurling,
Thou canst preserve us.

3 Lord, Thou canst help when earthly armor faileth,
Lord, Thou canst save when deadly sin assaileth,
Lord, o'er Thy Rock nor death nor hell prevaieth,
Grant us Thy peace, Lord.

4 Peace in our hearts our evil thoughts assuaging,
Peace in Thy Church, where brothers are engaging,
Peace, when the world its busy war is waging;
Send us, O Saviour.

5 Grant us Thy help till foes are backward driven,
Grant them Thy truth, that they may be forgiven,
Grant peace on earth, and, after we have striven,
Peace in Thy Heaven.

How beau-teous are their feet Who stand on Zi-on's hill,
Who bring sal-va-tion on their tongues, And words of peace re-veal! A-men.

How sweet the tidings are!
"Zion, behold thy Saviour King;

3 How happy are our ears
That hear this joyful sound,

And sought, but never found!
4 How blessèd are our eyes
That see this heavenly light!

- Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.
5 The watchmen join their voice,

Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
While we uphold thy hands with prayer.
- 3 Come as a watchman: take thy stand

Bow down Thine ear, Al-might-y Lord, And hear Thy Church's sup-pliant cry

For all who preach Thy sav-ing word, And wait up-on Thy min-is-try. A-men.

- 2 In mercy, Father, now give heed,
And pour Thy quickening Spirit's breath
On those whom Thou hast called to feed
Thy flock redeemed by Jesus' death.
- 4 Blest Spirit, in their hearts abide,
And give them grace to watch and pray;
That, as they seek Thy flock to guide,
Themselves may keep the narrow way.
- 3 O Saviour, from Thy pierc'd hand
Shed o'er them all Thy gifts divine;
That those who in Thy presence stand
May do Thy will with love like Thine.

Let this in-fant find a place In Thy cov-e-nant of grace. A-men.

- 2 Son of God! be with us here;
Listen to our humble prayer;
Let Thy blood on Calvary spilt,
Cleanse this child from nature's guilt.

Thine almighty power display;
Seal it to redemption's day.

- 3 Holy Ghost! to Thee we cry:
Thou this infant sanctify;

- 4 Great Jehovah! — Father, Son,
Holy Spirit — Three in One,
Let the blessing come from Thee;
Thine shall all the glory be!

Rev. BENJAMIN GURST, 1835

Bless-ed Je-sus, here we stand, Met to do as Thou hast spo-ken;

And this child, at Thy com-mand, Now we bring to Thee in to-ken

That to Christ it here is giv-en, For of such shall be His heav-en. A-men.

2 Therefore hasten we to Thee;
Take the pledge we bring, O take it;
Let us here Thy glory see,
And in tender pity make it
Now Thy child, and leave it never—
Thine on earth, and Thine for ever.

3 Now upon Thy heart it lies,
What our hearts so dearly treasure;
Heavenward lead our burdened sighs;
Pour Thy blessing without measure;
Write the name we now have given,
Write it in the book of heaven.

In to - ken that thou shalt not fear Christ cru - ci - fied to own,

We print the cross up - on thee here, And stamp thee His a - lone. A-men.

2 In token that thou shalt not blush
To glory in His name,
We blazon here upon thy front
His glory and His shame.

Endure the cross, despise the shame,
And sit thee down on high;

3 In token that thou too shalt tread
The path He travelled by,

4 Thus outwardly and visibly
We seal thee for His own:
And may the brow that wears His cross
Hereafter share His crown.

Or there Thy conflict see,
Thine agony and bloody sweat,
And not remember Thee?

5 Remember Thee, and all Thy pains,
And all Thy love to me:
Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
Will I remember Thee.

2 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With fervent prayer;
The wayward and the lost,
By restless passions tossed,
Redeemed at countless cost,
From dark despair.

3 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With one accord;
With us the work to share,
With us reproach to dare,
With us the cross to bear,
For Christ our God.

4 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With joyful song;
The new-born souls, whose days,
Reclaimed from error's ways,
Inspired with hope and praise,
To Christ belong.

 A nation in a day.

3 Blest river of salvation,
 Pursue thy onward way;
 Flow thou to every nation,
 Nor in thy richness stay:
 Stay not till all the lowly
 Triumphant reach their home;
 Stay not till all the holy Proclaim, "The Lord is come."

From Green-land's i - cy moun-tains, From In - dia's cor - al strand,

Where Af - ric's sun - ny foun - tains Roll down their gold - en sand,

From many an an - cient riv - er, From many a palm-y plain,

They call us to de - liv - er Their land from er - ror's chain. A-men.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile:
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen in his blindness
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?

Salvation! O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till like a sea of glory
It spreads from pole to pole;
Till o'er our ransomed nature
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

GREENLAND 7.6.7.6.D.

Lausanne Psalter, 1790

Hail to the Lord's a - noint - ed, Great Da - vid's great - er Son!

Hail, in the time ap - point - ed, His reign on earth be - gun!

He comes to break op - pres - sion, To set the cap - tive free,

To take a - way trans-gres - sion, And rule in e - qui - ty. A-men.

2 He comes with succor speedy
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls condemned and dying,
Were precious in His sight.

3 He shall come down like showers,
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love and joy, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth:
Before Him on the mountains
Shall peace, the herald, go;
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

4 For Him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing
A kingdom without end:
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His name shall stand forever,
That name to us is Love.

Watch-man, tell us of the night, What its signs of prom - ise are:

Trav - 'ler, o'er yon moun-tain's height, See that glo - ry - beam - ing star;

Watch-man, doth its beau-teous ray Aught of joy or hope fore - tell?

Trav - 'ler, yes; it brings the day, Prom-ised day of Is - ra - el. A-men.

2 Watchman, tell us of the night;
Higher yet that star ascends:
Traveler, blessedness and light,
Peace and truth, its course portends.
Watchman, will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Traveler, ages are its own,
See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn:
Traveler, darkness takes its flight,
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
Watchman, let thy wanderings cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home:
Traveler, lo, the Prince of Peace,
Lo, the Son of God is come.

Hark! the song of ju - bi - lee, Loud as might - y thun - ders roar,

Or the ful - ness of the sea, When it breaks up - on the shore:

Al - le - lu - ia! for the Lord God om - nip - o - tent shall reign;

Al - le - lu - ia! let the word Ech - o round the earth and main. A-men.

2 Alleluia! hark, the sound,
 From the center to the skies,
 Wakes above, beneath, around,
 All creation's harmonies.
 See Jehovah's banners furled,
 Sheathed His sword: He speaks; 'tis done,
 And the kingdoms of this world
 Are the kingdoms of His Son.

3 He shall reign from pole to pole
 With illimitable sway;
 He shall reign, when, like a scroll
 Yonder heavens have passed away,
 Then the end; beneath His rod
 Man's last enemy shall fall:
 Alleluia! Christ in God,
 God in Christ, is All in all.

On the mountain's top ap - pear-ing, Lo! the sa-cred her - ald stands,

Wel-come news to Zi - on bear-ing, Zi - on long in hos - tile lands.

Mourn-ing cap - tive, God Him - self will loose thy bands. A-men.

2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
 Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
 Have thy foes been proud and scornful,
 By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
 Cease thy mourning,
 Zion still is well beloved.

3 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
 He Himself appears thy friend;
 All thy foes shall flee before thee;
 Here their boasts and triumphs end:
 Great deliverance
 Zion's King vouchsafes to send.

4 Enemies no more shall trouble,
 All thy wrongs shall be redressed;
 For thy shame thou shalt have double,
 In thy Maker's favor blessed;
 All thy conflicts
 End in everlasting rest.

2 Tidings, sent to every creature,
 Millions yet have never heard:
 Can they hear without a preacher?
 Lord Almighty, give the word!
 Give the word! in every nation
 Let the Gospel trumpet sound,
 Witnessing a world's salvation,
 To the earth's remotest bound.

3 Then the end! Thy church completed,
 All Thy chosen gathered in,
 With their King in glory seated,
 Satan bound, and banished sin;
 Gone for ever parting, weeping,
 Hunger, sorrow, death, and pain;
 Lo! her watch Thy church is keeping;
 Come, Lord Jesus, come to reign!

Saints of God! the dawn is bright'ning, To-ken of our com-ing Lord;

O'er the earth the field is whit'ning; Loud-er rings the Mas-ter's word:

Pray for reap-ers, Pray for reap-ers In the har-vest of the Lord! A-men.

2 Now, O Lord, fulfil Thy pleasure,
Breathe upon Thy chosen band,
And, with Pentecostal measure,
Send forth reapers o'er our land;
Faithful reapers
Gathering sheaves for Thy right hand.

3 Broad the shadow of our nation,
Eager millions hither roam;
Lo! they wait for Thy salvation;
Come, Lord Jesus! quickly come!
By Thy Spirit
Bring Thy ransomed people home

4 Soon shall end the time of weeping,
Soon the reaping time will come;
Heaven and earth together keeping
God's eternal Harvest-home.
Saints and angels
Shout the world's great Harvest home.

J. BARNEY, 1886

Speed Thy ser-vants, Sav-iour, speed them; Thou art Lord of winds and waves;

They were bound, but Thou hast freed them; Now they go to free the slaves;

Be Thou with them, 'Tis Thine arm a-lone that saves. A-men.

Friends and home and all forsaking,
Lord, they go at Thy command,
As their stay Thy promise taking,
While they traverse sea and land:
O be with them!
Lead them safely by the hand.

4 Where no fruit appears to cheer them,
And they seem to toil in vain;
Then in mercy, Lord, draw near them,
Then their sinking hopes sustain:
Thus supported,
Let their zeal revive again.

When they reach the land of strangers,
And the prospect dark appears,
Nothing seen but toils and dangers,
Nothing felt but doubts and fears,
Be Thou with them;
Hear their sighs, and count their tears.

5 In the midst of opposition,
Let them trust, O Lord, in Thee;
When success attends their mission,
Let Thy servants humbler be;
Never leave them,
Till Thy face in heaven they see:

6 There to reap in joy for ever
Fruit that grows from seed here sown;
There to be with Him, Who never Ceases to preserve His own;
And with gladness
Give the praise to Him alone.

Thee they seek as God of heaven,
Thee as Man for sinners slain.

5 Saviour, lo! the isles are waiting!
Stretched the hand and strained the sight
For Thy Spirit, new creating,
Love's pure flame, and wisdom's light.

Sol-diers of the cross, a - rise, Gird you with your ar - mor bright;

Might-y are your en - e - mies, Hard the bat-tle ye must fight. A-men.

O'er a faithless fallen world
 Raise your banner in the sky;
 Let it float there wide unfurled;
 Bear it onward; lift it high.

'Mid the homes of want and woe,
 Strangers to the living word,
 Let the Saviour's herald go,
 Let the voice of hope be heard.

Where the shadows deepest lie,
 Carry truth's unsullied ray;
 Where are crimes of blackest dye,
 There the saving sign display.

5 To the weary and the worn
 Tell of realms where sorrows cease;
 To the outcast and forlorn
 Speak of mercy and of peace.

6 Guard the helpless; seek the strayed;
 Comfort troubles; banish grief;
 In the might of God arrayed,
 Scatter sin and unbelief.

7 Be the banner still unfurled,
 Still unsheathed the Spirit's sword,
 Till the kingdoms of the world
 Are the kingdom of the Lord.

HARVEST 10. 10. 7.

C. J. FROST, 1889

- 2 Sweet is the soul's thanksgiving after prayer;
Sweet is the worship that with heaven we share,
Who sing the Alleluia!
- 3 To Thee, O Lord of harvest, Who hast heard,
And to Thy white-robed reapers given the word,
We sing our Alleluia.
- 4 O Christ, Who in the wide world's ghostly sea
Hast bid the net be cast anew, to Thee
We sing our Alleluia.
- 5 To Thee, Eternal Spirit, Who again
Hast moved with life upon the slumbrous main,
We sing our Alleluia.
- 6 Yea, west and east the companies go forth:
"We come!" is sounding to the south and north:
To God sing Alleluia.
- 7 The fishermen of Jesus far away
Seek in new waters an immortal prey:
To Christ sing Alleluia.
- 8 The Holy Dove is brooding o'er the deep,
And careless hearts are waking out of sleep;
To Him sing Alleluia.
- 9 Yea, for sweet hope new-born—blest work begun—
Sing Alleluia to the Three in One,
Adoring Alleluia.
- 10 Glory to God! the church in patience cries;
Glory to God! the church at rest replies,
With endless Alleluia.

lands that in darkness have lain! Hushed be the ac-cents of sor-row and mourn-ing, Zi-on in tri-umph be-gins her mild reign. A-men.

- 2 Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning,
Long by the prophets of Israel foretold;
Hail to the millions from bondage returning!
Gentiles and Jews the blest vision behold.
- 3 Lo, in the desert rich flowers are springing,
Streams ever copious are gliding along;
Loud from the mountain-tops echoes are ringing,
Wastes rise in verdure and mingle in song.
- 4 See, from all lands, from the isles of the ocean,
Praise to Jehovah ascending on high;
Fallen are the engines of war and commotion,
Shouts of salvation are rending the sky.

2 Hosts of the Lord, go forth;
 Go, strong in the power of His rest,
 Till the south be at one with the north,

 With the gladness of God's good will,
 Hosts of the Lord, go forth.

 To the glory of Christ the King
 Come, as of old, like fire.

Lord of harvest, grant that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;

Give His angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.

4 Even so, Lord, quickly come
To Thy final harvest home;
Gather Thou Thy people in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin;
There for ever purified,
In Thy presence to abide:
Come, with all Thine angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest home.

The God of harvest praise, In loud thanksgivings raise Hand, heart, and voice;

The val - leys laugh and sing, For - ests and moun - tains ring,

The plains their trib - ute bring, The streams re - joice. A-men.

Copyright, 1905, by JOHN B. PRATT

2 Yea, bless His holy name,
And joyous thanks proclaim
Through all the earth;
To glory in your lot
Is comely; but be not God's benefits forgot
Amidst your mirth.

3 The God of harvest praise;
Hands, hearts, and voices raise
With one accord;
From field to garner throng,
Bearing your sheaves along,
And in your harvest song
Bless ye the Lord.

JAMES MONTGOMERY, 1825

KEMSING 9.8.9.8.

J. W. ELLIOTT

2 For grasses of upland and lowland,
For fruits of the garden and field,
For gold which the mine and the furrow
To delver and husbandman yield.

3 And thanks for the harvest of beauty,
For that which the hands cannot hold,
The harvest eyes only can gather,
And only our hearts can enfold.

4 We reap it on mountain and moorland;
We glean it from meadow and lea;
We garner it in from the cloudland;
We bind it in sheaves from the sea.

5 But the song it goes deeper and higher;
There are harvests that eye cannot see;
They ripen on mountains of duty,
Are reaped by the brave and the free.

6 And these have been gathered and garnered,
Some golden with honor and gain,
And some, as with heart's blood, are ruddy,
The harvests of sorrow and pain.

7 O Thou who art Lord of the harvest,
The Giver who gladdens our days,
Our hearts are for ever repeating
Thanksgiving and honor and praise.

He sends the snow in win - ter, The warmth to swell the grain,

The breez - es and the sun - shine, And soft re-fresh - ing rain.

All good gifts a - round us Are sent from heav'n a - bove;

Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord For all . . His love. A-men.

2 He only is the Maker

Of all things near and far;
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey Him,
By Him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, His children,
He gives our daily bread.
All good gifts, etc.

3 We thank Thee, then, O Father,

For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food,
No gifts have we to offer,
For all Thy love imparts,
But that which Thou desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.
All good gifts, etc.

To Thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise In hymns of ad - o - ra - tion,

To Thee bring sac - ri - fice of praise With shouts of ex - ul - ta - tion:

Bright robes of gold the fields a - dorn, The hills with joy are ring - ing,

The val - leys stand so thick with corn That e - ven they are sing - ing. A-men.

2 And now, on this our festal day,
Thy bounteous hand confessing,
Upon Thine altar, Lord, we lay
The first-fruits of Thy blessing:
By Thee the souls of men are fed
With gifts of grace supernal;
Thou Who dost give us daily bread,
Give us the bread eternal.

May we, the angel-reaping o'er,
Stand at the last accepted.
Christ's golden sheaves for evermore
To garner bright elected.

3 We bear the burden of the day,
And often toil seems dreary;
But labor ends with sunset ray,
And rest is for the weary:

4 O blessèd is that land of God,
Where saints abide for ever,
Where golden fields spread fair and broad,
Where flows the crystal river:
The strains of all its holy throng
With ours to-day are blending;
Thrice blessèd is that harvest-song
Which never hath an ending.

O God, beneath Thy guid - ing hand Our ex - iled fa - thers cross'd the sea;

And when they trod the wintry strand, With pray'r and psalm they worshipp'd Thee. A-men.

2 Thou heard'st, well pleased, the song, And where their pilgrim feet have trod, the prayer: The God they trusted guards their graves.

Thy blessing came; and still its power
Shall onward, through all ages, bear
The memory of that holy hour.

4 And here Thy name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove,
And spring adorns the earth no more.

O Lord of hosts, Al-might-y King, Be-hold the sac - ri - fice we bring:

To ev-'ry arm Thy strength impart; Thy Spir-it shed thro' ev-'ry heart. A-men.

2 Wake in our breasts the living fires,
The holy faith that warmed our sires:
Thy hand hath made our nation free;
To die for her is serving Thee.

4 God of all nations, sovereign Lord,
In Thy dread name we draw the sword,
We lift the starry flag on high
That fills with light our stormy sky.

3 Be Thou a pillared flame to show
The midnight snare, the silent foe;
And when the battle thunders loud,
Still guide us in its moving cloud.

5 From treason's rent, from murder's stain,
Guard Thou its folds till peace shall reign,
Till fort and field, till shore and sea,
Join our loud anthem,—Praise to Thee.

2 O Christ, for Thine own glory,
And for our country's weal,
We humbly plead before Thee,
Thyself in us reveal;
And may we know, Lord Jesus,
The touch of Thy dear hand,
And, healed of our diseases,
The tempter's power withstand.

3 Where error smites with blindness,
Enslaves and leads astray,
Do Thou in loving-kindness
Proclaim Thy gospel day,

Till all the tribes and races
That dwell in this fair land,
Adorned with Christian graces,
Within Thy courts shall stand.

4 Our Saviour King, defend us,
And guide where we should go;
Forth with Thy message send us,
Thy love and light to show,
Till, fired with true devotion
Enkindled by Thy word,
From ocean unto ocean
Our land shall own Thee Lord.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God, to Thee,

- 2 Can a child presume to choose
Where or how to live?
Can a Father's love refuse
All the best to give?
More Thou givest every day

Nor withholdest aught that may
Glorify Thy name.

- 3 If in mercy Thou wilt spare
Joys that yet are mine;
If on life, serene and fair,
Brighter rays may shine, —

Let my glad heart, while it sings,
Thee in all proclaim,
And, whate'er the future brings,
Glorify Thy name.

- 4 If Thou callest to the cross,
And its shadow come,
Turning all my gain to loss,
Shrouding heart and home, —
Let me think how Thy dear Son
To His glory came,
And in deepest woe pray on;
"Glorify Thy name."

 On the cross for sinners shown,

 Sure of being safely guided,
 Guarded well from every foe.

3 Every day will be the brighter
 When Thy gracious face we see;
 Every burden will be lighter
 When we know it comes from Thee
 Spread Thy love's broad banner o'er us
 Give us strength to serve and wait,

Mercies new and never-failing
 Brightly shine through all the past,
 Watchful care and loving-kindness
 Always near from first to last,
 Tender love, divine protection
 Ever with us day and night;
 Blessings more than we can number
 Strow the path with golden light.

Shadows deep have crossed our pathway;
 We have trembled in the storm;
 Clouds have gathered round so darkly
 That we could not see Thy form;

Yet Thy love hath never left us
 In our griefs alone to be,
 And the help each gave the other
 Was the strength that came from Thee.

4 Many that we loved have left us,
 Reaching first their journey's end;
 Now they wait to give us welcome,
 Brother, sister, child, and friend.
 When at last our journey's over,
 And we pass away from sight,
 Father, take us through the darkness
 Into everlasting light.

Chants and Responses

Directions for Chanting

The vertical dividing-lines in the words for chanting represent those bars in the music that follow the reciting notes. The recitation ends and the rhythmic part of the chant begins with the accented syllable, which is to be considered as having the first of the two counts of a full measure preceding the printed measures of the cadence.

If no other word or syllable comes between the accent and the following bar, then the accented syllable must be held through both beats or counts of this preliminary measure.

If only one short syllable comes between the accent and the bar, this can usually be taken as the second half of the second beat of the preliminary measure.

For example, beginning on the accented syllable to count two beats :

1	2	1	2
come let us	sing	unto	the	Lord.
1	2	1	2	1
et us heartily	rejoice	in the	strength of	our Sal- vation.

Preface

IN the selection and arrangement of these Responsive Readings the Revised Version has been used with the exception that in a few psalms, where the new rendering changes familiar passages, certain words and expressions, that have become endeared by years of use, are retained unchanged.

The psalms have been arranged in parallelism and with a view to unity of thought.

Long selections have been avoided and the last response of each reading has been given to the congregation.

Imprecatory psalms and passages have been omitted and there has been the constant endeavor to make selections that can be appropriated and heartily used in public worship as expressions of personal praise and prayer and thanksgiving.

The Beatitudes

(Matt. 5, 3-12)

Blessed are the poor in spirit : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn : for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek : for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness : for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful : for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart : for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers : for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice and be exceeding glad : for great is your reward in heaven : for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

A General Confession

Almighty and most merciful Father; we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy name. Amen.

A General Thanksgiving

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Psalter.

SELECTION 1

PSALMS 84, 24

1 How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord;

3 My heart and my flesh cry out unto the living God.

4 Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young,

5 Even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God.

6 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.

7 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the high ways to Zion.

8 Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a place of springs;

9 Yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.

10 They go from strength to strength, every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.

11 O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob.

12 Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

13 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

14 I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

15 For the Lord God is a sun and a shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

16 O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

17 The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof; the world and they that dwell therein.

18 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

19 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in his holy place?

20 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto falsehood, and hath not sworn deceitfully.

21 He shall receive a blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

22 This is the generation of them that seek after him, that seek thy face, O God of Jacob.

23 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors:

24 And the King of glory shall come in.

25 Who is the King of glory?

26 The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

27 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; yea, lift them up, ye everlasting doors:

28 And the King of glory shall come in.

29 Who is this King of glory?

30 The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

SELECTION 2

PSALMS 122, 27

1 I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go unto the house of the Lord.

2 Our feet are standing within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem, that art builded as a city that is compact together:

4 Whither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord,

5 For a testimony unto Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

6 For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

7 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

8 Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

9 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

10 For the sake of the house of the Lord our God I will seek thy good.

11 The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?

12 The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

13 When evil-doers came upon me to eat up my flesh, even mine adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.

14 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear:

15 Though war should rise against me, even then will I be confident.

16 One thing have I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

17 To behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

18 For in the day of trouble he shall keep me secretly in his pavilion: in the covert of his tabernacle shall he hide me.

19 He shall lift me up upon a rock. And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me; and I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy;

20 I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

21 Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

22 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

23 Hide not thy face from me; put not thy servant away in anger.

24 Thou hast been my help; cast me not off, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

25 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up.

26 Teach me thy way, O Lord; and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

27 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine adversaries: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

28 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

29 Wait for the Lord: be strong, and let thine heart take courage.

30 Yea, wait thou for the Lord.

SELECTION 3

PSALM 19.

1 The heavens declare the glory of God;

2 And the firmament showeth his handiwork.

3 Day unto day uttereth speech,

4 And night unto night showeth knowledge.

5 There is no speech nor language;

6 Their voice cannot be heard.

7 Their line is gone out through all the earth;

8 And their words to the end of the world.

9 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

10 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.

11 His going forth is from the end of the heavens, and his circuit unto the ends of it;

12 And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

13 The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul:

14 The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

15 The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart:

16 The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

17 The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever:

18 The ordinances of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

19 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold:

20 Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

21 Moreover by them is thy servant warned:

22 In keeping them there is great reward.

23 Who can discern his errors?

24 Clear thou me from hidden faults.

25 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me:

26 Then shall I be perfect, and I shall be clear from great transgression.

27 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight,

28 Oh Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

SELECTION 4

PSALMS I, 15, 112

1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked,

2 Nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful;

3 But his delight is in the law of the Lord;

4 And on his law doth he meditate day and night.

5 And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water,

6 That bringeth forth its fruit in its season,

7 Whose leaf also doth not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

8 The wicked are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

9 Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment,

10 Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

11 For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous;

12 But the way of the wicked shall perish.

13 Lord, who shall sojourn in thy tabernacle? Who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

14 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh truth in his heart;

15 He that slandereth not with his tongue,

16 Nor doeth evil to his friend, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor;

17 In whose eyes a reprobate is despised, but who honoreth them that fear the Lord;

18 He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not;

19 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent.

20 He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

21 Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord,

22 That delighteth greatly in his commandments.

23 His seed shall be mighty upon earth:

24 The generation of the upright shall be blessed.

25 Wealth and riches are in his house; and his righteousness endureth for ever.

26 Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

27 Well is it with the man that dealeth graciously and lendeth; he shall maintain his cause in judgment.

28 For he shall never be moved; the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.

29 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the Lord.

30 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid.

SELECTION 5

PSALMS 95, 1-7, 96

1 O come, let us sing unto the Lord:

2 Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

3 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving;

4 Let us make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

5 For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

6 In his hand are the deep places of the earth;

7 The heights of the mountains are his also.

8 The sea is his and he made it; and his hands formed the dry land.

9 O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

10 For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

11 O sing unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord, all the earth.

12 Sing unto the Lord, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

13 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples.

14 For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

15 For all the gods of the peoples are idols; but the Lord made the heavens.

16 Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

17 Give unto the Lord, ye kinreds of the peoples, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

18 Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

19 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

20 Say among the nations, the Lord reigneth:

21 The world also is stablished that it cannot be moved: he shall judge the peoples with equity.

22 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;

23 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;

24 Let the field exult, and all that is therein; then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy before the Lord.

25 For he cometh; for he cometh to judge the earth:

26 He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with his truth.

SELECTION 6

PSALMS 100, 36, 5-9, 8

1 Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.

2 Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and we are his;

4 We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

5 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise:

6 Give thanks unto him, and bless his name.

7 For the Lord is good; his mercy endureth forever; and his faithfulness unto all generations.

8 Thy lovingkindness, O Lord, is in the heavens; thy faithfulness reacheth unto the skies.

9 Thy righteousness is like the mountains of God;

10 Thy judgments are a great deep: O Lord, thou preservest man and beast.

11 How precious is thy lovingkindness, O God!

12 And the children of men take refuge under the shadow of thy wings.

13 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house;

14 And thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

15 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

16 O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! Who hast set thy glory upon the heavens.

17 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established strength, because of thine adversaries,

18 That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

19 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

20 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? And the son of man, that thou visitest him?

21 For thou hast made him but little lower than God, and crownest him with glory and honour.

22 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

23 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

24 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea,

25 Whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

26 O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

SELECTION 7

PSALMS 148, 150

1 Praise ye the Lord. Praise ye the Lord from the heavens.

2 Praise him in the heights.

3 Praise ye him, all his angels:

4 Praise ye him, all his host.

5 Praise ye him, sun and moon:

6 Praise him, all ye stars of light.

7 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.

8 Let them praise the name of the Lord; for he commanded, and they were created.

9 He hath also established them
for ever and ever:

10 He hath made a decree which shall not pass away.

11 Praise the Lord from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps;

12 Fire and hail, snow and vapor;
stormy wind, fulfilling his word;

13 Mountains and all hills; fruitful trees and all cedars;

14 Beasts and all cattle; creeping things and flying fowl;

15 Kings of the earth and all peoples; princes and all judges of the earth;

16 Both young men and maidens;
old men and children:

17 Let them praise the name of the Lord;

18 For his name alone is exalted; his glory is above the earth and heaven.

19 And he hath lifted up the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints;

20 Even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye
the Lord.

21 Praise ye the Lord. Praise
God in his sanctuary:

22 Praise him in the firmament of his power.

23 Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

24 Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

SELECTION 8

PSALMS 97, 98

1 The Lord reigneth; let the earth rejoice;

2 Let the multitude of isles be glad.

3 Clouds and darkness are round about him:

4 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

5 The heavens declare his righteousness,

6 And all the peoples have seen his glory.

7 Ashamed be all they that serve graven images,

8 That boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye gods.

9 Zion heard and was glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoiced, because of thy judgments, O Lord.

10 For thou, Lord, art most high above all the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.

11 O ye that love the Lord, hate evil:

12 He preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

13 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

14 Be glad in the Lord, ye righteous; and give thanks to his holy name.

15 O sing unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvellous things:

16 His right hand, and his holy arm hath wrought salvation for him.

17 The Lord hath made known his salvation:

18 His righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the nations.

19 He hath remembered his mercy and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel:

20 All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

21 Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth:

22 Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises.

23 Sing praises unto the Lord with the harp: with the harp and the voice of melody.

24 With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the Lord, the King.

25 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;

26 The world, and they that dwell therein;

27 Let the floods clap their hands;

28 Let the hills sing for joy together before the Lord.

29 For he cometh to judge the earth;

30 He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

SELECTION 9

PSALMS 92, 111

1 It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord,

2 And to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High;

3 To show forth thy lovingkindness in the morning,

4 And thy faithfulness every night;

5 With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery;

6 With a solemn sound upon the harp.

7 For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work:

8 I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

9 How great are thy works, O Lord! Thy thoughts are very deep.

10 A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

11 When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish;

12 It is that they shall be destroyed for ever.

13 The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree:

14 He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

15 They that are planted in the house of the Lord;

16 Shall flourish in the courts of our God.

17 Praise ye the Lord. I will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart, 18 In the council of the upright, and in the congregation.

19 The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

20 His work is honour and majesty: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

21 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered:

22 The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

23 He hath given food unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

24 He hath showed his people the power of his works, in giving them the heritage of the nations.

25 The works of his hands are truth and judgment; all his precepts are sure.

26 They are established for ever and ever, they are done in truth and uprightness.

27 He hath sent redemption unto his people; he hath commanded his covenant for ever:

28 Holy and reverend is his name.

29 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;

30 A good understanding have all they that do his commandments; his praise endureth for ever.

SELECTION 10

PSALM 147

1 Praise ye the Lord; for it is good to sing praises unto our God;

2 For it is pleasant, and praise is comely.

3 The Lord doth build up Jerusalem; he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

4 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

5 He telleth the number of the stars; he giveth them all their names.

6 Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; his understanding is infinite.

7 The Lord upholdeth the meek; he bringeth the wicked down to the ground.

8 Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving; sing praises upon the harp unto our God,

9 Who covereth the heavens with clouds,

10 Who prepareth rain for the earth,

11 Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains. He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

12 The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

13 Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem. Praise thy God, O Zion.

14 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates;

15 He hath blessed thy children within thee.

16 He maketh peace in thy borders;

17 He filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

18 He sendeth out his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

19 He giveth snow like wool; he scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.

20 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

21 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them:

22 He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

23 He showeth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

24 He hath not dealt so with any nation; and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the Lord.

SELECTION 11

PSALMS 135, 146

1 Praise ye the Lord. Praise ye the name of the Lord;

2 Praise him, O ye servants of the Lord:

3 Ye that stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God.

4 Praise ye the Lord; for the Lord is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

5 For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his own possession.

6 For I know that the Lord is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.

7 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

8 They have mouths, but they speak not;

9 Eyes have they, but they see not;

10 They have ears, but they hear not;

11 Neither is there any breath in their mouths.

12 They that make them shall be like unto them;

13 Yea, every one that trusteth in them.

14 O house of Israel, bless ye the Lord:

15 O house of Aaron, bless ye the Lord:

16 O house of Levi, bless ye the Lord:

17 Ye that fear the Lord, bless ye the Lord.

18 Blessed be the Lord out of Zion, who dwelleth at Jerusalem. Praise ye the Lord.

19 Praise ye the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul.

20 While I live will I praise the Lord: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

21 Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

22 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

23 Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God:

24 Who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is;

25 Who keepeth truth for ever; who executeth justice for the oppressed; who giveth food to the hungry.

26 The Lord looseth the prisoners; the Lord openeth the eyes of the blind;

27 The Lord raiseth up them that are bowed down; the Lord loveth the righteous;

28 The Lord preserveth the strangers; he upholdeth the fatherless and widow;

29 But the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

30 The Lord will reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

SELECTION 12

PSALMS 65, 48

1 Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts:

5 We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, the holy place of thy temple.

6 By terrible things thou wilt answer us in righteousness, O God of our salvation;

7 Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

8 Who by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded about with might:

9 Who stilleth the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the tumult of the peoples.

10 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens:

11 Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

12 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it, thou greatly enrichest it;

13 The river of God is full of water; thou providest them corn, when thou hast so prepared the earth.

14 Thou waterest its furrows abundantly; thou settlest the ridges thereof:

15 Thou makest it soft with showers; thou blessest the springing thereof.

16 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

17 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the hills are girded with joy.

18 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

19 Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised,

20 In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.

21 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north,

22 The city of the great King.

23 God hath made himself known in her palaces for a refuge.

24 We have thought on thy lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

25 As is thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth:

26 Thy right hand is full of righteousness.

27 Let Mount Zion be glad, let the daughters of Judah rejoice, because of thy judgments.

28 Walk about Zion, and go round about her; tell the towers thereof;

29 Mark ye well her bulwarks; consider her palaces: that ye may tell it to the generation following.

30 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

PSALM 34

1 I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the meek shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the Lord, and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked unto him, and were lightened; and their faces shall never be confounded.

6 This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

7 The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the Lord, ye his saints; for there is no want to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger; but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the Lord are toward the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cried, and the Lord heard, and delivered them out of all their troubles.

18 The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart, and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous; but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

21 Evil shall slay the wicked; and they that hate the righteous shall be condemned.

22 The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants; and none of them that trust in him shall be condemned.

SELECTION 14

PSALM 66

1 Make a joyful noise unto God, all the earth:

2 Sing forth the glory of his name: make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How terrible are thy works!

4 Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

5 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; and they shall sing to thy name.

6 Come and see the works of God; he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

7 He turned the sea into dry land; they went through the river on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

8 He ruleth by his might for ever; his eyes observe the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves.

9 O bless our God, ye peoples, and make the voice of his praise to be heard;

10 Who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

11 For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

12 Thou broughtest us into the net; thou layedst a sore burden upon our loins.

13 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water;

14 But thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

15 I will come into thy house with burnt-offerings; I will pay thee my vows,

16 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in distress.

17 I will offer unto thee burnt-offerings of fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats.

18 Come, and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

19 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

20 If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear:

21 But verily God hath heard; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

22 Blessed be God, who hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

PSALM 33

1 Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: praise is comely for the upright.

2 Give thanks unto the Lord with harp: sing praises unto him with the psaltery of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song; play skillfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the Lord is right; and all his work is done in faithfulness.

5 He loveth righteousness and justice:

6 The earth is full of the lovingkindness of the Lord.

7 By the word of the Lord were the heavens made;

8 And all of the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

9 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the deeps in storehouses.

10 Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

11 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

12 The Lord bringeth the counsel of the nations to naught:

13 He maketh the thoughts of the peoples to be of none effect.

14 The counsel of the Lord standeth fast for ever,

15 The thoughts of his heart to all generations.

16 Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

17 The Lord looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men;

18 From the place of his habitation he looketh forth upon all the inhabitants of the earth;

19 He that fashioneth the hearts of them all, that considereth all their works.

20 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

21 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great power.

22 Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his lovingkindness;

23 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

24 Our soul hath waited for the Lord: he is our help and our shield.

25 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

26 Let thy lovingkindness, O Lord, be upon us, according as we have hoped in thee.

PSALM 107, 1-22

1 O give thanks unto the Lord;
for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the adversary,

3 And gathered out of the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way; they found no city of habitation.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 He led them also by a straight way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and the hungry soul he filleth with good.

10 Such as sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron,

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High:

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of food; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sendeth his word, and healeth them, and delivereth them from their destructions.

21 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with singing.

PSALM 118, 1-9, 14-29

1 O give thanks unto the Lord;
for he is good: for his mercy endureth
for ever.

2 Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth forever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the Lord say, that his mercy endureth
for ever.

5 Out of my distress I called upon the Lord:

6 The Lord answered me and set me in a large place.

7 The Lord is on my side: I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

8 It is better to trust in the Lord
than to put confidence in man.

9 It is better to trust in the Lord
than to put confidence in princes.

10 The Lord is my strength and song; and he is become my salvation.

11 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous:

12 The right hand of the Lord
doeth valiantly.

13 The right hand of the Lord is exalted: The right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly.

14 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

15 The Lord hath chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.

16 Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will enter into them, I will give thanks unto the Lord.

17 This is the gate of the Lord;
the righteous shall enter into it.

18 I will give thanks unto thee, for thou hast answered me, and art become my salvation.

19 The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner.

20 This is the Lord's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

21 This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

22 Save now, we beseech thee, O
Lord: O Lord, we beseech thee, send now prosperity.

23 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

24 We have blessed you out of the house of the Lord.

25 The Lord is God, and he hath given us light:

26 Bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

27 Thou art my God, and I will give thanks unto thee: thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

28 O give thanks unto the Lord;
for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

SELECTION 18

PSALMS 136, 1-9, 23-26, 138

1 O give thanks unto the Lord;
for he is good: for his mercy endureth
for ever.

2 O give thanks unto the God of gods: for his mercy endureth for ever.

3 O give thanks unto the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 To him who alone doeth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever.

5 To him that by understanding made the heavens: for his mercy endureth
for ever.

6 To him that spread forth the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever.

7 To him that made great lights:
for his mercy endureth for ever:

8 The sun to rule by day: for his mercy endureth for ever:

9 The moon and stars to rule by night: for his mercy endureth for ever.

10 Who remembered us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth
for ever:

11 And hath delivered us from our adversaries: for his mercy endureth
for ever.

12 He giveth food to all flesh:
for his mercy endureth for ever.

13 O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever.

14 I will give thee thanks with my whole heart: before the gods will I sing praises unto thee.

15 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and give thanks unto thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth:

16 For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

17 In the day that I called thou answerest me, thou didst encourage me with strength in my soul.

18 All the kings of the earth shall give thee thanks, O Lord, for they have heard the words of thy mouth.

19 Yea, they shall sing of the ways of the Lord; for great is the glory of the Lord.

20 For though the Lord be high yet hath he respect unto the lowly:
but the haughty he knoweth from afar.

21 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me;

22 Thou shalt stretch forth thy hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

23 The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me:

24 Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever; forsake not the works of thine own hands.

PSALM 89, 1-18

1 I will sing of the mercy of the Lord for ever:

2 With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

3 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever;

4 Thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

5 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant;

6 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations.

7 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord;

8 Thy faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

9 For who in the skies can be compared unto the Lord?

10 Who among the sons of the mighty is like unto the Lord?

11 A God very terrible in the council of the holy ones,

12 And to be feared above all them that are round about him.

13 O Lord God of hosts, who is a mighty one, like unto thee, O Jehovah?

14 And thy faithfulness is round about thee,

15 Thou rulest the pride of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

16 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain;

17 Thou hast scattered thine enemies with the arm of thy strength.

18 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine:

19 The world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

20 The north and the south, thou hast created them:

21 Tabor and Hermon rejoice in thy name.

22 Thou hast a mighty arm; strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

23 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of thy throne:

24 Lovingkindness and truth go before thy face.

25 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance.

26 In thy name do they rejoice all the day; and in thy righteousness are they exalted.

27 For thou art the glory of their strength; and in thy favor our horn shall be exalted.

28 For our shield belongeth unto the Lord; and our king to the Holy One of Israel.

PSALMS 46, 23, 73: 27-28

1 God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not fear,
though the earth do change,

3 And though the mountains be moved in the heart of the seas;

4 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,

5 Though the mountains tremble with the swelling thereof.

6 There is a river, the streams
whereof make glad the city of God,

7 The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

8 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved:

9 God will help her, and that right early.

10 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

11 The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

12 Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

13 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth;

14 He breaketh the bow, and cut-teth the spear in sunder; he burneth
the chariots in the fire.

15 Be still, and know that I am
God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.

16 The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

17 The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

18 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

19 He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul:

20 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

21 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

22 For thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

23 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

24 Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

25 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

26 And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

27 For lo, they that are far from thee shall perish.

28 But it is good for me to draw near unto God: I have made the Lord Jehovah my refuge.

PSALM 90

1 Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,

3 Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

4 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

5 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

6 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep:

7 In the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

8 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up;

9 In the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

10 For we are consumed in thine anger, and in thy wrath are we troubled.

11 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee,

12 Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

13 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath:

14 We bring our years to an end as a tale that is told.

15 The days of our years are threescore years and ten, or even by reason of strength fourscore years;

16 Yet is their pride but labour and sorrow; for it is soon gone, and we fly away.

17 Who knoweth the power of thine anger, and thy wrath according to the fear that is due unto thee?

18 So teach us to number our days, that we may get us an heart of wisdom.

19 Return, O Lord; how long?

20 And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

21 Oh satisfy us in the morning with thy lovingkindness;

22 That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

23 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,

24 And the years wherein we have seen evil.

25 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory upon their children.

26 And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us:

27 And establish thou the work of our hands upon us;

28 Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

SELECTION 22

PSALM 91

1 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High,

2 Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

3 I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress;

4 My God, in whom I trust.

5 For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,

6 And from the noisome pestilence.

7 He shall cover thee with his pinions, and under his wings shalt thou take refuge:

8 His truth is a shield and a buckler.

9 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night;

10 Nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

11 For the pestilence that walketh in darkness;

12 Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

13 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand;

14 But it shall not come nigh thee.

15 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold, and see the reward of the wicked.

16 For thou, O Lord, art my refuge! Thou hast made the Most High thy habitation;

17 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.

18 For he will give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

19 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

20 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:

21 The young lion and the serpent shalt thou trample under foot.

22 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him:

23 I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

24 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;

25 I will be with him in trouble: I will deliver him, and honor him.

26 With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

SELECTION 23

PSALM 103

1 Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction;

5 Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

6 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.

7 The Lord executeth righteousness,

8 And judgments for all that are oppressed.

9 He made known his ways unto Moses,

10 His doings unto the children of Israel.

11 The Lord is merciful and gracious,

12 Slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

13 He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger for ever.

14 He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

15 For as the heaven is high above the earth,

16 So great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

17 As far as the east is from the west,

18 So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

19 Like as a father pitieth his children,

20 So the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

21 For he knoweth our frame; He remembereth that we are dust.

22 As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

23 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone;

24 And the place thereof shall know it no more.

25 But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,

26 And his righteousness unto children's children;

27 To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his precepts to do them.

28 The Lord hath established his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

29 Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength.

30 That do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

31 Bless the Lord, all ye his hosts, ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

32 Bless the Lord, all ye his works, in all places of his dominion: Bless the Lord, O my soul.

PSALMS 42, 63: 1-8

1 As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God:

3 When shall I come and appear before God?

4 My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

5 These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me;

6 How I went with the throng, and led them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.

7 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me?

8 Hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

9 O my God, my soul is cast down within me:

10 Therefore do I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and the Hermons, from the hill Mizar.

11 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterfalls:

12 All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

13 Yet the Lord will command his lovingkindness in the day-time,

14 And in the night his song shall be with me, even a prayer unto the God of my life.

15 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

16 As with a sword in my bones, mine adversaries reproach me; while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

17 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me?

18 Hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

19 O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee:

20 My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee, in a dry and weary land, where no water is.

21 So have I looked upon thee in the sanctuary, to see thy power and thy glory.

22 Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

23 So will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

24 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness;

25 And my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips;

26 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night-watches.

27 For thou hast been my help, and in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

28 My soul followeth hard after thee: Thy right hand upholdeth me.

PSALMS 113: 1-6, 115

1 Praise ye the Lord. Praise, O ye servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord.

2 Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time forth and for evermore.

3 From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the Lord's name is to be praised.

4 The Lord is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like unto the Lord our God, that hath his seat on high,

6 That humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven and in the earth?

7 Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory,

8 For thy lovingkindness, and for thy truth's sake.

9 Wherefore should the nations say, Where is now their God?

10 But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he pleased.

11 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

12 They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

13 They have ears, but they hear not; noses have they, but they smell not;

14 They have hands, but they handle not; teet have they, but they walk not; neither speak they through their throat.

15 They that make them shall be like unto them; yea, every one that trusteth in them.

16 O Israel, trust thou in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

17 O house of Aaron, trust ye in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

18 Ye that fear the Lord, trust in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

19 The Lord hath been mindful of us; he will bless us:

20 He will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.

21 He will bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great.

22 The Lord increase you more and more, you and your children.

23 Blessed are ye of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

24 The heavens are the heavens of the Lord; but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

25 The dead praise not the Lord, neither any that go down into silence;

26 But we will bless the Lord from this time forth and for evermore. Praise ye the Lord.

1 I waited patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay;

3 And he set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

4 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God:

5 Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

6 Blessed is the man that maketh the Lord his trust,

7 And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

8 Many, O Lord my God, are the wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to usward:

9 They cannot be set in order unto thee; if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

10 Sacrifice and offering thou hast no delight in;

11 Mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

12 Then said I, Lo, I am come; in the roll of the book it is written of me:

13 I delight to do thy will, O my God; yea, thy law is within my heart.

14 I have published righteousness in the great congregation;

15 Lo, I will not refrain my lips,
O Lord, thou knowest.

16 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart;

17 I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation:

18 I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

19 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord:

20 Let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

21 For innumerable evils have compassed me about, mine iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up;

22 They are more than the hairs of mine head, and my heart hath failed me.

23 Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O Lord.

24 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee:

25 Let such as love thy salvation say continually, The Lord be magnified.

26 But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: Thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

SELECTION 29

PSALMS 61, 62

1 Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I call unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed:

3 Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

4 For thou hast been a refuge for me, a strong tower from the enemy.

5 I will dwell in thy tabernacle for ever: I will take refuge in the covert of thy wings.

6 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

7 Thou wilt prolong the king's life; his years shall be as many generations.

8 He shall abide before God for ever:

9 O prepare lovingkindness and truth, that they may preserve him.

10 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

11 My soul waiteth in silence for God only: from him cometh my salvation.

12 He only is my rock and my salvation:

13 He is my high tower; I shall not be greatly moved.

14 My soul, wait thou in silence for God only; for my expectation is from him.

15 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my high tower; I shall not be moved.

16 With God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

17 Trust in him at all times, ye people; pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us.

18 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie:

19 In the balances they will go up; they are together lighter than vanity.

20 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery:

21 If riches increase, set not your heart thereon.

22 God hath spoken once, twice have I heard this, that power belongeth unto God.

23 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth lovingkindness;

24 For thou renderest to every man according to his work.

PSALM 51

1 Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness:

2 According to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

3 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

4 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

5 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done that which is evil in thy sight:

6 That thou mayest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

7 Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

8 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

9 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:

10 Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

11 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

12 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

13 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

14 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

15 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation: and uphold me with a willing spirit.

16 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

17 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation;

18 And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

19 O Lord, open thou my lips;

20 And my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

21 For thou delightest not in sacrifice; else would I give it:

22 Thou hast no pleasure in burnt offering.

23 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:

24 A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

PSALM 25

1 Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

2 O my God, in thee have I trusted, let me not be ashamed;

3 Let not mine enemies triumph over me.

4 Yea, none that wait on thee shall be ashamed:

5 They shall be ashamed that deal treacherously without cause.

6 Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths.

7 Guide me in thy truth, and teach me;

8 For thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

9 Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

10 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions:

11 According to thy lovingkindness remember thou me, for thy goodness' sake, O Lord.

12 Good and upright is the Lord: therefore will he instruct sinners in the way.

13 The meek will he guide in justice; and the meek will he teach his way.

14 All the paths of the Lord are lovingkindness and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

15 For thy name's sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity, for it is great.

16 What man is he that feareth the Lord?

17 Him shall he instruct in the way that he shall choose.

18 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the land.

19 The friendship of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant.

20 Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

21 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.

22 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: Oh bring thou me out of my distresses.

23 Consider mine affliction and my travail; and forgive all my sins.

24 Consider mine enemies, for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred.

25 O keep my soul, and deliver me:

26 Let me not be put to shame, for I put my trust in thee.

27 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait on thee.

28 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

SELECTION 32

PSALMS 32, 130

1 Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my groaning all the day long.

4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: My moisture was changed as with the drought of summer.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid:

6 I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

7 For this let every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found:

8 Surely when the great waters overflow they shall not reach unto him.

9 Thou art my hiding-place; thou wilt preserve me from trouble;

10 Thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

11 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go:

12 I will counsel thee with mine eye upon thee.

13 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding:

14 Whose trappings must be bit and bridle to hold them in, else they will not come near unto thee.

15 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;

16 But he that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

17 Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous;

18 And shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

19 Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord.

20 Lord, hear my voice: Let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

21 If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?

22 But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.

23 I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

24 My soul looketh for the Lord more than watchmen look for the morning.

25 Yea, more than watchmen for the morning.

26 O Israel, hope in the Lord; for with the Lord there is mercy,

27 And with him is plenteous redemption.

28 And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

PSALM 139: 1-18, 23, 24

1 O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me.

2 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

3 Thou searchest out my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7 Whither shall I go from thy spirit? Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there:

9 If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, thou art there.

10 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

11 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

12 If I say, Surely the darkness shall overwhelm me, and the light about me shall be night;

13 Even the darkness hideth not from thee, but the night shineth as the day:

14 The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

15 I will give thanks unto thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:

16 Wonderful are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! How great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts;

20 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM 86

1 Bow down thine ear, O Lord, and answer me; for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul; for I am godly: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord; for unto thee do I cry all the day long.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant; for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive;

6 And plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

7 Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer; and hearken unto the voice of my supplications.

8 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee; for thou wilt answer me.

9 There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord;

10 Neither are there any works like unto thy works.

11 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord;

12 And they shall glorify thy name. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

13 Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

14 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart; and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

15 For great is thy lovingkindness toward me; and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest pit.

16 O God, the proud are risen up against me, and the congregation of violent men have sought after my soul.

17 And have not set thee before them.

18 But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

19 O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me;

20 Give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thy handmaid.

21 Show me a token for good, that they who hate me may see it, and be put to shame,

22 Because thou, Lord, hast helped me, and comforted me.

1 I love the Lord, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

3 The cords of death compassed me, and the pains of Sheol gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon the name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful.

6 The Lord preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he saved me.

7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

10 I believe, for I will speak: I was greatly afflicted:

11 I said in my haste, all men are liars.

12 What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?

13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord.

14 I will pay my vows unto the Lord, yea, in the presence of all his people.

15 Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

16 O Lord, truly I am thy servant: I am thy servant, the son of thy handmaid; thou hast loosed my bonds.

17 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord.

18 I will pay my vows unto the Lord, yea, in the presence of all his people;

19 In the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the Lord.

20 O praise the Lord, all ye nations; laud him, all ye peoples.

PSALM 72

1 Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2 He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with justice.

3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the hills, in righteousness.

4 He shall judge the poor of the people,

5 He shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

6 They shall fear thee while the sun endureth, and so long as the moon, throughout all generations.

7 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass, as showers that water the earth.

8 In his days shall the righteous flourish, and abundance of peace, till the moon be no more.

9 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the River unto the ends of the earth.

10 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

11 The Kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall render tribute:

12 The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

13 Yea, all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall serve him;

14 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth, and the poor, that hath no helper.

15 He shall have pity on the poor and needy, and the souls of the needy he shall save.

16 He shall redeem their soul from oppression and violence; and precious shall their blood be in his sight:

17 And they shall live; and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba:

18 And men shall pray for him continually; they shall bless him all the day long.

19 There shall be abundance of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains;

20 The fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

21 His name shall endure for ever; his name shall be continued as long as the sun:

22 And men shall be blessed in him; all nations shall call him happy.

23 Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things:

24 And blessed be his glorious name for ever; and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen and Amen.

2 He sitteth between the cherubim; let the earth be moved.

3 The Lord is great in Zion; and he is high above all the peoples.

4 Let them praise thy great and terrible name: holy is he.

5 The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

6 Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at his footstool: holy is he.

7 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name;

8 They called upon the Lord, and he answered them.

9 He spake unto them in the pillar of cloud:

10 They kept his testimonies, and the statute that he gave them.

11 Thou answeredst them, O Lord our God:

12 Thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their doings.

13 Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the Lord our God is holy.

14 O give thanks unto the Lord, call upon his name; make known his doings among the peoples.

15 Sing unto him, sing praises unto him; talk ye of all his marvellous works.

16 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord.

17 Seek ye the Lord and his strength; seek his face evermore.

18 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,

19 He is the Lord our God: his judgments are in all the earth.

20 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

21 Praise ye the Lord. O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good;

22 For his mercy endureth for ever.

23 Who can utter the mighty acts of the Lord or show forth all his praise?

24 Blessed are they that keep judgment and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

PSALM 104

1 Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art very great;

thou art clothed with honor and majesty:

2 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment; who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain;

3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters; who maketh the clouds his chariot;

4 Who walketh upon the wings of the wind; who maketh winds his messengers; flames of fire his ministers;

5 Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be moved for ever.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a vesture; the waters stood above the mountains.

7 At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

8 They went up by the mountains, they went down by the valleys, unto the place which thou hadst founded for them.

9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 He sendeth forth springs into the valleys; they run among the mountains;

11 They give drink to every beast of the field; the wild asses quench their thirst.

12 By them the fowl of the heavens have their habitation; they sing among the branches.

13 He watereth the mountains from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

14 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man;

15 That he may bring forth food out of the earth, and bread that strengtheneth man's heart.

16 He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down.

17 Thou makest darkness, and it is night, wherein all the beasts of the forest creep forth.

18 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from God.

19 The sun ariseth, they get them away, and lay them down in their dens.

20 Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labor until the evening.

21 O Lord, how manifold are thy works!

22 In wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy riches.

PSALM 119: 1-8, 33-36, 41, 43

1 Blessed are they that are perfect in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.

2 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, that seek him with the whole heart.

3 Yea, they do no unrighteousness; they walk in his ways.

4 Thou hast commanded us thy precepts, that we should observe them diligently.

5 O that my ways were established to observe thy statutes!

6 Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

7 I will give thanks unto thee with uprightness of heart, when I learn thy righteous judgments.

8 I will observe thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

9 Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

10 With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

11 Thy word have I laid up in my heart, that I might not sin against thee.

12 Blessed art thou, O Lord: teach me thy statutes.

13 With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

15 I will meditate on thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

16 I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

17 Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live; so will I observe thy word.

18 Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

19 Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end.

20 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

21 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.

22 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness.

23 Let thy mercies also come unto me, O Lord, even thy salvation, according to thy word.

24 So shall I observe thy law continually for ever and ever.

1 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light:

2 They that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, thou hast increased their joy:

4 They joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

5 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder:

6 And his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end,

8 Upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom,

9 To establish it, and to uphold it with judgment and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever.

10 The zeal of the Lord of hosts shall perform this.

11 Behold my servant, whom I uphold; my chosen, in whom my soul delighteth:

12 I have put my spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles:

13 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

14 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench:

15 He shall bring forth judgment in truth.

16 He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set justice in the earth;

17 And the isles shall wait for his law.

18 Thus saith God the Lord, he that created the heavens, and stretched them forth;

19 He that spread abroad the earth and that which cometh out of it;

20 He that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:

21 I the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee,

22 And give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles;

23 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,

24 And them that sitteth in darkness out of the prison house.

25 I am the Lord; that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise unto graven images.

26 Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth.

5 The spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord;

6 And his delight shall be in the fear of the Lord:

7 And he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes,

8 Neither decide after the hearing of his ears:

9 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth.

10 And he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

11 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

4 The glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon:

5 They shall see the glory of the Lord, the excellency of our God.

6 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

7 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not:

8 Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God; he will come and save you.

9 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,

10 And the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

11 Then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing.

12 For in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

13 And the glowing sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water:

14 In the habitation of jackals, where they lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

15 And an highway shall be there, and a way,

16 And it shall be called The way of holiness;

17 The unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for the redeemed.

18 The wayfaring men, yea fools, shall not err therein.

19 No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up thereon, they shall not be found there;

20 But the redeemed shall walk there;

21 And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads:

22 They shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

ISAIAH 40, I-II

1 Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her,

3 That her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned;

4 That she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

5 The voice of one that crieth, Prepare ye in the wilderness the way of the Lord,

6 Make straight in the desert a high way for our God.

7 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low:

8 And the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

9 And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

10 The voice of one saying, Cry. And one said, What shall I cry?

11 All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

12 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; because the breath of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

13 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

14 O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up into the high mountain;

15 O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength;

16 Lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold, your God!

17 Behold, the Lord God will come as a mighty one, and his arm shall rule for him;

18 Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompence before him.

19 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd, he shall gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom,

20 And shall gently lead those that have their young.

ISAIAH 55

1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money;

2 Come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

3 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread?

4 And your labor for that which satisfieth not?

5 Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

6 Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live:

7 And I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

8 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples.

9 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not,

10 And a nation that knew not thee shall run unto thee,

11 Because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

12 Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

13 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts:

14 And let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

15 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord.

16 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

17 For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth,

18 And maketh it bring forth and bud, and giveth seed to the sower and bread to the eater;

19 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth:

20 It shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please,

21 And it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

22 For ye shall go out with joy,
and be led forth with peace:

23 The mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing,

24 And all the trees of the field
shall clap their hands.

25 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree:

26 And it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Christmas

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory. . . .

4 Glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.¹

5 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son,

6 That whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life.²

7 And thou shalt call his name

Jesus; for it is he that shall save his people from their sins.³

8 My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

9 For he hath looked upon the low estate of his handmaiden: for behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

10 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

11 And his mercy is unto generations and generations on them that fear him.⁴

12 And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger.

13 Because there was no room for them in the inn.

14 And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.

15 And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

16 And the angel said unto them,
Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people:

17 For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord.

20 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace good will toward men.⁵

ISAIAH 53

Good Friday

1 Who hath believed our message? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

2 For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground;

3 He hath no form or comeliness; and when we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

4 He was despised, and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief:

5 And as one from whom men hide their face he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

6 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows:

7 Yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

8 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities:

9 The chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

10 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way;

11 And the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

12 He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he opened not his mouth;

13 As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is dumb; so he opened not his mouth.

14 By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who among them considered

15 That he was cut off out of the land of the living for the transgression of my people to whom the stroke was due?

16 And they made his grave with the wicked, and with a rich man in his death;

17 Although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

18 Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief:

19 When thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days,

20 And the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

21 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied:

⁵ LUKE ii, 8-14.

22 By the knowledge of himself shall my righteous servant justify many: and he shall bear their iniquities.

23 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great,

24 And he shall divide the spoil with the strong;

25 Because he poured out his soul unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors:

26 Yet he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Easter

1 Now late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week,

2 Came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

3 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven,

4 And came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it.

5 His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

6 And for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men.

7 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, who hath been crucified.

8 He is not here; for he is risen, even as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

9 And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead;

10 And lo, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo: I have told you.

11 And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word.

12 And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. Be not afraid.¹

13 I am the resurrection, and the life:

14 He that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die.²

15 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

16 Who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

17 Unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

18 Who by the power of God are guarded through faith unto a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.³

1 I will extol thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

4 One generation shall laud thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5 Of the glorious majesty of thine honor, and of thy wondrous works, will I meditate.

6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts; and I will declare thy greatness.

7 They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

9 The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works.

10 All thy works shall give thanks unto thee, O Lord. And thy saints shall bless thee.

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

14 The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that are bowed down.

15 The eyes of all wait for thee; and thou givest them their food in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

3 For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples:

4 But the Lord shall rise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

5 The nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

6 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to thee:

7 Thy gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day or night;

8 That men may bring unto thee the wealth of the nations, and their kings led with them.

9 For that nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish;

10 Yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

11 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine, and the box tree together;

12 To beautify the place of my sanctuary, and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

13 And the sons of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee;

14 And all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet;

15 And they shall call thee The city of the Lord, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

16 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through thee,

17 I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, desolation nor destruction within thy borders;

19 But thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

20 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee:

21 But the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

22 Thy sun shall no more go down, neither shall thy moon withdraw itself.

23 For the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

24 Thy people also shall be all righteous, they shall inherit the land for ever.

1 The spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek;

2 He hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

3 To proclaim the year of Jehovah's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God;

4 To comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion,

5 To give unto them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;

6 That they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.

7 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations,

8 And they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

9 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks,

10 And aliens shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

11 But ye shall be named the priests of the Lord: men shall call you the ministers of our God:

12 Ye shall eat the wealth of the nations, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

13 Instead of your shame ye shall have double; and instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their portion:

14 Therefore in their land they shall possess double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

15 For I the Lord love justice, I hate robbery with iniquity;

16 And I will give them their recompense in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

17 And their seed shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples:

18 All that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the Lord hath blessed.

19 I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God;

20 For he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness,

21 As a bridegroom decketh himself with a garland,

22 And as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

23 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth;

24 So the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

25 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost;

The Nation

1 And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the Lord thy God,

2 To observe to do all his commandments which I command thee this day,

3 That the Lord thy God will set thee on high above all the nations of the earth:

4 And all these blessings shall come upon thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God.

5 Blessed shalt thou be in the city,

6 And blessed shalt thou be in the field.

7 Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle,

8 The increase of thy kine, and the young of thy flock.

9 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy kneadingtrough.

10 Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

11 The Lord shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thee:

12 They shall come out against thee one way, and shall flee before thee seven ways.

13 The Lord shall command the blessing upon thee in thy barns, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto:

14 And he shall bless thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

15 The Lord shall establish thee for an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee;

16 If thou shalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, and walk in his ways.

17 And all the peoples of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the Lord;

18 And they shall be afraid of thee.

19 And the Lord shall make thee plenteous for good, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground,

20 In the land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

21 The Lord shall open unto thee his good treasure the heaven to give the rain of thy land in its season, and to bless all the work of thine hand:

22 If thou shalt hearken unto the commandments of the Lord thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them;

23 And shalt not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

24 God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and cause his face to shine upon us;

REV. xxi: 1-4, 23, 24; xxii: 1-5, 14, 17, 20, 21.

1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth:

2 For the first heaven and the first earth are passed away; and the sea is no more.

3 And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,

4 Made ready as a bride adorned for her husband.

5 And I heard a great voice out of the throne saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them,

6 And they shall be his peoples, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God:

7 And he shall wipe away every tear from their eyes;

8 And death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more: the first things are passed away.

9 And the city hath no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine upon it :

10 For the glory of God did lighten it, and the lamp thereof is the Lamb.

11 And the nations shall walk amidst the light thereof :

12 And the kings of the earth do bring their glory into it.

13 And he shewed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal,

14 Proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lamb, in the midst of the street thereof.

15 And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month :

16 And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

17 And there shall be no curse any more :

18 And the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein :

19 And his servants shall do him service ;

20 And they shall see his face ; and his name shall be on their foreheads.

21 And there shall be night no more ; and they need no light of lamp, neither light of sun ;

22 For the Lord God shall give them light : and they shall reign for ever and ever.

23 Blessed are they that wash their robes, that they may have the right to come to the tree of life,

24 And may enter in by the gates into the city.

25 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come.

26 And he that heareth, let him say, Come.

27 And he that is athirst, let him come :

28 And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

29 He which testifieth these things saith, Yea : I come quickly.
